BAGNELL ESTATE OF $2,500,000 LEFT TO FAMILY

Two Pieces of Downtown Realty, Valued at $1,000,000 Form a Trust Under Will.

RESIDENCE AND AUTOS TO WIDOW

Building Sites to Go to Descendants of Brother, Thomas H. Bagnell, if Relatives Have No Heirs.

The estate of William Bagnell, railroad builder, having an estimated value of $2,500,000, is left to his immediate family, in his will, filed yesterday.

Personal property, believed to represent more than one-half the value of the estate, is left outright to the widow, Mrs. Sally Adams Bagnell, the son, Robert A. Bagnell, and the daughter, Mrs. Effie Bagnell Hughes of Dallas, Tex.

Two pieces of downtown realty, with an estimated value of $800,000 to $1,000,000, from a trust estate under the will. This trust estate is left for the benefit of Mrs. Bagnell and the son and daughter during their lifetime, the widow receiving 57 per cent of the income, and the son and daughter 21½ per cent each.

Disposition at End of Trust.

After the death of the wife, son and daughter, the principal shall be distributed among their descendants, if any.

If no descendants survive the son and daughter, the will provides that the trust estate shall pass to the descendants of Thomas H. Bagnell, a brother of William Bagnell.

If no descendants of Thomas H. Bagnell shall be eligible to the trust estate, it shall pass, at the expiration of the trust period, to the Episcopal Church of the Holy Communion, Washington boulevard and Leffingwell avenue, and the Episcopal Orphans' Home, 1711 South Grand boulevard, in such proportion as may be determined by the Episcopal Bishop of Missouri.

The son, Robert A. Bagnell, is not married. The daughter, Mrs. Hughes, has no child. One of the sons of Thomas H. Bagnell, Robert Bagnell, a nephew of the testator, is married and has children.

Two Downtown Sites.

The realty, forming the trust portion of the Bagnell estate, consists of a large part of the site of the Syndicate Trust Building, on the east side of Tenth street, between Olive and Locust streets, and the building site at the northwest corner of Seventh street and Washington avenue. The building is not included, in either case.

The will was executed June 2, 1924. The executors are Mrs. Bagnell, her son, Robert A. Bagnell, and the Mississippi Valley Trust Co., and the trustees are the same.

Mrs. Bagnell receives the house and furnishings at 12 Westmoreland place, also all automobiles and jewelry, and four-tenths of the remaining personal property, bonds, loans, life insurance and cash.

The son and daughter receive each three-tenths of the personal property, aside from the house and other bequests to Mrs. Bagnell. The heirs are requested to pay $100 a month to Mrs. Effie Johnson, sister of Mrs. Bagnell, during her lifetime.

In the distribution of the personal estate, the will requests that the common and preferred stock of the Mississippi Valley Iron Co., and bonds of that company, be made a part of the son's share.

4,209,000 PUPILS CONTRIBUTE TO RESTORE OLD U. S. FRIGATE

Subscriptions for Work on the Constitution Total $200,000, Secretary Wilbur Announces.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Secretary Wilbur has received a report from the Boston Navy Yard that a total of 4,209,000 school children have subscribed to the fund for the restoration of the old frigate Constitution. The work will cost approximately $500,000 and subscriptions now aggregate $200,000.

Requests have reached the Secretary from many coastal and river points that the ship be routed that way when she makes a pilgrimage after the reconstruction has been completed. Although the Constitution draws 20 feet of water, some of the requests come from towns on waterways too shallow to float her.

ANDREWS MOVES TO TIGHTEN VOLSTEAD LAW

Would Put All Cereal Beverage Plants Under U. S. Supervision—Senate Committee Refuses to Subpena Wets.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Tightening up of the provisions of the Volstead act was proposed to Congress today by the administration as an essential to successful enforcement of the prohibition law.

Seven amendments recommended by Assistant Secretary Andrews of the Treasury, were incorporated in a bill introduced by Senator Goff (Rep.) of West Virginia.

The amending measure was referred to the Senate subcommittee which is about to make an inquiry into prohibition enforcement.

The amendments proposed, among other things:

The placing of all cereal beverage plants under governmental supervision.

Issuance of warrants for the search of private dwellings on evidence of manufacture of liquor for commercial purposes.

Imposition of severe penalties for the counterfeiting of permits and prescriptions.

Summary condemnation of vehicles seized in liquor violations.

The Senate Prohibition Committee refused today to issue subpenas for 18 witnesses which the wets desired to have heard next week.

The committee divided, 4 to 1, Senator Reed (Dem.), Missouri, alone voting to sustain the request of Senator Edge (Rep.), New Jersey, that a number of police chiefs, Judges, Sheriffs, doctors and others be formally subpenaed to appear here on the bills for modification of the Volstead act and the eighteenth amendment.

The committee contemplates summoning only Government officials, leaving the wets to get their own witnesses, and Senator Edge explained that he could not get many of them here except through formal subpenas.

Senator Walsh (Dem.), Montana, led the fight against summoning witnesses.

Among the witnesses sought by Edge was Dr. Max C. Starkloff, Health Commissioner of St. Louis.

NEW TURKISH LAWS OPEN GOVERNMENT PLACES TO WOMEN

Qualifications Will Be High School Education and Non-Marriage to Aliens..

By the Associated Press.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 2.—New regulations for the Government service, now being prepared by the National Assembly, will open all Turkish Government positions to women, provided they have had a high school education and are not married to foreigners. The educational requirement and the ban against marriage to non-Turks apply to all Government employes.

The marriage clause will not be retroactive except for officials of the war, navy, consular and diplomatic services, and members of these departments may remain in the Government service by transfer to other branches. Government employes who marry foreigners after the promulgation of the new regulations will be dismissed.

Foreigners may become Government employes after remaining in the country for five years.

JOHN T. KING INDICTED ON PERJURY CHARGE

True Bill Follows Inquiry in Disposal of American Metal Co. Securities.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 2.—John T. King, formerly prominent in Connecticut Republican politics, was indicted today by a special Federal grand jury for perjury in connection with his income tax return of 1921.

The indictment grew out of a three months investigation of the turning over of securities of the American Metal Co. to a Swiss corporation owned by Germans. The indictment charged that King returned a false affidavit of his income in that year, showing a gross income of $34,500 and a net income of only $266.

However, testimony before the grand jury was to the effect that he received an unnamed percentage of $450,000 paid in behalf of Richard Merton, representing Germans who purchased the American Metal Co.

King, formerly Republican National committeeman from Connecticut, was in the courtroom when the indictment was handed up to Federal Judge Knox.

King was summoned as a witness before the Federal grand jury in October in the investigation into the affairs of Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian, who was indicted for conspiracy to defraud the Government in the American Metal case.

The indictment charges that King's gross income for 1921 was more than $196,549 and that his net income was more than $137,266; also that the tax due the Government was in excess of $40,000.

King pleaded not guilty when arraigned and was held for trial April 12 in $2500 bail.

BANKRUPT ILLINOIS BANKER GETS ONE TO THREE YEARS

Jury Also Fines Him and Another Member of Failed Concern $267.

ELGIN, Ill., April 2.—Sam T. Peterson and Walter C. Rippberger, heads of the bankrupt Charles Rippberger Co., were found guilty of receiving money as bankers after insolvency by a jury in Circuit Judge John K. Newhall's court at Geneva this morning. The jury went out at 4:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The defendants were fined $267 each by the jury, while Rippberger was sentenced to the penitentiary for one to three years.

Judge Newhall set April 26 as the date for starting the trial on remainder of the indictments in order. The next true bill to be tried against the defendants charges them with "conspiracy to obtain money by means of the confidence game."

PRESIDENT ORDERS ECONOMIC SURVEY OF PHILIPPINES

Appoints Carmi Thompson to Make Intensive Study of Possibilities of the Islands

HE WILL SAIL FOR MANILA IN JUNE

Step Believed to Have Approval of Gen. Wood Who Has Had Support of Administration.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Carmi A. Thompson of Ohio was appointed by President Coolidge today as a special commissioner to survey economic and internal conditions in the Philippines.

"The decision of the President to take this step," a White House announcement said, "follows the increased interest in Congress recently in regard to the Philippine Islands.

"Moreover, the President feels that an intensive study of the possibilities of the insular possessions may lead to increased development of their natural resources and that such a study will be of great benefit and importance not only to the United States, but to the Filipinos as well.

"It is his desire to obtain further information gathered by a man in whom he has confidence and whose practical experience will enable him to give the President a comprehensive and accurate report."

The White House announcement described Thompson as a close friend of Governor-General Wood of the islands, but made no mention of the differences which have arisen between the Governor-General and the Philippine independence group here.

Thompson is expected to sail for the islands early in June. He has been in conference with President Coolidge this week.

The commissioner is president of the Spanish War Veterans' Association and is prominent in Ohio politics where he was Republican candidate for Governor against Gov. Donahey four years ago. He was secretary to President Taft and also served as Assistant Secretary of Interior and as Treasurer of the United States.

Thompson has conferred with Secretary of War Davis twice this week, but Davis said today he had not the "haziest" idea about the appointment. Philippine affairs are directly under the War Department.

It was indicated in White House circles, that the commissioner was going to the islands with knowledge and approval of Gen. Wood and that his mission carried no significance beyond that contained in the announcement. The administration has repeatedly announced its full support of the Governor-General.

GAMBLING CHARGES AGAINST TAMPA RACE TRACK OFFICERS

Employes of Jockey Club Also to Be Arrested in Effort to Halt the Meeting.

By the Associated Press.

TAMPA, Fla., April 2.—Forty officers and employes of the West Coast Jockey Club, including Harvey Myers, president, were accused of gambling and conspiracy by R. E. L. Chancey, County Solicitor, in a bill of information filed today.

Capiases for their arrest were issued and have been placed in the hands of the Sheriff, officials said. Service of the writs will be made late today or tomorrow. The action followed efforts of county officials and others to prevent the organization from completing a 45-day race meet at the Tampa Downs track. The meet is to close April 10.

DEATH SENTENCE FOR KILLING 50 PEASANTS BY BEATING

Two Former Czarist Officers Condemned for Activities in Denikine Campaign.

KHARKOV, Russia, April 2.—Two former Czarist officers, named Skrizhenovsky and Sholinsky, who fought in the armies of Gen. Denikine, were sentenced to death today, charged with having beaten to death 50 peasants with rifle rods during the Denikine campaign in South Russia in 1919-20. Two former Czarist police officers accused of having tortured and hanged Red soldiers and peasants, also were condemned to death.

Seventeen others, charged with similar crimes, received various sentences of solitary confinement.

ARCTIC FLYERS LAND SAFELY

They Reach Point Barrow, Alaska, From Fairbanks.

By the Associated Press.

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, April 2.—Capt. George Hubert Wilkins and Lieut. Carl Benjamin Eielson, who left here Wednesday in an airplane for Point Barrow, Alaska, have arrived at their destination.

A radio message from Barrow, 500 miles away over the top of the Brooks Range, received here, indicated that the adventurers arrived at Barrow 4½ hours after their departure from Fairbanks. Only small radio sets are at Barrow, and reception here was poor. The message was received last night, but appeared to have been written the day before. It said the explorers, who are preparing for an aerial expedition over the Arctic Ocean, "arrived safe Barrow noon." The airplane carried 3000 pounds of supplies.

SUZANNE LENGLEN ANNOUNCES BETROTHAL

Romance With Jacques B. Offenbach Began at St. Cloud in 1921.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, April 2.—Suzanne Lenglen is engaged to be married to Jacques Brindejones Offenbach, poet and writer and grandson of Jacques Offenbach, the famous composer of the "Tales of Hoffman," it was learned today.

The temperamental queen of the courts chose her intended husband outside the ranks of tennis players, but M. Offenbach is considered one of the most delightful poets of the younger generation of French letters.

In spite of official denials, Mlle. Lenglen is known during the last five years to have frowned upon the proposals of Dukes, Counts, Earls and American millionaires.

This engagement is hailed as a real love match. Suzanne will be 27 years old May 24, while M. Offenbach is 36.

M. Offenbach, unable to wield a racquet and seldom seen about the tennis courts, became smitten with Mlle. Lenglen during the hard court tournaments at St. Cloud in 1921, in which the French champion defeated Mrs. Molla Mallory.

During the intervening time, while reports of Mlle. Lenglen's engagement succeeded one another, the poet kept well in the background. Recently he and his wife were divorced by mutual consent.

The announcement of the betrothal today came as a great surprise to Paris. M. Offenbach has been accepted by the Lenglen family, but it has not been decided whether the wedding will take place before the Wimbledon tournament this summer or after.

Jacques Offenbach, originator of opera-bouffe, was born of Hebrew parents at Cologne in June 21, 1819 and died at Paris, Oct. 5, 1880. The work which he considered his masterpiece, and which still holds the boards in all opera houses, was "Les Contes d'Hoffmann," which was produced at the Opera Comique a year after the composer's death.

Mlle. Lenglen's fiance is a poor man. He is a reporter for the newspaper Le Gaulois, acting as musical and literary critic, with an income from this source of not more than 1200 francs (about $42) a month. However, he receives royalties from his grandfather's musical works, but the royalties on these will cease in 1930 when they revert into the public domain.

SENATE SOON TO TRY JUDGE ENGLISH; HE WON'T RESIGN

Fight Has Just Begun, According to Statement by Lawyers for Impeached East St. Louisan.

JURIST HAS NOTHING TO SAY ABOUT CASE

Counsel Voices Confidence of Client's Acquittal at Trial Before Bar of the Senate.

Counsel for Federal Judge George W. English of East St. Louis, in a statement today, announced that "there is not a chance on earth of his resignation," adding that "the fight for Judge English has just begun."

The jurist declined to make a statement to a Post-Dispatch reporter. To the Associated Press last night, when informed of his impeachment, the Judge had "nothing to say."

The statement for Judge English was given out by Bruce Campbell of East St. Louis, one of his counsel, who stated that he also was speaking for E. C. Kramer, R. J. Kramer, William M. Acton and Frank J. O'Hair, associate counsel.

It follows:

"The fight for Judge English has just begun. There is not a chance on earth of his resignation. Such an idea is only propaganda of those to whom the wish is father of the thought and who realize that there is not a chance of conviction in the Senate.

"His counsel have every confidence that in the Senate, sitting as a court of impeachment, Judge English will receive a fair and impartial trial at the hands of men of high character and ability, whose only consideration will be the law and the evidence. With that kind of a trial before such a tribunal we have no fear as to the result."

Judge English, a Democrat, has served on the Federal bench since May 9, 1918, when he was appointed by President Wilson. Union labor leaders in Southern Illinois and Samuel Gompers, late head of the American Federation of Labor, were foremost in promoting his appointment. The appointment grew out of a deadlock over the proposed nomination of another man.

The Eastern Illinois Judicial District, in which Judge English is the senior jurist and Judge Walter Lindley the junior jurist, comprises 45 counties, extending as far north as Kankakee County, as far east as the Indiana line and south to the Ohio River. Judge English holds court at East St. Louis and Cairo, and Judge Lindley at Danville.

Judge English was born at Vienna, Ill., and is 59 years old. He was a school teacher, Deputy Sheriff and lawyer in Johnson County, and later was a member of the Illinois Legislature. At the time of his appointment to the bench he was serving as attorney in the Income Tax Bureau at Washington.

COL. MITCHELL'S $1027 LAUGH AT EXPENSE OF AIR SERVICE

He Flew 37 Times in One Day After Release From Arrest to Get Extra Pay.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—William Mitchell believes he had the last laugh in his set-to with the army air service which resulted in his courtmartial and resignation.

Just before he resigned as Colonel, Mitchell slipped over to Bolling Field, made 37 flights in one day, and collected extra flying pay covering the three months he was under arrest. Comptroller-General McCarl has put his O. K. on the payment.

Mitchell had put in the necessary flying time up to November, but when released from courtmartial restraint, he found it necessary to make 30 flights to make up for lost time. For good measure he made it 37, all on Jan. 16.

McCarl ruled that Mitchell should be treated in the same manner as an officer prevented from doing duty by illness. The amount involved was $1027, and the Comptroller remarked, "It may be that he was released from arrest to enable him to perform duty, including flying."

House Votes Impeachment by Five to One—Senate to Get Report Some Time Next Week.

SEVEN PROSECUTORS TENTATIVELY NAMED

But Objection by Garrett, Democratic Leader, Causes Motion to Appoint to Be Laid Over.

By PAUL Y. ANDERSON,
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, April 2. — Federal Judge George Washington English of East St. Louis must go on trial for his official life before the United States Senate within the next few weeks, if he chooses to remain on the bench that long.

This was settled late yesterday, when the House of Representatives, by the overwhelming vote of 306 to 62, impeached him for high misdemeanors in office.

In the five articles of impeachment, drawn up by the Judiciary Committee which investigated his conduct, and adopted by the House yesterday, Judge English is charged with misbehavior consisting of tyrannical and oppressive conduct, corruption in the handling of bankruptcy funds and receiverships; partiality and favoritism to his Referee in Bankruptcy," Charles B. Thomas, coarse and indecent behavior on the bench, and with a course of conduct which brought the administration of justice into contempt and disgrace.

Seventh Case of Kind.

His impeachment was the result of an investigation based upon charges published in the Post-Dispatch more than a year ago, and called to the attention of the House by Representative Harry B. Hawes of St. Louis. The charges were the fruit of inquiries carried out in Judge English's district by Post-Dispatch reporters.

Judge English will be the seventh Federal Judge to be tried by the Senate since the Government was founded, and the third to be tried since the Civil War. Three were convicted and three acquitted. Conviction carries the penalty of removal from office and a decree forever debarring the convicted official from holding any office of public honor or trust. Of the other three impeachment trials in American history, one was of President Andrew Johnson, one of Senator William Blount and the other of Secretary of War William Belknap.

The action of the House yesterday followed three days of exciting and spectacular debate, marked by one attempted fist fight on the floor. It came immediately after the rejection of a motion to send the case back to the Judiciary Committee for further investigation, and after the House had defeated a second motion, to strike out the article charging tyranny and oppression.

Effect of Graham's Threat.

Proponents of impeachment, in the exact form and substance proposed by the Judiciary Committee, were overwhelmingly victorious all along the line.

A threat by Chairman Graham of the Judiciary Committee to kill the case if it were sent back to his committee undoubtedly had a salutary effect in persuading the House to adopt the articles at once and without change.

Nevertheless, the size of the majority, which was in the ratio of more than five to one, surprised the most ardent advocates of impeachement. For three days the defenders of Judge English had waged a vigorous and resourceful battle on the floor, and it had been estimated they would poll more than 100 votes. When the showdown came there was only a handful. Of the 62 who voted against impeachment, 41 were Democrats and 21 were Republicans. Three Illinois members voted "Present."

As soon as the roll call was concluded and the result announced, Graham offered a resolution providing for a board of seven managers to prosecute the case before the Senate.

Those nominated for this duty were Earl C. Michener of Michigan; Ira G. Hersey of Maine;

TWO CLAIMS FOR $29,533 IN SEALED PACKAGE IN BANK

Liberty Bonds and Certificates of Deposit Left by Civil War Veteran Who Died in Ireland.

SAVINGS OF FORMER BACHELOR FARMER

Nephew in Sparta, Ill., and Woman in Old Country Contest for Property of Neal McIntyre.

A sealed package held for safekeeping in the vault of the State National Bank, containing $18,150 in Liberty Bonds and $11,383 in certificates of deposit, is being contested for by a man at Sparta, Ill., and a woman in Ireland, through courts here and at Chester, Ill. It is the accumulated savings of a Civil War veteran, who was born and died in Ireland.

Circumstances became known with the filing of an answer in Probate Court here by the State National Bank, to interrogatories, or formal questions, propounded by Public Administrator Hampe in an effort to get the package for the woman.

Neal McIntyre, a thrifty bachelor farmer, resided for years near Sparta. His service as a Union soldier in the Civil War gained him a pension. Ireland called him back intermittently from 1886 until 1898 when he removed there permanently. He died Dec. 18, 1921, at Galgorm Parks, Ballymena.

Assigned Securities to Brother.

In 1914 he executed an assignment, turning his securities over to his brother, Samuel McIntyre of Sparta, to become the brother's own property upon his death, "in consideration of the many services rendered to me and in my behalf." In the meantime, Neal McIntyre lived on the income from his securities and his pension. In his will he left to his housekeeper, Margaret McCluney, his household effects and account in the Belfast Bank.

Samuel McIntyre died about June 1, 1924, bequeathing his entire estate to a son, Henry, of Sparta. Shortly before he died Samuel gave the First National Bank of Sparta a package containing the securities left by his brother. The bankers remembered the numerous robberies of financial institutions and, within a few months, arranged to seal the package and place it in the care of the State National Bank.

Banks Seek Relief.

Miss McCluney had learned about her employer's securities. She got a Chicago lawyer to file a copy of his Irish will at Chester, in December, 1923. Neal McIntyre had left no property in America except the securities given his brother. The Public Administrator at Chester claimed the securities for Miss McCluney under the will, while Henry McIntyre, as executor and heir of his father's estate, claimed the savings of his uncle.

A St. Louis lawyer was employed in behalf of the Irish claimant when it was found the package was here, and another copy of the will was filed here and Public Administrator Hampe was induced to seek the package for Miss McCluney.

The rival claimants took the matter to the Circuit Court of Randolph County, where it is pending, the Sparta bank having been directed by the court to continue as custodian of the package, for the Court. Now both banks would be well pleased to be free of the controversy. In its answer to the interrogatories the State National Bank asks to be relieved of further responsibility to Probate Court, claiming the Public Administrator and Probate Court here are without jurisdiction and contending that the package does not belong to the estate of Neal McIntyre.

53 Scarlet Fever Cases in County.

A daily inspection is being made in the schools of St. Louis County in an effort to detect the first symptoms of scarlet fever to prevent an epidemic, it was announced today by Dr. A. E. Walters, St. Louis County Health Commissioner. There are now 53 cases of scarlet fever, 108 of measles and 12 cases of chicken pox in St. Louis County.

Two-Thirds Vote Needed to Oust English

PARTY LINES DISCARDED IN VOTE ON IMPEACHMENT

Missouri Delegation of Nine Democrats and Seven Republicans Favored Trial—Illinoisans Divided.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Analysis of the votes for impeachment of Federal Judge English of East St. Louis and for the motion to recommit the resolution to the Judiciary Committee reveals an almost complete obliteration of party lines.

The Missouri delegation of 16 members, composed of nine Democrats and seven Republicans, voted solidly for impeachment and against the motion to recommit.

The Illinois vote was divided, but not on party lines. Of the 27 members nine voted for impeachment, seven voted against, six did not vote, two answered present, two were paired for impeachment and one was paired against.

Thus 11 were for inpeachment, eight were against and eight were not recorded either way. Representative Ed M. Irwin of East St. Louis (Rep.) was paired for impeachment. He was not in Washington yesterday but by his pair he recorded his opposition to Judge English. Representative E. E. Denison (Rep.) voted present. He stated that he was for impeachment but had refrained from voting because he had been mentioned as Judge English's successor.

The Illinoisans voting for impeachment were Madden, Morton, D. Hull, W. E. Hull, Chindblom, Fuller, Adkins, Wheeler, all Republicans, and Sabath, Kunz, both Democrats.

Those voting against impeachment were Reid, Allen, King, Holoday, Yates, Republicans, and Rainey and Arnold, Democrats. Williams and Denison answered present. Sproul, Britten, Johnson, Funk, Rathbone, Republicans, and Doyle, Democrat, were recorded as not voting. Gorman, Republican, was paired for impeachment with Michaelson, Republican, against. Irwin, as stated, was paired for impeachment.

The entire Wisconsin delegation with the exception of James A. Frear, who was recorded as not voting, cast their ballots for impeachment. In this delegation were Henry Allen Cooper, the dean of the House, who was a leader in the fight for impeachment, and John M. Nelson, who marshalled the La Follette forces in the last presidential campaign.

The Arkansas vote was divided. William A. Oldfield, chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee, voted against impeachment, as did James B. Reed and Tilman B. Parks. Driver, Tillman and Ragon voted for impeachment. Wingo was recorded as not voting.

Oklahoma Vote Split.

In the Oklahoma delegation the vote was split. Carter, McKeown and Thomas voted against impeachment while Montgomery, Hastings, Swank and McClintic voted for. Garber was recorded as not voting.

There were many changes between the vote to recommit the resolution to the Judiciary Committee and the impeachment vote.

Finis J. Garrett, Democratic floor leader, who introduced the motion to recommit, however, voted against impeachment.

Blanton of Texas (Dem.) voted to recommit and then voted for impeachment.

Others who voted to recommit and then voted for impeachment were Cordell Hull of Tennessee, former chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and Charles R. Crisp (Dem.) of Georgia, one of the leading parliamentarians in the House.

Will R. Wood of Indiana, chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, voted to recommit, but was recorded as not voting in the impeachment ballot.

Royal H. Weller (Dem.) of New York, a member of the Investigating Committee, voted against recommitting the bill and for impeachment. Weller for a time was considered against impeachment. His vote yesterday made the report of the Investigating Committee unanimous and increased the vote of the majority of the Judiciary Committee to 19.

Of the Judiciary Committee only four voted against impeachment.

Berger and Laguardia, the two Socialists i nthe House, stood for impeachment, as did Wefald and Kvale, the two representatives of the Farmer-Labor party.

George R. Stobbs of Massachusetts; W. D. Boies of Iowa and C. Ellis Moore of Ohio, Republicans, and Hatton W. Sumners of Texas and Andrew J. Montague of Virginia, Democrats.

Garrett Objects.

Minority Leader Finis J. Garrett of Tennessee, who had voted against impeachment, but failed to carry more than a fraction of his following with him, at once objected on the ground that the party division as proposed was unfair.

"It must be a Pennsylvania division," he wryly remarked to Graham. The latter replied that there was plenty of precedent for it. Garrett insisted, however, that the resolution lie over, and Graham consented to withdraw it until Tuesday.

Nevertheless, it is certain that the prosecutors will be substantially as proposed, with the possible addition of one or two members.

Michener, Sumners, Hersey and Beise are all members of the subcommittee which conducted the investigation, taking testimony in St. Louis a year ago. All of the seven are members of the Judiciary Committee, and, hence, lawyers of experience.

The resolutions naming the managers also proposed to give them the following instructions:

"To appear before the Senate of the United States, and at the bar thereof, in the name of the House of Representatives and of all the people of the United States, to impeach the said George W. English of misdemeanors in office and to exhibit to the Senate the articles of impeachment against the said Judge which have been agreed upon by this House; and that the Senate take order for the appearance of the said George W. English to answer the said impeachment and to demand his impeachment, conviction and removal from office."

Two-Thirds Vote to Convict.

A two-thirds vote in the Senate will be necessary to convict Judge English.

As soon as the managers have been definitely named on Tuesday, they will make arrangements with the Senate majority leader, Curtis of Kansas, for their formal appearance in the Senate as described by the instructions.

This is likely to take place next week. The Senate must take up the matter at 1 o'clock of the following day. Then, or on some subsequent day, the Senate will resolve itself into a court of impeachment—for which purpose a special oath is administered to each member and a summons will be issued for Judge English to present himself immediately at the bar of the Senate.

When Judge English has appeared in person and with counsel, he will be given a certain period in which to prepare his case and submit a brief, to which the House managers will respond with their own brief, and the date for trial will then be set.

At the suggestion of House and Senate leaders, President Coolidge already has agreed to a special session of the Senate to conduct the trial, following the end of the regular session around May 1.

It has been the opinion of the leaders that the Senate can sit as a court after the House has adjourned, but a difference of opinion arose in the Senate and a subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee is now investigating the law and the precedents and has not yet reported.

Debate Reaches Climax.

Debate in the House, which waxed eloquent and furious throughout the three days, reached its climax yesterday in the closing arguments. Representatives Bowling of Alabama and Weaver of North Carolina, who led the fight for Judge English, each made addresses of more than an hour in length.

But the tide, which apparently had been going in their favor, was abruptly turned by four short, snappy, successive addresses by Stobbs, Michener, Moore and Montague, in which they riddled the defense and the final blow was dealt in the classical closing speech of Graham.

Stobbs, a new member from Ohio, making his maiden speech, and Montague, a distinguished former Governor of Virginia and a member of long standing, were particularly effective. Montague scathingly reproached members who, he said, had offered "as a defense of a Federal Judge the sort of arguments they would employ in behalf of a common criminal on trial for his liberty."

Asks About Standards.

"I am at a loss to know what these gentlemen mean," he rasped. "Is this their idea of a proper standard for the Federal Judiciary?"

Both Bowling and Weaver assailed the evidence as being insufficient to impeach and charged proponents of impeachment with allowing their fancy to link unrelated circumstances into a chain of so-called evidence. Weaver said they reminded him "of one of these scientists who goes out and finds a tooth, and reconstructs around it an animal 600 feet long with a tail that churns up the inland seas."

"Imagine the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, booted and spurred, astride this beast and riding hard for impeachment, and the picture is complete," he said, amid general laughter from both sides.

The chronology of events following the close of the debate was short, but marked by some disorder. Garrett offered a motion referring the case back to the Judiciary Committee, with instructions to take the testimony of Thomas and other competent witnesses. A roll call was had and the motion was voted down, 275 to 90, with 66 not voting.

It was at once apparent that a vote of impeachment was inevitable. Majority Leader Tilson and other leaders were seen to be in favor of adopting the articles at once. Bowling then offered a motion to strike out article one, which contained the charges of tyrannical and oppressive conduct, including the disbarment of attorneys, the lecturing of State officials and the intimidation of newspaper men. It was lost by a vote of 260 to 101. There was no roll cal lon this motion. A standing vote decided it.

So quickly that many did not understand what was happening, Speaker Longworth put the question of adopting the articles, and it carried by a chorus of ayes.

Opponents immediately protested, and the Speaker, admitting the members probably had not understood, vacated the vote, and ordered a roll call. The fight was over, however.

Many members stood around the clerk with their coats and hats in hand, impatiently waiting to answer to their names, the final vote being 306 to 62. Sixty did not vote. Three answered present and there were nine pairs.

In this fashion, then, was a Judge, on the bench for life, or during good behavior, ordered to take his stand before the Senate to be tried for his officitl life.

Dead Man Credited With a Vote Against Impeachment.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—A dead man was recorded on the official House roll call yesterday as having voted against the impeachment of Federal Judge George W. English of East St. Louis. Amid confusion in the chamber, tally clerks, who were using an old list, heard a "no" when they reached the name of the late Representative Thayer of Massachusetts, who died recently.

They had failed to notice that the clerk calling the roll had passed over Thayer's name to Thomas of Oklahoma, and they credited Thomas' negative vote to Thayer.

The mistake deranged the roll call, and was not discovered until the result had been announced. The error, with other discrepancies, changed the total, originally announced as 306 to 60 in favor of impeachment, to 306 to 62.

An account of yesterday's debate on the impeachment of Judge English is published on Page 4 of this edition.

3151 NAMES ON MILLER RECALL PETITIONS OBTAINED

Chairman Heil Says Circulation in 21 Precincts in 17 Wards Was Designed as Test.

Petitions for the recall of Mayor Miller have been signed by 3151 persons in 21 precincts in 17 wards, John J. Heil, chairman of the Miller Recall Committee, announced at noon today after a conference with circulators of petitions in key precincts. This preliminary circulation was designed merely to gauge the sentiment relative to the recall movement.

Heil said that city-wide circulation of the petitions would begin Monday in the hope that sufficient signatures would be obtained to submit the question of the Mayor's recall to the voters at the August primary.

Two out of every three persons solicited, on an average, signed the recall petitions thus far circulated, Heil said. He said the movement was developing along non-partisan lines and that Democrats, as well as Republicans were lending their support.

ACTOR'S FUNERAL IN THEATER

Thousands Unable to Get In Await Jacob Adler Cortege in Street.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 2.—The lower East Side this afternoon paid its last tribute to the Yiddish tragedian, Jacob P. Adler, the services being held in a theater.

While thousands lined the streets, his body, in a casket chosen by him 25 years ago, was taken from the Hebrew Actors' Club to Kessler's Second Avenue Theater, where the man and his art were eulogized by representative speakers. The theater was packed. Thousands could not get in and stood about on Second avenue waiting for the funeral procession to be resumed to Mount Carmel Cemetery.

Among the mourners at his funeral was his son, Irving, convicted counterfeiter, for whom the gates of Sing Sing swung open that he might attend the last rites for his father.

MAN INJURED IN SALOON BRAWL DIES; TWO HELD

Frank Schnell, Who Succumbs to Ruptured Bladder Had Complained of Rough Treatment.

The death of Frank Schell, 36 years old, a painter, of 2505 Maiden Lane, at City Hospital Wednesday, prompted a police investigation resulting in the arrest yesterday of Tony Tornatore, 21, and his father, Jacob, 51, saloon keepers at 1816 North Jefferson avenue. Schell died of a ruptured bladder suffered Saturday afternoon.

According to Schell's family, he came home late Saturday complaining of severe pains in the abdomen. He said he was drinking in Tornatore's saloon and was accused of failing to pay for a drink. Tony Tornatore, he declared, seized him from behind, threw him down and sat heavily on him. A physician ordered Schell to the hospital that night.

The Tornatores, held pending an inquest tomorrow, refused to make a statement.

Schell is survived by his widow, Vera, and three children, the youngest 10 years old. He was a soldier overseas during the World War.

NEW RECORD FOR MAURETANIA

Liner Made 29 Knots an Hour in Racing to Sinking Freighter.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 2. — The Cunard Liner Mauretania, fleetest of the passenger ships on the Atlantic, lost to a British tanker a race to the sinking freighter Laleham, off Halifax on March 31, but during the race made a new speed record for herself, it was learned when the liner arrival here today.

The ship's log showed that, despite a strong wind and rough sea, the Mauretania sustained a speed of 29 knots for an hour during the race toward the stricken freighter. The best previous sustained speed was 27.04 knots, made on a westward run several years ago. The liner lost the race to the Laleham by four hours, but had everything in readiness to rescue the 37 seamen from the sinking vessel if the liner had reached the scene first. Broth was prepared, a special set of staterooms was set aside, and lifeboats and lifesaving paraphernalia were put in readiness. When the tanker Shirvan wirelessed that all of the Laleham's crew had been saved, Capt. Rostron proceeded to New York.

THREE OCTOGENARIANS DIE

Three octogenarians died in Belleville yesterday. All were members of pioneer families. They were Mrs. Mary J. Beckert, 88 years old; Mrs. Margaret Skaer, 84, and Christopher Benedict, 88. Death in each case was due to infirmities of age.

All had resided in Belleville for more than half a century. Mrs. Beckert is survived by three children, 12 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Skaer is survived by two sons, six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; and Benedict by seven children and 15 grandchildren.

MAN FIRED BY WALL TO GET HIS OLD JOB BACK

George B. Heath, Chief Complainant Against Director, to Be Reinstated in $3600-a-Year Position.

George B. Heath, chief complainant against Edward E. Wall, will be reinstated in his former position, that of superintendent of electrical construction in the Utilities Department, as a result of Wall's removal by Mayor Miller from the office of Director of Public Utilities.

John C. Pritchard, provisionally promoted from Water Commissioner to Director, said today that he would appoint Heath to the position of superintendent, which Heath held until Wall discharged him. Director Pritchard said he did not know who would be appointed to the position of chief electrical engineer of the department, made vacant by the resignation of Ralf Toensfeldt yesterday.

The position of superintendent of construction pays $3600 a year and that of chief electrical engineer $4200.

Agreement With Pritchard.

Mayor Miller intended, upon removing Wall, to name Water Commissioner Pritchard as temporary head of the Utilities Department. But the City Counselor yesterday advised him that the charter did not provide for appointment of an acting or temporary director. So Pritchard was named for the unexpired portion of Wall's term, which ends May 1, 1929. The Mayor's understanding with Pritchard, as explained by Pritchard today, is that if the Mayor decides on an appointment to the directorship, Pritchard shall resign and resume the position of Water Commissioner. No Water Commissioner will be appointed at present, and Pritchard will continue to exercise the duties of that position.

The position of Water Commissioner pays $7000 a year, and the directorship $8000.

When the Mayor first filed the charges against Wall, to bring about his removal from the directorship, it was known that he planned to appoint Leonard Day, a mechanical engineer in the Water Department, to the directorship. Later, the Mayor said Day would not be appointed. He said at the same time that he did not think it likely that Heath would come back into the city's service.

Day Still Possibility.

It is considered still possible that Day may be the Mayor's ultimate choice for director. Day was a witness in the Mayor's trial of Wall, testifying to Wall's remark terming the city administration "crooked." One of the Mayor's charges against Wall was that he was not versed in electrical engineering, and it was pointed out in that connection that Day, as well as Wall, was a hydraulic, rather than an electrical, expert.

In his statement following his removal yesterday, Wall spoke of Heath as having been removed by him, and as, "in my judgment, not competent for the place." The Mayor had demanded that Toensfeldt be discharged, and Heath appointed chief electrical engineer in his place.

On taking hold of the director's office today, Pritchard found himself temporarily crippled by the loss of most of the office staff. As told yesterday, Miss Bertha Pillman, chief clerk of the department, and three other women employes, Misses Ann Warldbart, Freda Recker and Lily Reisinger, resigned because of Wall's removal yesterday. Toensfeldt's resignation also took effect immediately.

New Utilities Chief.

BOY WHO SWALLOWED BEAD IMPROVES

Child Sits Up After Operation in Philadelphia Following Journey From India.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—Thomsa Rice, 5 years old, who traveled 12,000 miles from Damoh, India, to have a glass bead removed from the lower right bronchus, today is sitting up and smiling in Jefferson Hospital here. The operation was a success.

The boy is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Ray E. Rice, missionaries in India under the auspices of the United Christian Missionary Society of St. Louis. He will spend the summer at Lincoln, Neb., the home of his parents, before returning with them to India in the fall.

Thomas was playing in Damoh, Central Province, India, on Jan. 6. He had a bead, one-quarter inch by one-half inch in size, in his mouth as he was pushing a little friend in a wagon. He laughed, and sucked the bead into his bronchial tube.

His parents, in charge of the Disciples' Mission at Damoh, took the boy to Jubbulpore for an X-ray examination, after which he became quite ill. He was taken 750 miles to Calcutta, where an unsuccessful operation was performed and the boy became ill with pneumonia. After his recovery he was taken back to Damoh and became ill again. When he recovered sufficiently to travel physicians advised he be removed to the bronchoscopic department of Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia.

With his parents, their other two children, 2 and 8 years old, the boy sailed from Bombay, March 6, going to Marseilles, Paris, Cherbourg and New York and arrived Tuesday. They were accompanied by Dr. J. E. Crozer of St. Louis, Mo.

An operation was performed with the bronchoscope and the bead removed. Today the little patient was "doing very well," it was announced.

OFFICERS TAKE SWINDLER SUSPECT TO EAST BY RUSE

Henry Ludwig Removed by Method Used in Chris Von der Ahe "Kidnaping" in 1897.

RUSHED IN TAXICAB TO TRAIN IN ILLINOIS

Prisoner Identified as Man Who Defrauded Women at Several Places — Big Appetite Led to Arrest.

A method employed in 1897 in the famous "kidnaping" of Chris Von der Ahe, president of the St. Louis Browns, was used today to take Henry Ludwig out of St. Louis and start him back toward Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he is wanted for jumping a $10,000 bond last July, following his arrest for alleged frauds at New York City, Scranton, Pa., and other places.

It will be recalled that Von der Ahe, who died in 1913, was seized at a local hotel by detectives from Pittsburg, Pa., driven across Eads Bridge in a carriage, put on a train and taken to Pittsburg to satisfy a court judgment for $10,000.

The seizure, without requisition papers, was upheld by the courts. The abduction had been arranged by Von der Ahe's bondsman, who had the option of producing Von der Ahe in Pittsburg or paying the judgment.

Turned Over on Bail Piece.

This morning there appeared at Police Headquarters Sidney G. Hartnett, representing the Columbia Casualty Co., which was on the $10,000 bond at Poughkeepsie, and Police Captain Harry S. Colle of Scranton. Hartnett presented a bail piece—a document issued by the Judge of the court at Poughkeepsie, in which the bond is given, Police officials here said it was the first time since the Von der Ahe case that a bail piece was presented in St. Louis.

Ludwig was arraigned before Judge Gayer in the Court of Criminal Correction, and despite the protests of his attorney, was turned over to Hartnett and Colle. They wasted no time in getting back to Police Headquarters, placing Ludwig in a taxicab and speeding over the Eads Bridge to the Relay Depot in East St. Louis, where they boarded an eastbound train. Reports that Ludwig's attorney planned to seek his release by habeas corpus proceedings inspired the haste.

Refused to Go Voluntarily.

Ludwig had refused to return voluntarily to Poughkeepsie, and had expected the authorities would go through the formality of asking the Governor of New York to requisition the prisoner from the Governor of Missouri. Efforts were made yesterday to obtain a bond for Ludwig's release.

In the Von der Ahe case, Federal Judge Buffington at Pittsburg ruled that Von der Ahe had not been deprived of his liberty without due process of law, as high courts had held bondsmen or their agents had the right to arrest fugitive principals wherever found and to take them back to the place where the bond was given. The bail piece, the Judge added, was not the authority for such arrest, but simply evidence of the relationship between the bailor and bailee.

Identified as Swindler.

Harnett and Colle identified Ludwig as a notorious swindler whose real name is Harry Jacobs, but who has used the aliases of Teller, Lewis and "Col. Joseph F. Green of the Bavarian army."

As handcuffs were being placed on him at Headquarters, Ludwig insisted, "You got the wrong man, gentlemen."

"Why, I'd know your ashes in Hell," returned Hartnett.

Ludwig smiled and said, "Well, all right. Just treat me right."

Ludwig was arrested last Friday at his hotel by detectives at the request of Colle, who described the man sought as having the appetite of three ordinary men. Ludwig had been selling insurance for the Missouri State Life Insurance Co. and averaging $20,000 a year, he said. He came here about eight months ago.

Jacobs, according to Colle and Harnett, is known to police in the East as a "high-class swindler," who defrauded Scranton merchants of $15,000 or more on worthless drafts, and defrauded widows and elderly women in Boston, New York City and other places of thousands of dollars, one victim ending her life.

Said to Have Pensioned Victim.

In Boston, they said, Jacobs operated the Boston Realty and Construction Co., with branch offices in Philadelphia and New York City. After obtaining $10,000, the life savings of a 73-year-old woman, he "pensioned" her with a nominal position of secretary in his Boston office, Hartnett related.

In New York City, where he posed as "Col. Green," he won the confidence of a widow possessed of property worth about $50,000, Hartnett related, gave her worthless drafts for the property and sold the property for $18,000. He

In New York City, where he posed as "Col. Green," he won the confidence of a widow possessed of property worth about $50,000, Hartnett related, gave her worthless drafts for the property and sold the property for $18,000. He skipped town with the money and she killed herself when she learned the drafts were worthless, Hartnett added.

Another case recalled by Harnett was one in which Jacobs obtained the power of attorney from the widow of a friend and went with her to collect $10,000 insurance on the friend's life. While the widow waited for him in an anteroom he collected the money and departed by another door, it is charged. The widow is now conducting a rooming house for a livelihood.

Borrowed $5115 Here.

Last Dec. 4 Ludwig borrowed $5115 on an unsecured note from Mrs. Emma Klauber, a widow, of 5707 McPherson avenue, this city. She filed suit Monday to recover the money, alleging Ludwig had falsely represented that he owned $100,000 in bonds and a valuable downtown building.

How Ludwig's enormous appetite resulted in his arrest here was related by Capt. Colle as follows:

Fifty thousand circulars bearing descriptions and photographs of Jacobs were issued by the Harnett Detective Agency, in behalf of the Columbia Casualty Co. The Scranton police also sent out circulars, in which Jacobs' appetite was mentioned.

"A Tulsa, Ok., salesman who stopped at the Lindell-Plaza Hotel, 4300 Lindell boulevard, St. Louis, saw a man near him in the dining room eat at one meal a five-pound steak, seven pieces of toast, vegetables in proportion and six cups of coffee.

"The Tulsa man regarded himself as a good eater, and on his return to Tulsa told of having seen a man who could out-eat him easily. He chanced to relate the incident in an express office and a girl employ remarked that Jacobs, whose circular was posted in the office, had a similar appetite.

The salesman looked at the photographic likeness on the circular and exclaimed, 'That's the same bird.' My name appeared on the circular and he wrote me that the man I wanted probably was a guest at the Lindell-Plaza Hotel."

As has been related, Capt. Colle communicated the information to Chief of Detectives Kaiser here and detectives went to the hotel, ascertained that a guest with an enormous appetite was Ludwig and arrested him over his strenuous protests of innocence. A reward of $100, outstanding for Jacobs' arrest, will go to the arresting officers.

JUDGE REJECTS BLOOD TEST

Not Irrefutable Evidence, Austrian Rules in Child Legitimacy Case.

By the Associated Press.

VIENNA, April 2.—A high court Judge has refused the application of a man who sought to determine the legitimacy of one of his wife's children by a blood test. The Judge said the law required irrefutable evidence and that blood proof was still somewhat of an assumption on the part of medical science.

Numerous applications of blood tests are reaching the courts following the recent decision of another Vienna Judge in a case brought by an unmarried mother for alimony. This Judge accepted the testimony of scientists, who declared blood tests showed the defendant was not the father of the child.

CITY BREWERY IS SOLD

Henri Chouteau to Rent Property for Industrial Uses.

The City Brewery, comprising three buildings with more than 200,000 square feet of floor space, at Fourteenth, Howard and Chambers streets and Blair avenue, was purchased yesterday by Henri Chouteau, real estate dealer, from the St. Louis Brewing Association.

Chouteau said he would rent the property for industrial uses and since he purchased the equipment in the buildings it is likely that a cold storage plant will be operated in one of them. Chouteau did not reveal the consideration.

EARL CARROLL IS INDICTED ON PERJURY CHARGES

He Is Accused of Testifying Falsely Before Federal Grand Jury Regarding Bath Tub Party.

POSSIBLE PENALTY OF 30 YEARS IN PRISON

Could Have Obtained Immunity if He Had Told Where Liquor Came From.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 2.—Earl Carroll has been indicted by the Federal grand jury on six counts of perjury.

He was arrested yesterday at his theater, arraigned before Judge C. Knox and released on bail after pleading not guilty with the privilege of changing his plea to guilty within a week.

This was the result of an inquiry into the so-called bathtub party he gave in his theater Feb. 22 and 23, which followed his many publicity stunts, and was featured by Joyce Hawley occupying a tub from which she is supposed to have ladled wine. Maximum sentences totaling 30 years and $12,000 in fines can be imposed on Carroll if he is found guilty.

He produced $10,000 in cash when bail was mentioned, never smiled, gave no interviews, and was greatly perturbed that he could not leave the jurisdiction of the court without permission. Bail was finally set at $2500.

Details of Indictment.

The indictment alleges that Carroll testified falsely before the grand jury on three specific points about the all-night party in honor of William Edrington, Carroll's financial backer, which was attended by Harry Thaw, Conde Naste and many other well-known persons, including the Countess of Cathcart.

First, he is accused of saying that he had no list of guests present when his secretary, it is understood, produced a complete list of those invited.

Second, he is accused of saying falsely that no one fell, was put, or got into a bath tub containing beverage.

Third, he is accused of saying falsely that he did not give or serve any liquor and had none there.

The three other counts parallel these. The law provides a maximum penalty of five years in prison or $2000 fine, or both, on each count, sentence to run concurrently or successively, as the Judge sees fit.

Show Girl a Witness.

Among the witnesses who appeared before the grand jury was Joyce Hawley, a show girl, who retained a lawyer to bring suit for $1000 against Carroll, which she said he promised her for her bath. The producer gave her $20 and told her to forget it, she said several weeks ago.

Carroll now has for consolation the statement of Federal officials that he could have eluded indictment. They said that the grand jury was not interested in the moral side of the party, but only wanted to know where so much liquor came from. Under the prohibition law the theatrical producer was automatically granted immunity from prosecution on the liquor charges through his own testimony.

But this immunity, Federal Attorney Buckner said, did not apply to perjury, because it might result in the Government trading immunity for evidence and getting in return only false testimony.

Carroll, who is 34 years old, was arrested in November, 1924, for displaying paintings of his show girls in front of his theater. He protested it was all in the name of art, and was acquitted.

Americans in Colorful Pilgrimage to Jerusalem

Thousands of Mohammedans, Jews and Christians Go to Visit Sacred Places in Holy Land on Easter.

JERUSALEM, April 2.—Jerusalem, exalted in the memory and imagination of Jews, Christians and Mohammedans, again is filling with thousands of pilgrims and tourists as the annual Easter celebrations draw near.

The faithful, traveling by train and automobile, on animal and afoot, through the orange and banana groves from Jaffa and the Jordan Valley, across the Plain of Sharon, past enormous cactus and eucalyptus trees, all are alike in their sincerity. The Moslems are coming to pray where Mohammed prayed, the Jews to weep beside the walls of their vanished temple, while the Christians are gathering around the place of the crucifixion.

Members of American missionary and relief societies are vieing with the hospices and convents in extending hospitality to tourists from the homeland. The American Near-East Relief, which already has welcomed 7000 American tourists to the Holy Land this season, has arranged to have groups of American pilgrims escorted to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre and the Mount of Olives by children from its orphanages at Bethlehem and Nazareth.

In spite of the inroads of modernity, Jerusalem at the Easter season still seems the most picturesque place in the Near East. Intermingled with its multitudes of modern bootblacks are its blue-robed peasant women, Greek priests in stove-pipe hats, Moslem women still veiled, Arabs in their flowing robes of brown and white, and American tourists in cork helmets and golf suits.

Easter Sunday will be the climax to a week of prayers and tolling of bells, and the city and its guests will jam the Via Dolorosa to jostle together under the great black dome of the Sepulchre, and, holding lighted candles, cry, "Christ is risen!"

LEFT LETTERS FOR GUIDANCE OF SON, 5, UNTIL MATURITY

New Jersey Man Adopted Novel Way of Perpetuating Influence Over Child After Death.

By the Associated Press.

VINELAND, N. J., April 2.—Despite the death of his father two days ago, five-year-old John S. Stevenson Jr. will have the guidance of that parent during every year until he reaches maturity, it became known today with the discovery of an unusual plan evolved by Mr. Stevenson several months before his death.

The father, 36 years old, a University of Pennsylvania graduate and veteran of the World War, died while undergoing an operation.

Among his papers were letters written to his son, counseling him in the way he should go, with instructions to have one letter delivered each September on the son's birthday. The letters were prepared for the respective ages at which they should be received by the boy.

Mr. Stevenson confided to friends he believed he had only a short time to live. The first of the letters, opened today, was dated three months ago. It read:

"Dearest Boy of Mine: Your mother is now your dady as well as your mother. Daddy has been taken away to see Sissy Ann; some day you will come to see both of us. Daddy is proud of his Dickie Boy, and knows that he will be good to his mother and take care of her always.

"Each you, until you are big, you will get a letter from your daddy, Dick, on your birthday; and then you will get your last letter when you are married. A big kiss and goodby."

Provisions for gifts each Easter and Christmas for "Dickie" also were made by the father to be carried out by the custodian of the letters.

FIGHT ON FREIGHT INCREASES

A special committee has been appointed by the St. Louis Shippers' Conference to obtain support among industrial plants for the complaint which has been filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington, D. C., protesting against the wide differential in coal freight rates between St. Louis and points in Illinois.

As has been told, the railroads last month filed the complaint, following a recent decision of the Illinois Commerce Commission increasing the differential between East St. Louis and St. Louis from 25 cents to 36 and 40 cents from Southern Illinois mines. The Traffic Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce has filed an intervening complaint in the case, seeking a readjustment of the rates.

TALL WANDERER WALKS INTO JOB WHEN HE SEEKS SHELTER

Slim Griffin, 7 Feet 3, Employed by Police as Performer at Their Relief Circus.

Slim Griffin of Miles City, Mont., was hired as a performer in the Police Relief Circus today when Police Lieutenant White observed his unusual height as he left Central District holdover after voluntarily spending the night there.

Griffin is seven feet, three inches tall. He said he was 24 years old and had run away from home. He declared one of his brothers was two, and the other four inches taller than he.

Lieut. White sent Griffin to the circus office where he was hired as a performer. The circus opens at the Coliseum Monday. It has not been determined what character his services will take. Griffin said he had worked as a cowpuncher on his father's ranch and could ride "anything with hoofs." He walked most of the way to St. Louis from Kansas City, however, and last night applied for shelter at Central District.

BROOKHART-STECK CONTEST BEFORE SENATE ON MONDAY

Consideration of Case Delayed to Permit Completion of Majority Report.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Senate consideration of the Brookhart-Steck Iowa Senatorial contest was deferred today until Monday.

Agreement was reached to delay the case until Monday because Chairman Ernst of the Senate Elections Committee was not prepared to present the majority report, recommending the unseating of Sen. Brookhart, Republican, in favor of Daniel F. Steck, Democrat.

The fight for Brookhart will be led by Senators Borah and Stephens. The effort to seat Steck will be directed by Senator Ernst (Rep.) of Kentucky, and Senator Caraway (Dem.) of Arkansas, who drafted the majority report.

Some administration Senators announced privately that they intended to vote for Brookhart "unless the committee's majority advanced better reasons in debate for the seating of Steck." It was learned that Senator Borah will be assisted by Senators Walsh (Dem.) of Montana and Reed (Dem.) of Missouri, in the fight to seat Brookhart.

GANGSTER HELD FOR THE MURDER OF SAFEBLOWER

Leo Tighe, Also Holdup Man, Named in Coroner's Verdict as Having Shot James Moody.

Leo Tighe, gangster and holdup man, was ordered held for the Circuit Attorney in a homicide verdict returned today by a Coroner's jury in the death of James Moody, safeblower, who was shot and killed in a fight in a house at 2822 Marcus avenue, last Sunday morning.

The only witness who involved Tighe in the shooting was a woman, who styles herself Mrs. Bessie McCann Moody of 1511 South Nineteenth street, Moody's common-law wife.

Mrs. McCann testified that she went to the Marcus avenue address Saturday night to visit the family of Charles Eickels, who live there, and spent the night with them. Next morning about 11 o'clock, while she was in the bedroom with one of the Eickels children, Moody entered, she said.

Tells of Hearing Shots.

"He had a revolver in his hand," she testified. "He pushed me out of the way, saying 'Look out, Bessie, I don't want to hurt you.' I ran from the room and as I got in the hall I heard shots."

"Do you know who was in the front room adjoining the bedroom," she was asked. "Yes, Leo Tighe was there," was her reply.

She said she had heard that Tighe and Moody had had a quarrel the evening before and asked if she thought Moody had come to the Eickels house to kill Tighe, she said: "I guess he did."

Moody, as has been told, was married to another woman recently and is supposed to have been with her when he had a quarrel with Hogan gangsters at a house party near Eighteenth and O'Fallon streets Saturday night. The row which ended in his death is believed to have had its origin there.

Testimony of Detectives.

Detectives testified today that Moody had fired two shots from his revolver and that three other cartridges in the weapon had failed to explode when he pulled the trigger.

Tighe served a reformatory term for a Pine Lawn bank holdup in 1922 after he had confessed and given testimony which sent two associates to the penitentiary. Recently he was convicted in another robbery and is on appeal bond on a five-year sentence.

ST. LOUIS WOMAN SERIOUSLY HURT IN EAST SIDE ACCIDENT

Mrs. Nina Fisher, 38 years old, of 3900A Shaw avenue, is in a critical condition at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Granite City, as a result of an automobile accident at 3:30 p. m. yesterday in which she suffered a fractured skull, fractured jawbone, and other injuries. A machine in which she was being driven by her husband, Lawrence J. Fisher, a salesman, collided with an Alton, Granite & St. Louis Traction Co. interurban car, one mile north of Granite City.

The automobile, according to witnesses, left the road, colliding with a northbound car, running parallel with the road. Mrs. Fisher was thrown out and jammed between the automobile and the traction car. Her husband was only slightly injured. The machine was demolished.

DELAY ON ILLINOIS WATERWAY ACTION IS URGED BY BURTON

Tells House Committee Ruling by Court on Water Diversion Should Come First.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Postponement of action on the Illinois waterway project until the Supreme Court has ruled on the question of water diversion from the Great Lakes was urged before the House Rivers and Harbors Committee today by Representative Burton (Rep.) of Ohio.

Asserting that the lake ports on the south shore of Lake Erie handle more shipping yearly than the combined seaports of France, Germany, Italy and Spain, Representative Burton asked the committee to proceed with extreme caution and do nothing that would interfere with this lake traffic through the lowering of lake levels.

The lake traffic, he said, is so many times greater than Mississippi River traffic that the improvement of the river must be considered as secondary to the protection of the lake traffic.

The system of apportionment of inland waterway improvement funds to the War Department was assailed by Burton, who said that this function should be left to Congress.

BROWNING'S ACTIVITIES UNDER INVESTIGATION

Children's Society to Inquire Into Friendship With Girl and Origin of Sorority.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 2.—The Children's Society is investigating the Phi Lambda Tau Sorority, said to have been founded by Edward W. Browning, wealthy real estate promoter, and his activities with Frances Heenan, 15-year-old girl, who, Browning made known, was attacked Saturday in her home at 625 West 169th street, and her face and neck burned with acid. This information was given out last night by Vincent T. Pisarra, superintendent of the Children's Society after he and several of his staff had spent the day talking with Frances, her mother, Mrs. William Heenan, and her father, an automobile salesman of Hempstead, L. I.

"The Children's Society is conducting an investigation of this 15-year-old girl who goes to parties, dances and theaters," said Pisarra. "The sorority said to have been formed by Browning also will be checked up. I talked with Mrs. Heenan and her daughter and I learned that Frances talked a great deal about Browning before she met him. When the Mary Louise Spas story was prominent in the newspapers the girl showed great interest. Then when she met Browning at a dance recently she called her mother on the telephone at 2 o'clock in the morning to tell her about it."

Took Automobile Rides.

Pisarra said Mrs. Heeman told him Browning called her daughter 10 days later and invited her to have dinner and go to the theater with him. Later, he said, Browning took the girl on automobile rides to Westchester County roadhouses.

When informed that the Children's Society was conducting an investigation Browning smiled.

"I'm glad to know that," he said. "I welcome an investigation."

He again refused to affirm or deny being engaged to marry Frances Heenan. He told reporters to "just keep guessing" about that angle.

"She is too young," he said; "but, then, she'll grow older, and maybe I'll grow younger."

Girl's Father Willing.

The girl's father, when questioned by an agent of the Children's Society, said he had no objections to Browning marrying his daughter. He said he believed Browning to be a perfect gentleman and in a position to aid his daughter.

Mrs. Heenan was reluctant to talk about any engagement. Pisarra expressed the thought, that, while a marriage of Frances Heenan to Browning, who is 58, would be legal if both of the girl's parents gave consent, it would be unfortunate in view of Browning's past life, which includes a divorce and much notoriety.

GRAHAM WINDS UP HOUSE DEBATE WITH DEMAND TO IMPEACH ENGLISH

DRIVES HOME THE POINTS THAT LEAD TO BIG VOTE TO SEND JUDGE TO TRIAL

We Are to Accuse, Not Convict, He Argues, Assailing East St. Louisan's Course of Conduct, Not Isolated Acts.

By PAUL Y. ANDERSON,
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, April 2.

OF all the speeches which were made in the House of Representatives in the last three days on the motion to impeach Federal Judge George Washington English of East St. Louis, the one which did most to convict him in the eyes of the House, and which contributed most heavily to the overwhelming vote for impeachment, was the remarkably impressive address delivered at the close of the debate yesterday by Representative George A. Graham (Rep.) of Pennsylvania, venerable chairman of the Judiciary Committee and author of the articles of impeachment.

It was a memorable scene when this distinguished lawyer, 76 years old, a veteran of the House, stood before his colleagues and solemnly called upon them to redeem the good name of the Federal bench of the United States by sending Judge English to trial before the Senate. Members crowded into the chamber to hear him, and he was given remarkable attention.

His Original Reluctance.

He told them how reluctantly he had been brought to vote for impeachment, how he had tried to find some honorable way out, and how at last he had been forced by the very weight of the evidence to the tragic conclusion that impeachment was the only answer that could be made to the facts in the case.

There was, he said, no escape from the conclusion that Judge English had been tyrannical and oppressive, that he had usurped powers that were not lawfully his, that he had used his office to enhance his private purse. Not until the "bankruptcy ring" of East St. Louis "had become a stench in the nostrils of the citizens," Graham said, did the St. Louis Post-Dispatch expose it, thereby bringing about the investigation which resulted in the present proceedings before the House.

He gave it as his solemn opinion that Judge English had testified falsely before the investigating committee, that he and his former Referee in Bankruptcy, Charles B. Thomas, had falsified a note to cover up a payment of $1400 which Thomas made on English's automobile, and that Judge English had been aware of the fact that his son was drawing 3 per cent interest on bankruptcy deposits in the Union Trust Co. of East St. Louis.

Warns Against Lobbyists.

Toward the close of his address he struck an ominous note by calling attention to the lobbying which had been carried on in Judge English's behalf "by corporate interests and certain organizations interested in law enforcement," and he said he hoped no member would listen to such "insidious voices." Since the debate began, an officer of the Anti-Saloon League had called on certain members of the House and asked them to vote against impeachment, and there were evidences that the influence of the Ku Klux Klan was being exerted in the Judge's behalf. Certain railroads interests had been active for the Judge for more than a year. Probably it was to these that Graham referred.

Graham followed Representative Bowling of Alabama, who had closed the argument against impeachment.

"Mr. Bowling," said Graham, "has told you that the ideal Judge exists only in fancy, that we must take men as we find them. I can point him to one whom I consider an ideal Judge, who recognized ethics of his profession, and governed his official conduct by high principles. Turn to the record in this case which refers to Judge Walter Lindley, Judge English's associate. He testified that he appointed Thomas as receiver only once, and he then told those who applied for Thomas' appointment that it was not necessary to have Thomas to get justice in his court.

"What a Degraded Condition."

"What a degraded condition existed in this district when one Judge had to warn lawyers that they need not get Thomas to obtain justice in his court.

"When bankruptcy funds were to be deposited, Judge Lindley admonished the trustees not to deposit them in a certain bank, because he held stock in that bank. Contrast this with the conduct of Judge English—making depositories out of three banks in which he owned stock, and in two of which he was a director. In the case of Judge Lindley we see high-class ethics, a high sense of honor and the action of a man who was conscious of the principles which make an ideal Judge, and who lived up to them."

Turning to the more immediate aspects of the matter, Graham continued:

"What is before the House today? Simply this question—has there been a proper examination, and does the result warrant this House in impeaching a Federal Judge?

"Our committee has spent days upon this matter. It has decided, by a large vote, that there are facts which warrant impeachment. We now ask the House to point the finger of accusation at this man; to say to him: 'There are things which smirch your ermine; there are things which cloud your reputation; there are things which impair the administration of justice in your court. Stand up, then, in the Senate—stand up, sir, and face these accusations, and if you are innocent, God send you safe deliverance.'

Plea for Impeachment.

"Are you, without further trial, going to place the approval of this great body upon the course of conduct revealed by this evidence? Are you going to say to the world: 'This is high-toned and honorable conduct on the part of a Federal Judge'?

"Gentlemen have spoken here today as if they were pleading before a petit jury for the liberty of a man on trial. This man is not yet on trial. We ask you to make the accusation so that he may be placed on trial.

"Someone has said that if this man were so bad as he is painted, the bar of his district would have risen en masse to accuse him of it. You know the answer to that. With a tyrant on the bench the bar will not expose itself to his fury except when manned by unusual spirit or suffering under grievous wrongs.

"But if he were the paragon of goodness that some gentlemen have pictured, the bar would have flooded this committee with appeals, praising the excellence of his record and the probity of his deportment.

"It has been said that only those things which constitute indictable offenses can be made the subject of impeachment. You will find that crass ignorance will furnish a ground for impeachment; grossly indecent conduct in public that will bring a court into discredit and disrepute will become a subject of impeachment; continued drunkenness on the public highways by an occupant of the bench, and conduct of a disorderly character will also be the subject of impeachment.

Indictability Not Necessary.

"Are these indictable crimes? I am sure every man who looked at the precedents will agree that neither motive nor indictability are necessary elements in an impeachment.

"We have one guide that will stand ever in the minds of our people as controlling this subject. As a Judge is appointed to hold office during good behavior, the corollary is that if he misbehaves so as to bring discredit upon his office and the administration of justice, the right of the people to have him removed rises into being. Officers are liable to removal by their employers. They may be lifted out of their places, but a Judge shall be above everything that would impair his independence.

"Hence, if misbehavior were confined to indictable offenses, a man might indulge in a course of conduct that would become a stench in the nostrils of the people and yet not commit an indictable offense. But you can remove him, and the authorities are clear.

"We are not impeaching this man for these several acts. We are impeaching him for a course of conduct. Take the case of Judge Archbald. The six counts upon which he was convicted involved the use of official power for gainful purposes for himself. That was the whole story, and when that case passed into history the high tribunal said, 'Indictability is not necessary. These offenses, whereby a man prostitutes the power of his office for personal gain or advantage, are impeachable.'

Conduct in Disbarments.

"My membership in the bar is a property right. The Constitution says this cannot be taken away from me except by due process of law. When Judge English took Thomas M. Webb's title as a lawyer from him, he violated the Constitution which he had sworn to support. When he suspended him and did not permit him to go back into office for five or six months after the statement he demanded had been filed, he was guilty of tyrannous conduct, pursuing what he had done to the bitter end."

As to the disbarment of Charles A. Karch, concerning which Judge English testified before the subcommittee that he saw a revolver in Karch's pocket in the courtroom, and had reason to believe that Karch might kill him, Graham said:

"The gun incident does not interest me much. I could prove to any jury in the world that Judge English's testimony was an afterthought and a falsehood. The committee of lawyers appointed by him found that Karch had no pistol. Judge English restored him to the bar. If Karch menaced him in court his remedy was to prefer charges, have him tried in the usual way, and if Karch had murder in his heart and preparation in his pocket, to send him from the bar in disgrace. Did English try it? And why didn't he?"

Interrupted by Applause.

The members were hanging upon every word of the impressive old man before the Speaker's desk, and he was interrupted frequently by applause, which he silenced with an impatient gesture.

Addressing himself to the handling of bankruptcy affairs by Judge English and Thomas and the lucrative receivership jobs to which the Judge appointed Thomas, together with the favors which the Judge accepted from Thomas, Graham said:

"That the bankruptcy assets were handled with a view to making private gain for Thomas is clearly shown by the report of the investigators from the Department of Justice. I can point you to a dozen criticisms of Thomas' methods. In eight or nine instances the people who surrounded Thomas in this great edifice which he had erected were overpaid from $1000 to $1500 by Thomas—all in violation of the law.

"In 1922 the bankruptcy ring was in full operation. Who was in it? Thomas' son and sons-in-law, Judge English's son and men from his court. The investigators noted the rule which Judge English made in these cases. The former rule gave the referee power to appoint receivers only in exceptional cases. English's rule gave Thomas unlimited power, absolute control.

"It allowed him to arrange the enormous fees, and charge up those fees indiscriminately to the various estates that passed through his hands. It made no difference whether the estate owed anything or not—if the estate could not pay its proportion of the money, it was divided up and charged to all.

Ring a Great Success.

"When you read the list of men in the office, and turn to the report, and find out to whom the fees were paid, and in what manner, you cannot help realizing that this ring was a great success; the combination was complete.

"That is what created the stench in the nostrils of the citizens. That is what caused the Post-Dispatch to cry out in its columns and expose what was being done. That was the bankruptcy ring.

"Then comes the favoritism by which Thomas received, in addition to his compensation of $7500, more than $50,000 a year.

"And we come also to the favors which Judge English accepted from Thomas. How did he get those favors? He got favors through the appointment of his son, through the monies being put by Thomas and by himself in the hands of the various banks where he was a stockholder.

"It has been asked here what evidence there is that Judge English knew that his son was receiving the 3 per cent interest. In the first place, it is not necessary to prove direct knowledge on the part of Judge English. Circumstantial of knowledge is quite sufficient, but you will find in the testimony of the bank officers, Ackman, Schlafly and Hemker, that they had interviews with English in which the question of increasing deposits was discussed, and the mater of appointing Farris English (the Judge's son) was discussed.

Son Got in Row at Bank.

"After Farris English had been in the office for some months he commenced to quarrel with the people in that bank. He wanted more money. These officers, fearing to lose him and the deposits with him, spoke casually to Judge English.

"Taking the whole picture, we must see that the Judge knew. How could he help it? He was interested in his boy's welfare. He wanted him to get a salary big enough to pay him handsomely for his work. The boy got a salary, and the officers say that it was quite enough to pay him for what he did, and in addition to that he got $27,000, paid to him as interest on bankruptcy deposits.

"It is not direct evidence, but I say it is persuasive. Those men knew what they were after.

"We are here to accuse, not to convict. We are here to charge that the probable cause indicates that this man was guilty of these numerous offenses.

"From the beginning I looked at this case with doubt. I did not want to proceed to impeachment. I fought against it, and it was only when these facts were strung together in a connected chain that I became convinced that here was a man guilty of a course of conduct that was impeachable, and I stand upon that as a fact supported by this record.

"One of my friends argued that we ought to take each individual item and say whether or not that constitutes ground for impeachment. You have no more right to do that than to say that one step constitutes a journey, or to say that one act of drunkenness constitutes habitual drunkenness.

"It is the chain of events, it is the combination of circumstances. To show that that may be made the subject of impeachment, I have only to point to the Archbald case and the decision of the Senate in that case. There they strung together the incidents under the thirteenth count and upon that blanket count, as well as the first six, he was found guilty.

"I wish to say a word now about what I consider some of the environments of this case. I have been told by reputable members of this House that there are influences at work soliciting members to vote against the impeachment, coming from corporate interests and from organizations interested in enforcement of laws, upon the theory that this man was a great law enforcer.

"I am sure that no man in this House would permit himself to be approached on a subject like this. The honor of the Federal Bench is involved here, and the highest duty you can ever be called upon to perform is involved in the action which you are to take today.

"Woe betide the man who would allow himself to listen to the voice that comes insidiously to the ear, that dare not come out in the open, that dare not plead a cause on its merits, but secretly to ask him to do that which would be a violation of his oath and a violation of his office.

"It has been intimated that someone would move to refer this case back to the Committee on the Judiciary. That will be the end of this case. There is no right in this House to refer it back. This committee was sent out to investigate one subject and ascertain whether or not there was probable cause behind the accusation made on the floor of this House.

Sufficient Cause Found.

"The committee found cause sufficient for them to find their resolution in favor of impeachment. Why should they call the co-conspirator (Thomas), who was outside reach of the committee after he had resigned his office and put him on the stand? The Judge was not on trial; the committee was investigating simply to find out whether or not sufficient evidence could be produced to sustain the charge that was made.

"In the name of justice, in the name of common sense, no man reading the record can fail to see that there is ample ground for the accusation of the committee.

"Send Judge Enuglish to trial. Let the Senate take up the trial. There Judge English can interpose his character witnesses if he wants to do so and make his defense if he wants to. Let him call his friend, Thomas, whose office he visited three or four times a week, with whom he was intimate, who paid for his automobile, who bought the 10 shares of stock he owned in the Drovers' Bank, and acted throughout as his close and intimate friend.

"Let me tell you something in connection with that bank stock. He went to the bank, got the certificate, and wrote across the back of it his signature in pencil.

Pencil His Favorite Tool.

"Did you ever hear of bank stock being assigned in pencil? It was his favorite instrument. The note he gave to Thomas for the $1400 is in pencil, and when you examine that note, you will find it is dated five months after the event, and when you take the reindorsement written in pencil you would be led to believe the same party wrote the whole of them, and that it was a note prepared for this investigation to be put off upon the committee.

"On the back of that note Oct. 21, 1921, is an indorsement of so much money. Was it paid? Why didn't he issue a note for the amount? Because the note bears date of some time in October, 1921. No, it was hurriedly prepared—a pencil memorandum—to deceive an investigator.

"And again, whoever heard of a share of stock being assigned in pencil? This record shows this man obtained his certificate. He did not want to take it into his own possession at once, but let it lie over. Afterwards he told the president of the bank, Mr. Dooley, 'Oh, yes, I got 10 shares of that stock through the financiering of my friend.' Did he say it was not his debt?

"What would an honest man have said—'I did not buy this stock and I will not receipt for it.' But Judge English signed across it in pencil, and he knew Thomas intended it for him as a gift.

"Gentlemen, the accusation here is plain and simple, and the only question is, is it sufficient to warrant this body solemnly and sincerely to vote the accusation and send this man to his trial in the Senate?

"I have no feeling in this case. When the evidence was first taken in the committee I was doubtful and I was not favorable to impeachment then. But as I kept studying the evidence, as a matter of conscientious duty I reached the conclusion that as a member of this House, as a lover of my country, as one having unbounded respect and confidence in our Federal Judiciary, it was my duty to join with my fellows in voting impeachment, and I earnestly ask this House to carry it through."

Toward the end the Speaker's voice had failed under the vigor of his effort and he concluded in tones that were scarcely above a whisper, with dozens of the members crowding nearer the front of the chamber to hear him.

When he finished he had created an atmosphere on the floor which meant but one possible thing—the thing that was to follow almost immediately—an overwhelming rejection of the motion to send the case back to committee, and an even larger vote for impeachment.

Bowling of Alabama closed for the defense, preceding Graham. Bowling was one of the minority report signers.

Bowling attacked the "course of conduct" in arrangement of the articles of impeachment, contending that the majority knew that there could be no conviction if each specification had to be voted upon by the House and Senate. He singled out Article 5, calling it an omnibus and a dragnet.

Taking up the specifications as enumerated under the articles, he sought to show that none proved Judge English guilty of a corrupt motive. In connection with the Drover's National Bank stock owned by Judge English, he stated that Judge English had foolishly indorsed the stock so that the bank could dispose of it.

Says English Didn't Know.

He maintained that the stock had been issued to Judge English upon the order of Referee Thomas without the knowledge of English, but that when the bank failed, English, though not morally liable for the stock, paid the double assessment on it upon the advice of Thomas and other friends.

Commenting upon the payment of 3 per cent interest on bankruptcy deposits to Farris English, Bowling stated that he did not think the son should have received the money. "But the father is not chargeable for the sins of his son," he shouted.

He said he did not know the circumstances surrounding the payment of the interest but could imagine a situation where Farris English, a young man, might have been corrupted by the older officers of the bank.

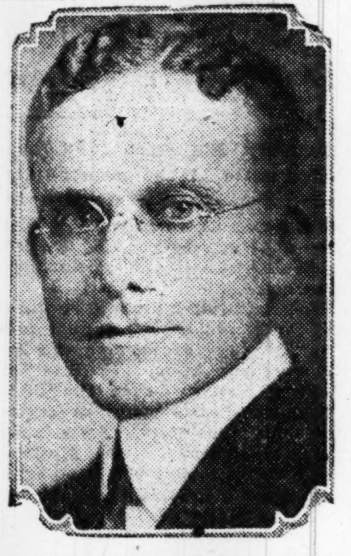
Several times during his speech, Bowling was interrupted by members who wanted to know his version regarding the failure of the committee to subpena Thomas. His reply was that the committee was afraid that Thomas' appearance would give him immunity in any action the Government might have and that Judge English had three able lawyers to defend him.

"No smart lawyer defending Judge English would have called upon Thomas to testify," Bowling explained. "The opposition would immediately say that one of the co-conspirators had been called upon to justify the actions of his friend."

MAKES FINAL PLEA

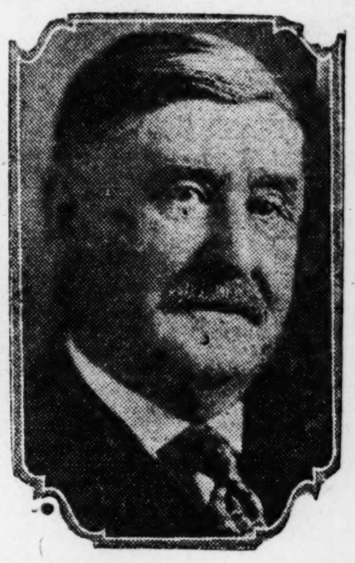
GEORGE S. GRAHAM.

Six of Seven Men Selected to Prosecute English in Senate



EARL C. MICHENER (REP.) OF MICHIGAN.

GEORGE R. STOBBS (REP.) OF MASSACHUSETTS.



W. D. BOIES (REP.) OF IOWA.

IRA G. HERSEY (REP.) OF MAINE.

HATTON W. SUMNERS (DEM.) OF TEXAS.

ANDREW J. MONTAGUE (DEM.) OF VIRGINIA.

BACHELOR, 93, LEFT $9 TO HIS FIVE NEPHEWS

Will of George Kirchberger Also Bequeathed $25,000 in Worthless Bonds to a Friend.

The will of George Kirchberger, 93 years old, a bachelor, who died a month ago, was filed in Probate Court today, giving a total of $9 to five nephews, bonds with a face value of $25,000 to a friend, Arthur P. de Camp, and the residue of the estate to Miss Julia Stahlhuth 4758A Easton avenue, at whose home he had lived for several years.

Miss Stahlhuth, the will stated, had given Kirchberger a "real home" with "many attentions and comforts." he named her brother, Samuel G. Stahlhuth, 4821 Cote Brilliante avenue, executor.

Stahlhuth said the bonds, issued by the De Camp Coal Mining Co. in 1904, had long been worthless as the company failed, and that the residue of the estate is little or nothing. De Camp, according to Stahlhuth, had been paying Kirchberger $80 a month since the failure, although under no legal obligation to do so, but merely because it was his company and Kirchberger had followed his advice in investing his $25,000 savings.

Four Indicted in Narcotic Plot.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, April 2.—Federal indictments charging conspiracy to violate the Harrison anti-narcotic act and extortion from persons addicted to the use of narcotics were returned against Col. Will Gray Beach, former head of the United States narcotic squad here, and three of his former agents. The former agents are: Alonzo B. Baxter, Dennis J. O'Brien and Harry Diettrich. Beach and several of his former agents already were under indictment. More than 50 overt acts are charged against Beach and the three former agents.

Woman, 99, Leads Grand March.

By the Associated Press.

SCARBORO, Me., April 2.—Mrs. Mary A. Burnham has proved her sprightliness at 99. Yesterday was her birthday and she celebrated last night by driving four miles in a sleigh to lead the grand march at a dance in her honor at the community hall. She was escorted by her 76-year-old nephew, Frank Burnham.

SPEEDY WISCONSIN JUSTICE

Four Robbers Sent to Prison Within 24 Hours of Crime.

By the Associated Press.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 2.—From sailor to robber to convict within 24 hours was the experience of four men who yesterday attempted to hold up the Milwaukee Loan Office.

The four sentenced today said they were Jack Malloy of Saulte Ste. Marie, Mich.; Clarence Fitz and John Vilatiz, of Grand Rapids, Mich., and William D. Knight of Getzville, N. Y. They were given from 3 to 20 years upon pleas of guilty to robbery while armed. Malloy told the court he was the leader. Knight hobbled into court on crutches. He was shot in the leg when captured.

Mines Employing 5800 Close.

By the Associated Press.

PITTSBURG, April 2.—Ten coal mines in the Pittsburg district, employing about 4000 men, suspended operations indefinitely this week, it was learned today. All of them have been working under the Jacksonville wage agreement. P. T. Fagan, district president of the United Mine Workers, in confirming the closing of the mines, gave "slack business" as the cause and explained that some of them had been working only two or three days a week. Six mines in the Wheeling, W. Va., district, employing about 1800 men, also suspended operations today.

To Experiment With Rice.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW MADRID, Mo., April 2.—Extension of rice culture into New Madrid County is considered by Charles Knott and other farmers as a result of the discovery of farm land declared to be especially adapted to rice. A small acreage of rice is to be planted this year on Knott's farm, and if the crop is successful, the acreage will be increased to from 500 to 1000 acres.

3300 Prisoners at Jefferson City.

By the Associated Press.

JEFFERSON CITY, April 2.—A new population record at the Missouri State Prison here was established during the latter part of the week of March 28-April 13, when 3300 inmates were registered. This was said by officials to be 500 more than the record mark set in 1916.

U. S. JUDGE HOLDS INDICTMENT OF SAUNDERS IS FAULTY

Refuses Petition Seeking Arrest and Removal of Accused to St. Louis.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 2.—Clarence Saunders today won another step in his fight against a Federal indictment returned against him in St. Louis with a ruling by Judge Harry B. Anderson in Federal District Court here upholding the opinion of John R. Walker Jr., United States Commissioner, that the indictment failed to show that Saunders had committed an offense against the United States.

Judge Anderson in so holding overruled a petition presented in behalf of the Government seeking Saunders arrest and his removal to St. Louis.

102-Year-Old Seneca Indian Dies.

BATAVIA, N. Y., April 2.—Alexander Snyder, 102 years old, a Seneca Indian of the Wolf clan, died last night on the reservation in the western part of Genesee County. He was an expert in the manufacture and use of the bow and arrow.

FUR TROUBLES

Conditions among the furriers have been most upset. For more than six weeks fur workers have done little or nothing on account of labor troubles. Good Fur Coats are scarce at this writing with little or no prospect of an early settlement. This will cause August prices to be of serious concern. We suggest, take advantage of these remarkable prices.

It is a known fact that today 50% of the beautiful Fur Coats are sold in this off season, as there is such tremendous savings—the law of supply and demand increases values as Winter approaches. We doubt whether August prices will ever be as low as now.

GREAT SOUTHWESTERN RAIL SYSTEM PLANNED

L. F. Loree Tells of Plans in M-K-T, Cotton Belt and K. C. Southern Merger.

By the Associated Press.

PARSONS, Kan., April 2. — A distinctly Southwestern railroad system, with primary interest in developing that section of the country, is to grow out of the plan of centralized control for the Missouri-Kansas-Texas, the St. Louis Southwestern and Kansas City Southern lines, according to a statement authorized here last evening by L. F. Loree, director of the first two roads and chairman of the board of the other.

"The Southwestern territory is rapidly growing in population and wealth, and in all forms of agricultural, mineral, industrial and commercial activities," Loree said.

"It would seem a pity if the Southwest could not have at least one system whose interests were its own and whose lot was cast unreservedly with it. It will be the hope of the K. C. S., M.-K.-T. and the Cotton Belt combination, when duly authorized, to form a strictly Southwestern system, keeping within the limits defined and putting forth increasing efforts to meet adequately the growing transportation requirements of the Southwest. While maintaining each its corporate and operating identity, the operation of these three properties as a transportation unit should result in improved and expedited service. The combined system should be able to meet actively the competition of newly formed systems in this region.

"An application to the Interstate Commerce Commission will be made in the near future by the Kansas City Southern for authority to control the other two companies by stock ownership."

Loree, accompanied by D. R. Upthegrove, president of the St. Louis Southwestern, and J. A. Edson of the Kansas City Southern, stopped here on an inspection trip of the Katy. The party left today for Oklahoma and Texas. They started from St. Louis yesterday.

J. M. DAVIS JURY INSTRUCTED

He and Son Guilty if They Conspired Together, Says Judge.

By the Associated Press.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 2.—The jury trying Jonathan M. Davis, former Kansas Governor, and his son, Russell, on bribery charges, was instructed today to return a verdict of acquittal unless it finds that they "conspired together in accepting from Fred W. Pollman $1250 under an agreement" with Pollman that Gov. Davis would pardon the banker convict.

"To construe the receipt and acceptance charged in the information," said Judge O. E. Hungate in his instructions, "it would not be necessary for the defendant, Jonathan M. Davis, to have personally received the money alleged to have been accepted as a bribe, but in respect to the element of the acceptance of the alleged bribe it would be sufficient if such money was received by Russel Davis because of an understanding and agreement between defendants that he should receive the same, with the intent on the part of defendants that the opinion and judgment of Jonathan M. Davis should be influenced on the matter of the application of Fred W. Pollman for a pardon."

The Court instructed that it would not be unlawful for Russell Davis to accept compensation for assisting Pollman in securing a pardon from the Governor "so long as the taking of such employment was in good faith."

ALIENS GAIN TURKISH RIGHTS

Order Barring Them From Certain Occupations Altered.

By the Associated Press.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 2.—The Turkish Government has modified its order of last December, barring foreigners from engaging in certain occupations. In consequence of objections raised by the embassies of th eforeigners concerned, the Minister of the Interior has issded a new order stating that foreigners established in Turkey before Jan. 1, 1923, shall not be debarred from the stated occupations until accords have been reached with the foreign Powers concerned.

The occupations which the original order limited exclusively to Turkish citizens are those of physician, lawyer, dentist, pharmacist, longshoreman, boatman, fisherman, peddler, porter, bootblack and waiter.

TIGRESS MAULS HER TRAINER

Hundreds at Circus See Beast Spring at Louis Roth.

By the Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, April 2.—Before the eyes of hundreds of spectators, a tigress, on the occasion of her first public appearance, mauled her trainer, Louis Roth, at the matinee performance of the circus here yesterday.

Although Roth was carried to the floor under the weight of the animal, he managed to regain his feet and brought her under control with his whip. Roth was treated at the receiving hospital for severe lacerations of the face, head, arms and shoulders.

Egg Hunt at Alton Postponed.

The Alton Recreation Board today postponed for a week the annual Easter egg hunt which was expected to draw 5000 children to Rock Springs Park Saturday.

130,000 SENTENCED IN RUSSIA

Court Records for 1925 Show 1000 Bandits Condemned to Death.

MOSCOW, April 2.—Judge Michael Chelyshev of the Supreme Court of soviet Russia announced today that the provincial courts last year sentenced 130,000 persons to various terms of imprisonment. The Supreme Court also confirmed that 1000 bandits were sentenced to death during 1925. During the same year 15,000 embezzlers who had misappropriated a total of $500,000 of State funds were given prison sentences.

Girl Wounded on a Dare.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, April 2.—Gertrude Kaehler, 16 years old, is in a hospital with a bullet in her abdomen because George Johnson, a boy companion, accepted her dare to shoot her. "Dance with me or I'll shoot you," she said Johnson told her. She laughed and told him the pistol he showed her was not loaded, daring him to shoot, and he pulled the trigger. Johnson was arrested.

Time to Spray Orchards.

COLUMBIA, Mo., April 2.—Now is the time for orchardists of Missouri to begin using dormant sprays on fruit trees, according to horticulturists at the Missouri College of Agriculture. The fruit growers should get busy and apply the sprays before the buds begin to open, as it is unsafe to use them after the buds are open, the horticulturists warn.

EARTH BEING WEIGHED WITH NEW DEVICE

Scientists of Bureau of Standards Making Tests in Room 35 Feet Underground.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The earth, which has been tipping the scientific scales for many years at around six thousand million million million tons—six followed by 21 ciphers—is having its weight more accurately determined for posterity, but the job won't be completed for at least another year and a half.

The recent adoption by large oil companies of the instrument known as the torsion balance for finding oil deposits has brought to light the progress being made here in experiments, with the same instrument to weigh the entire earth.

For three years Dr. Paul R. Heyl has been carrying on the test in a small room 35 feet underground at the Bureau of Standards. He has, on some occasions, held himself in one position there for more than nine hours at a time, so as not to disturb his delicate instruments. His subsurface retreat was chosen to avoid interference by surface forces.

One Test Completed.

Thus far, only one of three sets of observations has been completed. The second Dr. Heyl expects to finish by June, while the third will take another six months. Since mathematical computations are far behind the observations, it probably will be a year after the third observation is finished before a final figure is reached.

The weight of the earth is looked upon by Dr. Heyl as only a side issue in his experiment. For 30 years prior to the start of his work the law of gravitation had not been investigated, and what he mainly is seeking is another decimal for the 6.66 Newtonian constant, a numerical quantity used in determining the force of attraction between two given bodies.

When this figure, which has been tentatively found now to be 6.658, and others, are discovered with a greater degree of precision, a mathematical computation is expected by the scientist to reveal this long-hidden secret of the earth.

Thinks Weight Increasing.

Dr. Heyl believes the earth is constantly gaining weight through the fall of meteors, but this increase is relatively so slight that it will not affect his experiments. In fact, the weight of the earth is so great that his extremely delicate instruments would not be stirred if the entire human race were suddenly to vanish.

First observations with the torsion pendulum, which is a miniature system representing the earth and a body near its surface, was made with gold balls weighing an ounce and a half and 140-pound steel cylinders. Dr. Heyl now is using platinum balls, and when he finishes this observation in June, he will substitute balls of glass of the same weight. Results of the three tests are then to be compared to strike an average.

The balls are suspended on a light rod of aluminum in an air tight case. The rod hangs by a filament of tungsten, about a thousandth of an inch in diameter, which swings back and forth in an arc. The steel cylinders are placed close to the case on the outside, and the force of attraction is measurable only in millionths of a grain. It took eleven months to install the apparatus.

The results of the test, Dr. Heyl believes, will provide valuable material for astronomers, oil prospectors and students of the earth's interior.

PRESIDENT OF DEFUNCT BANK FOUND DROWNED IN WELL

Edward M. Smith Also Was Head of Mercantile Firm at Greenville, Mo., That Failed.

By the Associated Press.

GREENVILLE, Mo., April 2.—Edward M. Smith, 57 years old, president of the defunct Wayne County Bank, and prominent business man here, was found dead at the bottom of an abandoned well on his farm shortly before noon today. He was said to have been in ill health and to have been worrying over financial affairs.

Smith was president of the Wayne County Bank since its organization in 1900, until t failed last August. In addition, he washead of the Smith-Rhodes Mercantile Co., which was closed shortly after the bank. The body was found in six feet of water at the bottom of the 30-foot welll.

Europe Near U. S. in Motor Busses.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Motor bus operation in Europe is about on a par with use of the vehicles in the United States, the Department of Commerce estimating the number abroad at 76,000, as compared with 80,000 in this country. France and Great Britain account for 70 per cent of the European total, with Paris having 20,000 and London about half that number.

Man Falls Dead When Playing Golf

CHALOTTE, N. C., April 2.—Fire destroyed the building of the Western Newspaper Union here today with a loss of $150,000.

Chicks Drive Rancher From Home.

SAND POINT, Idaho, April 2.—George Sanders, 67 years old, a Lightning Creek rancher, has disappeared. Neighbors are looking after his 1000 baby chicks and awaiting a consignment of another 1000. Sanders left a note saying the incessant "cheep" of the young poultry was driving him to insanity. The prospect of another 1000 "chicks" being added to the chorus was too much and he asked his neighbors to see that they were fed, then departed.

Flies Which Combat Crop Pests.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 2. — Not all kinds of flies deserve to be swatted, and the Smithsonian Institution will collect in Guatemala a few that are on man's side in the fight for supremacy. These Guatemalan flies, which combat crop pests, will be gathered by Dr. J. M. Aldrich, associate curator of insects in the National Museum. They will fill out the museum collection of Central American flies and permit a study of their economic position.

LAST CONVICTED SLAYER OF PATROLMAN GROGAN SENTENCED

Medford Wood Withdraws Motion for New Trial and Is Given Life Term.

Medford Wood, 21 years old, today withdrew his motion for a new trial and was formerly sentenced by Circuit Judge Frey to life imprisonment in the penitentiary for the murder, July 3 last, of Patrolman John H. Grogan. He will be taken to Jefferson City to start serving his sentence within the next few days.

Three other youths, who were convicted of the murder, are already serving life sentences. Had Wood pressed his motion for a new trial the State planned to try him for the murder of Harvey Hammett, who was shot down in going to the assistance of Grogan when the policeman attempted to arrest five youths shortly after they had held up the Collins printing office, 1531 Washington avenue. Circuit Attorney Sidener nolle prossed the Hammett murder charge after Wood withdrew his motion.

A charge of robbery against Maurice O'Flaherty, principal State witness in the trial of all four youths, was dismissed following Wood's acceptance of a life sentence. A murder charge against O'Flaherty previously had been dismissed.

SUIT FOR $10,000 AGAINST CITY CLUB OVER LEASE

Jacob L. Babler and Associates Say Their Earnest Money Was Not Returned.

The City Club was sued for $10,000 yesterday, as an outgrowth of its leasing of its bedrooms and other space for a hotel. The suit was filed by Jacob L. Babler, former Republican National Committeeman from Missouri; William Sacks, capitalist; Samuel S. Friedman, proprietor of the Beers Hotel, and Edward D. Miller.

This sum represents a payment made by the plaintiffs Jan. 30 to bind their bargain in a proposal to lease the hotel space. The deal failed, and, the suit alleges, the club has refused, since Feb. 26, to return the payment.

On March 14 it was announced that Chase Gillen, who has operated hotels for 23 years, was taking over the lease from the club, and that the earnest money of the Babler group would be retained. W. A. Sommers, president of the club, said today the club felt Babler and his associates were not entitled to a refund because they had violated their agreement. Their attorney, he said, had stated unexpectedly, "The deal is off."

Here's A Real Prescription for the Torturing Pains of Neuritis

When you've tried everything you can think of and nothing seems to even relieve those piercing, agonizing pains, just go to some good druggist and get a bottle of Allenrhu Special Formula No. 2. Be sure you get No. 2 which comes in capsule form, for the liquid form is a special preparation for Rheumatism only.

Take these little dark green capsules as directed and notice how in about 24 hours they have considerably reduced, if not entirely banished, those persistent nerve-racking pains that have caused you many sleepless nights. A few more doses and the pains have left you forever.

While this particular formula was compounded for the purpose of conquering painful, Gouty conditions and what is known as Rheumatoid Arthritis—a knotty, painful swelling of the joints—it has proven wonderfully successful in all forms of Neuritis and Sciatic Nerve Pains.

You needn't be afraid of its containing dope of any kind—it doesn't. Such things are only makeshifts and can only at the best give temporary relief.

Be sure you've got Neuritis and then get Allenrhu Special Formula No. 2. Wolff-Wilson Drug Co., 7th and Washington Av. and Grand and Olive Sts., and Johnson Bros. Drug Co. can supply you.

WIDE CELEBRATION ON JEFFERSON'S BIRTHDAY

Parties in Many Parts of Country on April 13, the 183rd Anniversary.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 2.—The hundred and eighty-third anniversary of Thomas Jefferson's birth will be celebrated with birthday parties in many sections of the country April 13, the principal ceremonies centering at Monticello, which now is a national memorial to the statesman.

Students, faculty and alumni of the University of Virginia, which Jefferson founded, will gather at the home in the morning to celebrate Founder's day. Glenn Frank, formerly editor of the Century, and now president of the University of Wisconsin, will be the speaker.

Exercises at Birthplace.

In the afternoon, special exercises will be held at Shadwell, a short distance away, where the Thomas Jefferson Memorial Foundation has erected a monument to mark his birthplace. Senator Robinson of Arkansas and Senator Willis of Ohio will be the speakers.

Gov. Harry Flood Byrd of Virginia will officiate later at a reception at Monticello, and after this floral tributes will be placed upon Jefferson's grave. In the evening there will be a ball.

Nation-Wide Observance.

The parties throughout the country are being held as a result of an invitation issued by Breckinridge Long, chairman of the Jefferson Centennial Committee, and they are being sponsored by Daughters of the American Revolution and other organizations.

Secretary of State Kellogg and Gov. Smith of New York will deliver addresses at Monticello, July 5, when the hundredth anniversary of Jefferson's death will be commemorated and the hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence celebrated. The ceremonies wil' begin July 4 and continue through the following day.

GAIN OF 800,000 IN CHURCH MEMBERSHIP DURING 1925

Methodists Show Greatest Increase, but Roman Catholics Still Lead in Total.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Aurll 2.—Church membership in the United States increased more than 800,000 during 1925, according to the annual census of the Christian Herald. Total church membership is listed as 46,883,756, or considerably more than one-third of the total population.

The greatest increase was shown by the Methodist Church group, composed of 15 bodies, which gained 220,183, bringing its total membership to 8,920,190.

The Roman Catholic Church with a gain of 203,990 members, still leads with a total of 16,156,914. The Catholic Directory for 1925 placed the membership at 18,654,000.

Dr. H. K. Carroll, compiler of the Christian Herald census, reports an increase of 166 church buildings for 1925, as compared with a decrease of 12 during 1924. There are now 236,964 church buildings in the country. The number of minister increased by 2966, bringing the total to 216,078.

The Baptist Church group is third in membership with 8,397,914; the Presbyterian Church, with nine bodies, fourth, with 2,561,986; the Lutheran Church, with 17 bodies, fifth, with 2,546,127. Membership of the Protestant Episcopal Church is 1,164,911.

FONCK MAY FLY ACROSS OCEAN

French Aviator Thinks Journey Can Be Made in 32 Hours.

Copyright, 1926, by the Press and Pulitzer Publishing Cos. (New York World and Post-Dispatch.)

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, April 2.—Rene Fonck, the French aviator, expects to go to New York the end of this month to prepare for his mid-summer flight from there to Paris.

"If I go back to the United States," he said today, "it will be to return to Europe in the air. But I have not yet decided the details. I have figured only that a plane of the type necessary, carrying three motors, can make the flight in 32 hours. The worst that can happen to us will be that we will drop in the Atlantic in the steamer lane."

Woman's Body Found in Ravine.

JOPLIN, Mo., April 2.—The body of Miss Florrie Parker, 25 years old, was found in a narrow ravine southwest of the city last night. She had disappeared from her home here a week ago while on her way to work. One theory is that she fell into the ravine from exhaustion, and was drowned by heavy rains. Friends said she had been despondent.

King and Queen Wash Feet of Poor

By the Associated Press.

MADRID, April 2.—The annual ceremony of the washing of the feet of the poor on Holy Thursday was carried out by King Alfonso and Queen Victoria. After mass in the royal palace the King washed the feet of 13 men and the Queen 13 poor women and then served a bountiful meal to them. The food was paid for by the ladies of the court, some of whom gave $28 each.

POLICE ARREST DRY AGENTS

Near Riot in Rochester, N. Y., After Raid on a Store.

By the Associated Press.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 2.—Four Federal prohibition agents were arrested on charges of assault and taken to police headquarters in a patrol wagon after starting a near riot when they raided a store alleged to be a speak-easy and seized a quantity of liquor.

The agents, led by John A. Johnson, chief of the Rochester dry squad, are alleged to have roughly handled a woman customer in ejecting her from the store when they charged she interfered with them. A warrant was served on Johnson today and he was released on $100 bail.

A crowd of more than 1000 persons gathered in front of the store, attracted by the woman's screams. A riot call brought police and detectives and the woman demanded the agents' arrest. The agents arrested Mrs. Amdursky and the police arrested the agents. Chief Johnson declared that he would prefer charges against the uniformed police of conduct unbecoming officers and refusal to aid Federal agents in the performance of duty.

M'COY'S CONVICTION UPHELD

Decision Granting Former Fighter a New Trial Also Reversed.

By the Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 2.—The State Supreme Court has affirmed the manslaughter conviction in Los Angeles of Norman Selby (Kid McCoy) former prize fighter, and also reversed a decision of the State District Court, which had granted Selby a new trial. Selby is in San Quentin state prison. He was convicted of killing Mrs. Teresa Mors in a shooting affray at Los Angeles.

HELD FOR $70,000 FRAUD

Chicago Realty Man Is Accused by a Scrubwoman, 65.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, April 2.—On the charge he defrauded a woman out of part of a $70,000 equity in an apartment building, Thomas B. Neal, real estate dealer, was held to the grand jury in Municipal Court last night.

Mrs. Emma Roth, 65 years old, one-time well-to-do property owner, but now employed as a scrubwoman, charged that Neal kept the major portion of $70,000 she gave him to make a payment on the flat, and also kept rent collections. She did not know of this until the mortgage on the property was foreclosed, she said. A policeman also charges that he lost $1000 in a similar deal.

5550-FOOT SWISS MOUNTAIN MOVING, MEASUREMENTS SHOW

Motto d'Arbino Has Sunk Six Inches in 12 Months—Movement Began 40 Years Ago.

BELLINZONA, Switzerland, April 2.—Careful observation kept by the Swiss Topographical Bureau since 1888, shows that the Motto d'Arbino, a mountain 5550 feet high, near Bellinzona, in the Canton of Tessin, is moving.

Engineers and topographical experts have been taking careful measurements day by day, and reports show that the great plateau that forms the summit, covering an area of nearly 100,000 square feet, has become dangerously undermined.

Nearly 40 years ago it was found that the summit was shifting horizontally at the rate of nearly an inch a year, a movement that increased progressively until some months ago, when the rate had increased to four inches a year.

The mountain sank at an average of nearly an inch and a half a year during the first 14 years of observation. The latest report is that there has been a subsidence of more than six inches during the last 12 months. Observers say when the underlying mass of rock gives way the whole of the great plateau will crash into the valley.

LEADER OF ROBBER BAND THREATENS TO NAME HIS AIDS

Whittemore, Reaching Buffalo, N. Y., for Murder Trial, Says Six Others "Will Burn With Me."

By the Associated Press.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 2.—Richard Reese Whittemore, robber, arrived here from New York this morning to stand trial for the murder and robbery of two guards of the Bank of Buffalo last October. Escorted by a cordon of police, Whittemore was taken to headquarters. He kicked the camera out of the hands of a photographer and refused to be photographed.

"I guess they'll hang it on me in Buffalo," Chief of Detectives Roche quoted Whittemore as saying on the ride from New York "I could have beaten the murder charge in Baltimore. But before I burn, six others in the Buffalo robbery will burn with me."

Whittemore also disclosed, Roche said, that it was while running liquor across the border at Buffalo that the plot to rob the Bank of Buffalo was hatched. The prisoner was in such ill temper when he arrived at the station here that, in addition to kicking a camera from the hands of a photographer, he tried to kick him in the stomach and then lashed out with his free hand at a spectator. Police subdued him.

GOOD FRIDAY OBSERVED WITH SERVICES IN MANY CHURCHES

Meetings Also in Several Theaters; Merchants' and Stock Exchanges Closed for the Day.

Good Friday was observed today by services of virtually all denominations, in many churches and several theaters, and by closing of the Stock Exchange and the Merchant's Exchange, although banks and business houses remained open.

A proclamation of the Mayor called upon citizens to attend some service between 12 and 3 p. m. School children were excused for that purpose upon written request of the parents. Lutheran services were held at noon in the American, Missouri and Capitol theaters. Noonday meetings under the auspices of the Church Federation were held in the Orpheum, Criterion, Gem, Lyric, Rainbow and Rivoli theaters.

SUBSTITUTE FOR DRY LAW

House Temperance Act Would Permit Wines and Beer.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—A substitute for the Volstead act, to prohibit manufacture, sale, importation and exportation of distilled liquors and thus in effect permit beer and wines and other non-distilled beverages, was offered in the House by Representative Carew (Dem.) of New York.

In addition, the measure, which would repeal the existing act, would make violation of the act a misdemeanor instead of a felony as under the present law and punishable by a fine of $100, or 30 days in jail. The new statute would be known as the Temperance Act.

Bank Robbery Loot Put at $25,000

By the Associated Press.

TURLOCK, Cal., April 2.—Two men robbed the Security State Bank of Turlock of cash and negotiable bonds valued at more than $25,000.

Embarrassing eruption on face disappears when Resinol is used

Hadley, Mass., May 28:—"For some time I had been troubled with an eruption on my face which nothing I tried seemed to relieve. I had read about Resinol and decided to give it a trial. For a week I bathed my face every night with warm water and Resinol Soap and then applied the Ointment. At the end of that time the eruption had entirely disappeared. I cannot praise the Resinol products too highly." (Signed) Lillian Hull.

ROOSEVELT PLANNED CABINET POST FOR PINCHOT IN 1912

Letter to Pennsylvania Governor, Used in Senate Campaign, Praised His Standards.

By the Associated Press.

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—A letter of Theodore Roosevelt in which he disclosed that he had planned to make Gifford Pinchot, now Governor of Pennsylvania, his Secretary of State had he been re-elected to the presidency in 1912, has been made public by the Pinchot campaign managers.

The letter is contained in a leaflet, 2,000,000 copies of which will be used to further the senatorial candidacy of Gov. Pinchot.

The letter written by Col. Roosevelt to Pinchot in 1916, said:

"You had a keen understanding of our international affairs and our military needs and your character and standards, public and private, were such as to render you a man eminently fitted to represent American ideals in foreign affairs.

"In view of these facts I had intended, as I at the time told you, if elected to the presidency in 1912 to make you the Secretary of State."

Illinois River Flood Control Bill.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Representative Rainey (Dem.) of Illinois has introduced a bill to authorize the Secretary of War to allot from any funds appropriated for flood control on the Mississippi River such sums as he may deem advisable for the construction of flood control work on any part of the Illinois River.

How to Have Soft, Pretty White Hands

Many women will undoubtedly be glad to know how they may have beautiful, white, soft, pretty hands regardless of the work they have to do. The secret lies in rubbing a little Ice-Mint into the hands occasionally, preferably just before retiring at night. In the morning you will be agreeably surprised at the pleasant transformation that has been wrought by even a single application. Ice-Mint is made from a Japanese product that is simply marvelous for its beautifying properties whether used on the hands or face. Regardless of what kind of work a woman does she should have pretty hands as they are really the true marks of refinement. A few applications of Ice-Mint will actually make any woman proud of her hands and skin. It costs little and is sold and recommended by good druggists everywhere.

Constipation! How to Keep Bowels Regular

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated men, women, children, and particularly old folks, had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all headaches, biliousness, indigestion and stomach misery, he did not believe that a sickening "purge" or "physic" was necessary.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to establish natural bowel "regularity" even for those chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but, best of all, it never gripes, sickens, or upsets the system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless, and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, bilious, sick child gladly takes it.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine and just see for yourself.

MAN SLAIN IN PISTOL FIGHT BY ADMIRER OF HIS WIFE

Californian Wounds Slayer During Encounter in Lonely Ravine in the Mountains.

By the Associated Press.

SANTA MONICA, Cal., April 2.—A strange duel was fought yesterday in a lonely recess of the Santa Monica mountains when two men, both past middle age, faced each other with shotgun and rifle, one dying as a result, and the other suffering probably a mortal wound.

Arthur Winzelle, a real estate man, who came here from New York some time ago, was killed, and R. E. Roselle, owner of a small farm in Topango Canyon, was seriously wounded.

The shooting followed a visit to the canyon of Winzelle and his son, Howard Winzelle, in search of Mrs. Winzelle, with whom Rozelle had been charged by the husband with being too attentive. When Roselle emerged from his home, closely followed by Mrs. Winzelle, the son told Deputy Sheriffs, Winzelle called to him.

On seeing the husband with rifle in hand, Roselle seized a shotgun, leaped into a nearby gulley and fired. Simultaneously the rifle was brought into action by Winzelle. The latter fell dead at the first shot and Roselle was badly wounded.

Mrs. Winzelle, her son said, rushed past the body of her husband and ministered to the injured Roselle.

Record Traffic in Panama Canal.

By the Associated Press.

PANAMA, C. Z., April 2.—Commercial traffic through the Panama Canal in March equaled the high record set in December, 1923, 506 ships using the waterway, it was announced today. The tolls, however, were $137,483 less than the December record of $2,338,729. Canal officials attribute the present increase in traffic to general trade development rather than heavier shipments of any particular commodity.

MAN KILLED, ANOTHER HURT WHEN TRAIN HITS TRUCK

Negroes Were Driving Across Unguarded Crossing in National City.

A Nickel Plate passenger train, traveling towards St. Louis, struck a light motor truck at an unguarded railroad crossing in National City last night, killing one Negro and critically injuring another.

The dead man, whose skull was crushed, was identified by his widow as Dock Gasper, 22 years old, of 1530 Converse avenue, East St. Louis. His companion, Evan Ford, 19, of 836 South Eleventh street, St. Louis, suffered fractures of the skull, left hand and left leg.

The truck belonged to H. A. Woerman of 827 South Eleventh street, St. Louis. He said that 15 cases of liquid on the truck was near beer.

Bergdoll Trial Set for April 14.

By the Associated Press.

MOSBACH, Germany, April 2.—The trial of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, American draft dodger, on charges of seduction and impairing the morals of minors, has been set for April 14. The press and public will be excluded.

CITY TO SELL BONDS TOTALING $4,584,000

Figure Includes $1,000,000 Each for New Courthouse and Plaza Projects.

A bond sale of $4,584,000 some time this month out of the $87,372,500 issue of 1923, which is proposed by the city, includes $1,000,000 for the start of the $4,000,000 Civil Courthouse, facing Memorial Plaza, and $1,000,000 for the contract to install electric street lights, which figured prominently in Mayor Miller's controversy with former Director of Public Utilities Wall. The bonds probably will bear interest at 4¼ per cent.

It includes also $60,000 for preparatory work for the municipal auditorium and, similarly, $30,000 for the plaza. These projects are in the hands of the Memorial Plaza Commission, with the sites in course of condemnation, but the construction will not begin for some time.

$90,000 for Viaduct.

Another outstanding item is $90,000 for the city's share of the cost of a viaduct to carry Arsenal street over the Frisco Railway tracks, providing a new traffic artery to the southwestern suburbs.

Other items in 1926 improvement program are:

City's share of damages for opening and widening streets, $200,000; legal expenses in street opening and widening, $200,000; improvement of 16 sections of existing traffic arteries, $634,000; work on seven sewer projects and equipment, $499,000; River des Peres sewer project, $100,000; miscellaneous improvements, buildings and development of parks, including new golf and tennis pavilion in Forest Park and development of Francis, Manchester and Christy parks, $325,000; improvements at city sanitarium, $200,000; improvements at Koch Hospital, $60,000; reconstruction of fire engine houses, $66,000; motorized equipment for Fire Department, $120,000.

Street Improvements.

Street improvements contemplated are: Lindell boulevard, Sping to Kingshighway; Watson road, Pernod to city limits; Kingshighway, Lindell to Easton and Devonshire to Gravois; Franklin avenue, High to Jefferson; Cass avenue, Broadway to Hogan and Hogan to Glasgow; Ninth street, Hempstead to Branch; Easton avenue, Prairie to Marcus; Grand boulevard, Arsenal to Gravois; Jefferson avenue, Park to Lafayette, Lafayette to Gravois and Gravois to Arsenal; West Florissant avenue, Kingshighway Northwest to city limits; Loughborough avenue, Field to Gravois.

The schedule was presented to the Citizens' Bond Issue Supervisory Committee yesterday by President Kinsey of the Board of Public Service, but the committee did not act for lack of a quorum. Another sale of bonds is not contemplated before October.

Man's Body Found in River.

The body of a man taken from the river near Hickman, Ky., two days ago is held there awaiting efforts of St. Louis police to identify the man as one missing from here. The description sent here by T. C. Kelly of Hickman says the man was nude, was about 5 feet 6 inches tall, weighed about 150 pounds, had light hair and wore a truss. The body had been in the water some time, he believed.

Proprietor of Rink at Palmyra, Ind., Continues Business in Spite of Ban by Elders.

By the Associated Press.

PALMYRA, Ind., April 2.—Lights blazed in Ranger Community Hall here last night and the steady roar of roller skates on its wooden floor could be heard, despite the edict of the three elders of the Church of Christ that W. Clyde Martin, its proprietor, prohibit skating in the hall along with other things before he be "permitted full fellowship in the church."

Martin faced his accusers yesterday in a nine-hour hearing and at the end was told by the judges that the operation of a slot machine in the hall, which Martin constructed as a recreational center for the little Southern Indiana village, and roller skating must be stopped.

The decision, which some held virtually "unchurched" Martin, was interpreted by Otis Scott, one of the judges, as meaning that the next move against the Indiana school master and college athlete would have to come from the elders. Meaning, he said, that if Martin did not comply with the recommendations, it would be up to the elders to expel him from the church.

Enters Race for Congress.

Martin declined to make a statement until he had given the decision consideration. Fellow townsmen who know him, interpreted this to mean that he would probably not approve the recommendations.

The trial was public, despite previous efforts of the elders to prevent publicity, they having postponed the hearing once because of the publicity it attracted.

While not making a statement on the decision, Martin did announce his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Congress from the Third Indiana district.

Testimony of prosecuting witnesses was that roller skating "had the appearance of evil," which was the whole theme of the trial.

Martin's Defense.

Martin's defense was based on the hall being a recreation center for wholesome amusement and that roller skating and basketball were no more harmful than the sports indulged by the complainants during "their little red schoolhouse days."

Basketball was approved by the judges in their decision, but they urged "that every effort be put forth by everyone to make the costumes worn by the players conform to decency and modest apparel."

Modern woman's dress and practices came in for condemnation by witnesses during the hearing.

POLICE TO WAR ON EVADERS OF CITY AUTO LICENSE TAX

Chief Gerk Learns Some Drivers Here Are Using Tags From Other States.

Declaring that his attention had been called to an attempted evasion of the city license tax by automobile owners living in St. Louis through the use of State license tags from other states on their cars, Chief of Police Gerk, in an order today, instructs all policemen to give particular attention to detecting this form of evasion in the annual campaign against unlicensed vehicles, which starts next Monday morning.

Chief Gerk's order makes every member of the department a traffic policeman for the duration of the license campaign, the order directing that "the practice of leaving traffic matters to the traffic division is to be abandoned."

Members of the department are also instructed to see that license plates on all machines are fastened so as to be easily visible and that "in transit" tags are confined to those regularly issued by the Licence Commissioner.

INSURANCE AND BANK TAXATION HEARING BY CITY

More Trust Company Officials Being Heard by Board of Equalization Today in Effort to Fix Levy

The City Board of Equalization today is attacking the problem of taxing banks and insurance companies in the light of recent court decisions and new practices inaugurated by the various concerns affected.

Beginning yesterday the board had before it George Wilson, vice president of the Mercantile Trust Co. He was questioned particularly about the new Mercantile Investment Co., a $7,000,000 subsidiary.

Associate City Counselor Dolan, conducting the inquiry, quoted Wilson as saying in reply to questions that the Mercantile Investment Co. was formed by the trust company to equalize payment of capital stock tax. Today officials of the St. Louis Union Trust Co. will be questioned about the St. Louis Union Investment Co., a $2,000,000 subsidiary.

Tax Free Under New Ownership.

As Dolan explained the question involved, the capital stock of banks and trust companies is taxable under State law even though the securities held in payment of the stock are tax free. To avoid excessive payments some trust companies formed investment company subsidiaries, and transferred their securities, such as Government and drainage bonds, to the new company. Under this new ownership the securities may be held tax free by virtue of their character, and there is no law covering assessment of capital stock for the investment companies.

As to the insurance compaies, the city formerly assessed a levy against the capital stock of 15 local domestic concerns drawing a revenue of about $125,000 annually. Several months ago this levy was declared invalid.

Alternative Proposal.

Beginning Monday the board will hear insurance company representatives on an alternative proposal by Dolan to tax their personal property, such as cash and securities. For the 15 St. Louis companies these items are estimated to total $100,000,000 while their capital stock, formerly subject to tax totals only $5,000,000.

The companies contend that the personalty is exempt from tax, however, because their reinsurance reserve and unpaid policy claims are much larger than the amount of securities they hold.

SENATOR'S HOUSE PICKETED

Edwards Eludes Striking Jersey Textile Workers With Placards.

By the Associated Press.

PASSAIC, N. J., April 2.—Six striking textile workers yesterday visited the home of United States Senator Edward I. Edwards in Jersey City to picket his house after the Senator failed to communicate with the union officials while investigating the strike.

Senator Edwards eluded the pickets at his home and at the First National Bank, Jersey City, where he has his offices. They carried placards stating that they were the "real Passaic strikers." In the delegation was Nancy Sanowsky, 19-year-old girl leader of the strikers.

$25,000 Left to Vanderbilt U.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. April 2.—The first gift in Vanderbilt University's campaign for a $4,000,000 building and endowment fund has been made by Whitefoord R. Cole, newly elected president of the L. & N. Railroad, who gave $25,000. Fifty Nashvillle business men will seek special subscriptions for the fund prior to the opening of the nation-wide campaign on April 9. Frank C. Rand of St. Louis is national chairman of the campaign.

Date of Easter Sunday Determined by the Moon

Easter is a movable feast and cannot be earlier than March 22d nor later than April 25th, the date being governed by the old Paschal or Jewish lunar month.

Easter festivities center in the Dining Room and it should therefore look its best on this day. At the Prufrock - Litton Furniture Company, Fourth and St. Charles Streets, a high-grade Dining Suite (9 pieces) is specially priced today and tomorrow at $199. A superb value—inspect it!

ABOUT 25,000 PERSONS AIDED BY SOCIAL SERVICE AGENCIES

Director of Community Fund Gives Figure for City and County in Address.

Approximately 25,000 persons, or about 3 per cent of the population of St. Louis and St. Louis County, are included in the families which receive relief from social service agencies, Elwood Street, director of the Community Fund, said last night in an address before the Public Question Club. About $275,000 a year is spent for such relief work, he said.

Street defined social case work as "the application of the science of sociology to those individuals who do not fit into the mechanism of society." "Behind all social case work," he said, "is a body of knowledge—sociology. It deals with social life and its consequences; it covers the questions and problems arising from urban and rural life. It is the science of human society."

SNOW CONTINUES TO FALL IN ROCKY MOUNTAIN AREA

Road Crews Work All Night Clearing Parts of Cross-State Highway in Missouri.

By the Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, April 2.—Good Friday dawned with snow still falling in the Rocky Mountain region and in Kansas and Missouri. Starting yesterday morning, the second storm of the week had already added six inches to the depth of the covering left on the ground by the earlier fall, and the end was not yet in sight. A foot of snow had fallen Monday and Tuesday.

Automibile transportation on the highways and country roads was almost impossible because of the drifts and trains were running behind time. Road crews worked all last night clearing parts of the cross-State highway in Missouri.

The storm starting yesterday did not extend as far south as the one earlier in the week Oklahoma and Texas reporting clear skies and normal spring weather.

Rain fell early today along the southern border of Kansas, but snow and sleet were reported in the remainder of the State. It was snowing in Kansas City and in Northern Missouri. At St. Joseph all records were broken. The snow was 12.8 inches deep, the precipitation in the last 24 hours having been 11 inches.

For 24 hours air mail service between Salt Lake City and Cheyenne, Wyo., has been at a standstill. Fliers found themselves unable to penetrate a heavy storm around Rock Springs, Wyo., and the mail was moving by train between the Wyoming and Utah State capitals.

By the Associated Press.

PEORIA, Ill., April 2.—More than four and one-half inches of snow fell here today. Electric lights were necessary in downtown buildings because of the darkness.

Says Headaches, Dizzy Spells and Sluggishness, All Danger Signals of High Blood Pressure

If you did not know that these and other conditions such as sleeplessness, nervousness, shortness of breath, flushed face, pains in the head and chronic tired feeling are danger signals of high blood pressure it is time you needed their warning.

Now that it is known high blood pressure brings on Bright's Disease, Apoplexy and often sudden death, folks should not neglect these symptoms, but should check them at once.

First-class druggists everywhere are now selling a purely vegetable medicine and a famous Buffalo physician's prescription called Norma, which safely reduces high blood pressure.

Norma eliminates from the system the poisonous waste matter which may have clogged it and caused one or more organs to weaken and bring greater pressure to bear on the heart. The effect of Norma is immediate. Often one bottle will reduce high blood pressure. Many have so testified. Check high blood with Norma. You can get it from Wolff-Wilson Drug Stores, Walgreen Drug Co., or any other good druggist.

PENNSYLVANIA SENATOR DEFENDS DEBT AGREEMENT

Makes Argument for "Capacity to Pay" Theory and Upholds Private Loan to Italy.

McKELLAR REFERS TO MUSSOLINI AS BANDIT

Borah Replies to Recent Remarks of Churchill, and Stresses Britain's Territorial Gains.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Senator Reed (Rep.) of Pennsylvania made the best speech on the affirmative side yet heard in the debate over the ratification of the Italian debt.

He and Senator Borah, who thundered for the other side, were costars yesterday in a performance that kept the galleries crowded all day, and, what is more significant, kept the Senators in their seats instead of in the cloakrooms, where most of them have spent their time since the long talk began.

Senator Reed, speaking quietly, reviewed the history of the debts. He assailed the idea of cancellation that again is geing broached in England, and agreed that the debts, if not paid by the countries that incurred them, must be paid by American taxpayers.

"But," he continued, "we discover now that some of the countries to whom we advanced money are physically unable to pay us the whole principal at this time; that they are physically unable to pay even a stipulated interest on their obligations. This being true, and realizing that part of the world cannot be sick and the rest of it remain permanently well, we are refunding their debts with such arrangements as to interest payments as in our best judgment they have the capacity to pay.

"This term 'capacity to pay' has been very much criticised, as if it were something new, intended to enable us to cancel part of the obligations of these foreign Governments. It is denounced as if it were a recent invention of the Debt Commission or of the Secretary of the Treasury or of the proponents of these settlements, a new lay word, if you please, to enable these foreign Governments to escape their obligations."

Cites German Loans.

Reed took up the matter of Italy's floating a private loan of $100,000,000 at high interest, which has been so large an element in the attack on the debt settlement, and asked why we should criticise our former ally when we urged our people to help Austria and Germany float loans to rehabilitate themselves.

"Does the Senator think," asked Senator Dill (Dem.) of Washington, "that the fact that Germany was a defeated country and Italy a victorious country requires that we should treat the victor with the same consideration as the vanquished?"

Reed was ready for the heckling. "I decline," he said, "to subscribe to the sentimental view that the erring vanquished are entitled to better treatment than the victor, who was our ally."

Various others broke in, but Reed kept on. Senator Howell (Rep.) of Nebraska and others challenged his statement that America was getting all the principal back from Italy, although we had cut the interest to an extraordinarily low rate. This precipitated a long argument, the other side claiming that we were taking a low interest for 62 years and forgiving the principal at the end of that time.

Harking back to a recent statement of Senator Smoot, Senator Reed said that "nothing that has been said in this debate should be taken as a prophecy that a very large part or any of the private loans floated in this country by foreign Governments are to be defaulted."

Senator Smoot agreed but said that the private loans would be refunded "as has been done in the history of every Government in the world."

Mussolini Assailed.

Senator McKellar (Dem.) of Tennessee, attacked Premier Mussolini as "a bandit dictator" and said he opposed the settlement because of fear that "when the Italian people come to themselves they will repudiate every transaction of Mussolini's Government, including this one."

He also described the Italian Premier as a "communist, a traveling Socialist" and head of an "army which had made war upon the Government at Rome."

Senator King (Dem.) of Utah, said that he did not believe that the "denouncing of the representative of the power and authority of a nation with whom we are at

Senator King (Dem.) of Utah, said that he did not believe that the "denouncing of the representative of the power and authority of a nation with whom we are at peace and on friendly relations" made for the maintenance of amicable relations.

Replies to Churchill.

The strictures against the United States recently by Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the British Exchequer, in connection with the British-American debt settlement, brought fiery comment. Senator Reed of Pennsylvania, referred to the Chancellor's utterances as "whinings," while Chairman the Board of Foreign Relations Committee, turned back the pages of recent history to show that the United States had sought to arrive at "just and fair settlement."

"As Great Britain is heralding to the world that we are a sordid people," thundered Borah, "let the world understand that the wealth she gathered to herself at the close of the war is not to be compared to any amount that she could have been called upon to pay to the United States under her debt agreement.

"One million, six hundred and seven thousand square miles of territory passed to the control of Great Britain after the war. This is worth infinitely more in natural wealth than any possible sum Great Britain could have been called upon to pay us.

U. S. Sought No Reparations.

"When the war ended the United States waived all claim to reparations. There was no reason why we should not have asked for a certain portion of reparations.

"When it came to a division of the territory of the conquered nations, the representative of the United States at Versailles was careful to make it clearly understood that the United States sought no territory.

"And finally in making a settlement with Great Britain we forgave that country $3,500,000,000 of its debt figured on the basis of what the American tax payer is called upon to pay as the difference in interest on American Liberty Bonds and the interest on the British settlement.

"These matters indicate to me that from the beginning the United States was trying to arrive at a just and fair settlement. There was no attempt to do other than to arrive at that end."

Declaring that Churchill's attack had been "direct and severe to the utmost degree," Borah said there was a purpose and a plan and that was cancellation of the entire debt.

"It is true that they still refer to it as a revision," he added, "but their arguments are those for cancellation."

Thinks Debt Board Fooled.

Borah said that while he admitted the financial expertness of the Debt Commission, yet when it came to estimating what Italy's capacity to pay would be in the years to come he was as good a financier as Andrew Mellon. He insisted that when Italy went to England and agreed to pay her $22,500,000 a year after telling us that $5,000,000 a year was the utmost of her capacity to pay, it was evident that our Debt Commission had been fooled, and Borah thought the matter should be sent back to the Debt Commission to be negotiated anew.

"Any court of equity would throw out such an arrangement as we made under these conditions on the ground of fraud," he declared.

Senator Reed of Missouri closed the debate with the suggestion that we ought to hire a few British negotiators to conduct the arrangements next time.

Message Denounces Missourian.

A telegram containing a scathing denunciation of Senator Reed (Dem.) of Missouri was read into the Senate record at the request of Senator Metcalf (Rep.) of Rhode Island and was as promptly expunged on motion of Senator Smoot.

The telegram, signed by Angelo Martello, an officer in an Italian war veterans' organization in Rhode Island, referred to Reed's declaration in the Senate last Monday about the debacle of the debacle of the Italian army near the end of the World War as "malicious" and "absolutely and deliberately false and unfounded.

"Who had that telegram read?" asked Reed.

"I did," responded Metcalf.

"Doesn't the Senator know that it violates every rule of the Senate?" demanded Reed.

Before Senator Metcalf could reply Smoot moved that the telegram be expunged.

"This not only violates the rules of the Senate but of ordinary courtesy," pursued Reed. "I do not object to it going into the record, but if I had received a telegram like that referring to the Senator (Metcalf) I would have shown it to him before offering it to the record."

Reed then explained that what he had said in his speech last Monday referred to an agreement entered into between Austrian and Italian troops along a part of the Italian front by which they were to throw away their arms at a given signal.

"The son of one of the most distinguished living Italians told me that," said Senator Reed. "The reason he told me was purely for the purpose of showing how propaganda seeped into the ranks of both armies during the war."

TELLS HOW TARIFF BOARD EVADED RATE INQUIRIES

Commissioner Dennis Says Butter Investigation Was Used as Stage Property to Halt Other Cases.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—In his testimony before the Senate Investigating Committee yesterday, Commissioner Alfred P. Dennis of the Tariff Commission said that the commission refused to begin the cotton hosiery lower rate inquiry until it had been threatened with a congressional investigation. The report, he said, has not yet been completed.

The commissioner said a majority of the commission had recommended an increased duty on cotton gloves from 60 per cent ad valorem to 112 per cent, which would have increased the retail price from 99 cents a pair to $1.50, but the President, "actuated by a sense of fairness," refused to act on the recommendation.

After he had requested Chairman Marvin to expedite cases, Dennis said seven schedules were taken up but only the five higher rate cases were completed. The two for lower rate, he explained, are still pending.

He asserted the butter investigation was used as a "stage property" to sidetrack other cases on which the commission's majority did not wish to act.

There is no chance of having the woolen schedules investigated, the committee was told, because Chairman Marvin is opposed to lowering the duty.

The committee made public the linseed oil report, the second confidential document of the commission delivered by subpena. It showed that on March 3, 1925, the commission recommended to President Coolidge a reduction in the duty on linseed oil from 3.3 cents to 2.7 cents a pound. Only three members, Chairman Marvin, Burgess and Glassie, voted.

A report of the commission made public today by the Senate Committtee showed that the commission declined to make recommendations as to the tariff on casein, a product of skimmed milk used in the manufacture of glue, because it could not obtain sufficient information on the cost of production of casein in the United States.

The shops and houses in the principal streets have been closed.

Reuter's correspondent reports that about 100 persons were injured but that no one was killed.

JAPANESE OFFER FOR GRANT ON MAGDALENA BAY REJECTED

Mexican Holder of Concession on 2,000,000 Acres to Seek Capital Elsewhere.

By the Associated Press.

SAN DIEGO, April 2.—The offer of a Japanese syndicate to develop a 2,000,000-acre concession around Magdalena Bay in Lower California has been rejected, Col. A. R. Vasquez, who says he holds grants for the concession, announced.

Rejection of the offer followed a telegraphic conference with Dr. K. O. Osawa, head of the syndicate with whom he has been negotiating, Vasquez said. The Mexican Colonel explained that he holds two grants from the Mexican Government for the exploitation of oil, vegetable dyes and rubber on the tract.

Vasquez said he would seek capital for his project elsewhere, probably from American sources.

A recent announcement that the Japanese syndicate had obtained the concession brought protests from Western Senators in Washington and a denial by the Mexican Government that any grants had been made to Japanese. The land involved around Magdalena Bay is considered strategically important as a naval base.

INDIAN OIL LAND LEASING TO BE AIRED IN HOUSE

Whole Subject to Be Threshed Out in Debate on Bill to Throw Open 23,000,000 Acres.

HIGHER ROYALTIES SOUGHT BY NAVAJOS

They Claim States Get Undue Share—Abuses Under Government Bureau Policy Are Alleged.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.
(Copyright, 1926.)

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The American Indian is at last coming into his own. He is responsible for one of the most sensational situations that Congress has had before it since Teapot Dome stirred up a spirit of suspicion and investigation.

It is now proposed, in a bill just reported to the House, that 23,000,000 acres of valuable oil and gas lands shall be opened to development. Will the potential royalties of the Indian be taken from him in larger quantity than is customary in oil areas? The outcries of irregularity are beginning to be heard above the noise of other debate.

In 1924 the Indian was declared by act of Congress to be a citizen. Therefore he is beseeching Congress for equal treatment with other citizens. He wants the right to go to court, which right he does not now possess, for the Indian Bureau of today still follows the policy of past generations in regarding the Indian as in need of a guardian. The acts of the Indian Bureau are final and not subject to review.

Indians Charge Abuses.

There has sprung up an Indian Rights Association which declares the freedom of worship of the Indian, in fact his liberty, is absolutely in the hands of the Indian Bureau and that abuses have occurred which demand a congressional investigation.

Entirely apart from the question of ill treatment, however, is the material problem of property rights. The Indian lands contain valuable mineral resources. White men wish to exploit those resources.

The Indian Bureau has favored legislation whereby 37½ per cent of the royalties from oil produced on Indian lands shall go to the states and exempting the oil producers from taxation. The friends of the Indian insist that the customary royalty for white men is about 12½ per cent and in rare instances goes up to 22 per cent.

The Navajo Indians, whose lands are involved, have been in debt for several years. It is said it would take seven years to get them out of it. Their funds have been obligated for them by the Government in the building of tourist bridges and other improvements.

Indians' Share Increased.

The House of Representatives has struck out the 37½ per cent royalty for the states and has given the Indian a better share, but the friends of the Indian are afraid the same thing will happen this year that happened last session, when the House kept out of the bill the obnoxious provisions only to have the Senate tack them on and, but for a point of order by Dallinger, the conference report would have carried.

The Indian Rights Association hopes to be able under the rules, to defeat hostile legislation. All sides are agreed that some legislation is necessary, but the champions say they will not pay an undue royalty as the price of the needed changes.

There are, of course, good Indians and bad Indians. Strict laws to secure discipline and obedience are necessary for many, but under the existing system the mandate of a Government bureau is all-inclusive. The pending legislation would do one thing that the Indian has wanted—it would establish beyond doubt his legal title to the property in dispute. Heretofore it has been argued in the courts that by executive order the lands could be leased to anybody.

Under Fall's Regime.

Under Secretary Fall's regime this was done and there is a case before the Supreme Court of the United States to determine the validity of his action. By legislating what shall be done with the Indian's royalties, the question of property rights of the Indian is definitely established.

Some of the legislation would retain a certain hold, nevertheless, on the Indian's possessions by making the grants revocable by executive order. While no wholesale revocation would take place, the Indian leaders think this means that a club will be held over them and that they will be subjected to intimidation constantly unless they dispose of their

PRELIMINARY WORK ON $20,000,000 DEVELOPMENT

Building of Osage River Dam to Create Lake With 970-Mile Shoreline to Start Soon, if State Approves Financing Scheme.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

BAGNELL, Mo., April 2.—Preliminary work on the most extensive hydro-electric development inaugurated in Missouri, the Osage River dam near Bagnell, is progressing during the pendency before the Missouri Public Service Commission of an application for approval of a financing scheme worked out by its promoters.

If the promoters' plan for obtaining capital are approved, it will be possible for construction work to begin within a short time. If they are not approved, the plans must be revised to meet the requirements of the commission or the whole enterprise will fail.

Whether any large financial interest is concerned in the Missouri Hydro-Electric Power Co., which has obtained Federal and State permits for the construction of the dam, has not been disclosed. Walter Cravens, president of the Kansas City Joint Stock Land Bank, is president, and R. W. Street, a Kansas City financier, is secretary.

Site in Center of State.

In an engineering investigation of water power possibilities in Missouri, the organizers of the company picked a site on the Osage River, five miles from Bagnell, which is almost the center of the State, and where the engineers reported that 150,000 horsepower of energy could be developed.

The promoters look to Kansas City, Springfield and Sedalia as logical places to market the electricity to be generated. Transmission lines of 130 miles to Kansas City; 80 miles to Springfield, and 35 miles to Jefferson City would be necessary to reach these markets, and while there is no suggestion of St. Louis for a market, the promoters have pointed out that the dam would be only 150 miles by air line from St. Louis and this market, were its needs not otherwise met, would be available.

The Osage is one of the picturesque secondary streams of the State. From a beginning in Kansas, it winds through several Western Missouri counties, traversing both prairie land and a section of the Ozarks, and flows into the Missouri River eight miles below Jefferson City. In breadth and volume of water it is second to the Missouri.

Will Create Huge Lake.

A sluggish stream, having a fall of less than eight-tenths of a foot a mile, the damming of the Osage presented to the engineers the necessity of constructing a high dam to impound a quantity of water sufficient to produce a year-round power to meet paying commercial demands. This, they estimated, required a dam rising 130 feet from the rock bed of the stream. This will create a great artificial lake much larger than any body of water in Missouri and will afford unusual recreation possibilities, being easily accessible on improved State highways to St. Louis and Kansas City, the population centers of the State.

Following the Valley of the Osage the proposed lake will extend from near Bagnell in Miller County, through Morgan and Camden counties, to about five miles beyond Warsaw, in Benton County, a total distance of 110 miles. Because of the twistings and turnings of the valley and of the many smaller streams entering it, into which the water would back, the lake will have a total shoreline of 970 miles. In width it will vary from a half-mile at the dam to seven miles at different places, and in depth it will be from something more than 100 feet at the dam to only a few feet at Warsaw.

Approximately 94 Square Miles.

In area the lake will be 53,375 acres, or approximately 94 square miles.

At one place the impounded waters will back into the Niangua and reach the famous Haha Tonka Park, considered by many the most beautiful recreation ground in Missouri. With the proposed lake in existence it will be possible for one to have a boating trip of approximately 1000 miles on a Missouri lake, with ample camping sites and fishing in a wonderfully scenic country.

Among the objections encountered by the promoters in seeking State approval of their plans was from the State Fish and Game Department, which objected to the erection of a high dam because it would prevent fish from ascending the stream in the spawning season and, it was feared, eventually would cause the upper Osage to be without fish.

At other dams, fish ladders, which are a series of connected concrete boxes at sharp angles, over which the water pours, were built. They are constructed from the base of a dam to its top. It was the theory that the fish would ascend to the lake by means of this "ladder." Experience with other high dams has convinced the departments heads, however, that fish in the Missouri streams, being unaccustomed to going over waterfalls, will not use the "ladders." The Hydro-Electric Co., to meet this objection, agreed to build, maintain and operate a fish hatchery above the dam, in which would be propagated all of the game fish to be found in the Osage.

Some of the Objections Met.

At the hearings before the Missouri Public Service Commission, which preceded the granting of the certificate of convenience and necessity, which was required before the power plant and dam could be erected, there were objections from counties which will be affected by the creation of the dam.

It was found that the town of Linn Creek, the county seat of Camden County, will be at the bottom of the lake, covered by 40 feet of water. It has a population of about 500 persons. The company agreed to build a $60,000 courthouse for the county at any other place in the county that might be designated.

Two State highways, Nos. 5 and 15, intersect at Linn Creek. They would be far under the water. The company agreed to build a roadway over the dam of sufficient width to accommodate the two highways. The State Highway Commission has under consideration the rerouting of the two highways, if the dam is built, to carry them over it.

Will Have Resort Sites.

Surveys of the valley demonstrated that 53,375 acres of land would be covered by the water, about 18,000 acres being rich bottom land under cultivation. The remainder is hill land of little value. In negotiations for the land it developed that the company would be required to acquire an acreage considerably in excess of that which would be flooded, as few landowners were willing to dispose of only a part of their holdings.

Thus when the project is completed the company will have on its hands land along almost the total shore line of the lake. This it proposes to sell for summer cottages, camp sites and resorts.

For a number of months the company has been acquiring the property which will be submerged by the rising waters of the lake when the dam is closed. Approximately one-half has been purchased, and about half the remainder is under option.

In its transactions for the land the company has been in an advantageous position through the fact that its president also is president of the Stock Land Bank. The bank during the past few years has acquired ownership through foreclosure proceedings of considerable Missouri and Kansas farm land.

Trade for 9000 Acres.

Much of this land has been traded for the land needed by the power company, the Land Bank being paid in cash for the holdings traded. Nearly 9000 acres of this land, valued at $623,811, has been traded. In addition to this $199,329 has been paid in cash to land owners, and there are deals pending calling for the payment of an additional $280,064 in cash.

Accountants of the Public Service Commission have verified expenditures of more than $2,000,000 which have already been made in cash in the promotion of the enterprise.

The plan of financing for which approval is being sought and which the commission has taken under advisement calls for a total bond and stock issue of $20,931,000. It is estimated the actual cost of construction will be $15,345,000. The company desires to issue $14,000,000 of 6 per cent first mortgage bonds maturing in 40 years; $5,000,000 of 7 per cent 10-year debentures; $1,000,000 of preferred stock and $931,000 of common stock to go to the promoters.

PRESIDENT OPPOSES CONFERENCE ON COURT

Prefers Direct Negotiations With 48 Nations Over Senate Reservations.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—President Coolidge opposes American participation in the proposed conference at Geneva on the Senate World Court reservations.

The view of the President, as outlined today at the White House, indicates that the League of Nations' invitation to the conference will be rejected.

He is said to favor, as does Secretary Kellogg, negotiation by direct correspondence with each of the 48 World Court signatories to ascertain whether the Senate reservations are acceptable, instead of having the question threshed out at a round-table conference.

The invitation arrived by cable almost simultaneously with advices from Geneva of the circular sent out by the League advising the 48 signatories to the World Court protocol to indicate opposition to the procedure approved by the Senate.

The circular was viewed by Chairman Borah of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee as an attempt to draw the United States into direct negotiations with the League.

Letters advising the signatory Governments of the conditions imposed by the Senate were sent out by the State Department some time ago. One unqualified acceptance from Cuba has been received, and none of the nations addressed has indicated any objection.

Regardless of the League's invitations the correspondence between Washington and the protocol capitals will be continued to determine whether the reservations are acceptable.

COOLIDGE WANTS LEGISLATION AS TO COAL AT THIS SESSION

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—President Coolidge expects Congress to pass coal legislation at this session.

In line with recommendations in several of his messages, he wants legislation to enable him to appoint a mediation board in the event of a strike and to provide machinery for a coal administrator in case of a scarcity of fuel. He believes such legislation can be enacted before adjournment.

Bakewell Returns to Law.

Paul Bakewell Jr., attorney, and, until his resignation, March 15, vice president of the First National Bank, has announced his return to the general practice of law. He has re-occupied his former offices in the Fullerton Building.

GRAND JURY FINDS JUVENILE FARM IS WELL HANDLED

Some 'House Parents' Temperamentally Unfitted for Positions, Investigators Report.

CITE 15 CASES OF MISTREATMENT

Brutalities Unknown to Board, It Is Asserted and in Main Inmates Are Well Treated.

Bellefontaine Farms, city correctional school for boys, "in the main" is properly and efficiently operated and "generally speaking" the boys are well treated and as contented as can reasonably be expected in an institution of its character. Instances of brutality, found to have occurred, are comparatively few.

This, in effect, is the finding of the grand jury in its investigation of the Farms, made at the instruction of Circuit Judge Frey, to whom the jury reported today.

The jury satisfied itself that there have been instances of mistreatment by some of the "house parents," but that the mistreatment was without the knowledge of the Board of Children's Guardians and of the superintendent, whose administration is praised.

Rubber Hose Used.

After questioning about 15 boys, formerly at the school, the jury concluded that some of them had been struck in the face and about the body with the fist and open hand, had been kicked and had been struck with a strap or rubber hose for minor offenses. The denial of a "house father," Haeckle, is recorded, but the jury finds that the "testimony that he did so on numerous occasions was sufficiently credible to be convincing."

Upon this phase, the jury comments: "A grown man or woman, simply because they are stronger and circumstances have placed them in a position of power, who abuses that power, especially toward a child, is a cowardly brute for whom society must have the utmost contempt. It is apparent that some of the 'house parents' now at the farm are not fitted either temperamentally or by experience for the positions they occupy."

Whipping for running away or smoking is upheld by the report. It is declared that such whippings occur in the clinic in the presence of the doctor and with the sanction of the superintendent. Boys testified that they were required to bend over, the doctor holding their heads between his legs while the "house father" administered the specified number of lashes.

Assistant Suggested.

"This grand jury is not opposed to corporal punishment," the report states, "if it is a last resort and is properly and dispassionately administered, nor are we inclined to condemn the practice of holding the culprit on the theory that by so doing the danger of the boy being struck on a part of his body that might cause injury, might be avoided."

It is suggested that an assistant be provided for the superintendent to have charge of the property, leaving the superintendent free for the care and training of the boys.

Censure Detectives for Shooting.

Severe censure of City Detectives Arthur L. Abbott and Charles E. Frank, who shot Julian Niemeier, 12-year-old Boy Scout, mistaken for a burglar, on the night of Dec. 1, is contained in the final report of the February grand jury.

The jury on Feb. 5 returned a "no true bill" exonerating the officers. In their report they explain their action.

"While the grand jury did not feel warranted in holding the officers on the charge presented, they felt strongly that for the officers' haste in shooting, their amateurish maneuvering, they should be severely censured by the Police Board," says the report. "Officers of the law are trained to arrest law-breakers and not to shoot innocent citizens. They should be able to differentiate between a group of Boy Scouts and a gang of ruffians. They should not presume to shoot into a crowd of playful boys on the mere supposition that they are breaking into a store.

"Overstepped Their Duties."

"If officers are going to shoot first and then investigate, no citizen's life will be safe. Officers Frank and Abbott clearly overstepped their duties; they acted rashly; they should be taken to task by their superior officers."

Julian, when shot, was on the way to his home at 3946 Humphrey street with five other Boy

Jay Walkers and Jay Drivers.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

MR. ROY F. BRITTON and his automobile friends say they do not believe in a compulsory insurance law against autoists because it has not been proven such a law would prevent accidents, but they do believe in a compulsory "jay walkers' " law, even though it has never been proven it would prevent accidents. Now doesn't their discrimination in favor of the autoists show their selfish bias?

He would force every walker to cross the streets in the most dangerous places (as the records prove), but he would not punish the inhuman automobile drivers who cripple and kill them, by forcing them to have liability insurance.

An automobile insurance law might prevent criminals and drunkards from getting licenses to drive a car and the automobile manufacturers might lose some money. But what about the millions of people who must walk on the streets at times?

Will they stand for a Hooverized or Brittonized jay walkers' law without an insurance law, making every automobile driver who injures them financially responsible to them?

If a jay walkers' law is passed, a compulsory insurance law must be passed to protect all walkers from jay drivers.

MILLIONS.

Nonsensical.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

IT may both interest and amuse you to learn that in the opinion of the New York Commercial, the Post-Dispatch primarily, and others secondarily, instrumental in bringing about the movement to impeach Judge English are engaged in a nefarious conspiracy to intimidate the Federal bench. Behold the overwhelming proof of your guilt:

> The attempt to impeach Judge English, judging from the facts so far at hand, is merely another scheme to intimidate the bench when it is forced to become severe in the handling of cases involving those who seek to destroy the Government by force and violence. This campaign, waged with unrelenting vigor over the United States, is gaining weight, and unless loyal Americans come to the rescue, in time, will be most effective.

If you do not consider notice of this nonsense altogether infra dig, what you may have to say on the subject would, I am sure, interest not a few of your readers.

Police Should Obey Injunctions.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

IN today's (April 1, 1926) papers is a "story" that the Police Commissioners desire to be relieved from the payment of the $50 fines against them for contempt of court in not obeying a temporary injunction directing them not to molest the proprietors of a mechanical racing machine alleged to be a gambling device, and which the commissioners assert is a gambling device.

Granting that this racing machine is a gambling device, what has that to do with the violation of the injunction? The only question at issue is, was the temporary injunction disregarded by the police and the commissioners? If it was, then the commissioners were rightly fined.

The assumption of the commissioners that because they considered this machine a gambling device was ample reason for them to violate the injunction is evidence that they think themselves superior to the law. If the police and the commissioners set the example of breaking the law and violating injunctions, is it reasonable to suppose that the common, every-day citizen (to say nothing of the criminal element), will obey the law and respect injunctions? How long will such a police force and its commissioners retain the respect and co-operation of the citizens?

"CAVEAT."

Bide a Wee.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

THE average American rests very little, and this habit is making it difficult for those whose health or age necessitate their resting a while each day.

Occasionally I am in the vicinity of Union Station, and on one occasion in particular, a very severe headache made it necessary that I take a few minutes' rest. I sought the station, but I had no sooner entered same and seated myself than a matron accosted me, asking me if I were traveling. I was not, so I told her so, whereupon she informed me I would have to move on. I moved on, but when I reached the street I grew dizzy and probably would have fainted had it not been for the kindness of a passing pedestrian, who saw my plight and assisted me to where I could rest.

Now, no reputable citizen approves of loitering, but should the omission of a railroad ticket and a suitcase deprive one of a few minutes' rest in any terminus, when the persons in question are conducting themselves properly and show by their appearance that they are not seeking the building as a place to spend time idly?

ENGLISH CASE GOES TO SENATE.

The overwhelming vote of 306 to 62 by which the House of Representatives ordered the impeachment of Federal Judge George W. English is a complete answer to all the attacks on the Post-Dispatch as the prosecutor and persecutor of Judge English. It is a vindication not only of the work of the Post-Dispatch in gathering the evidence against Judge English, in publishing it, and in calling Congress' attention to his misconduct, but of the Judiciary Committee of the House.

As the Post-Dispatch remarked Wednesday, answering the criticisms of the defenders of Judge English, the Judge must stand or fall on the evidence submitted to the House. He has fallen, on the verdict of the House, after a prolonged and thorough debate on the question of his guilt.

Judge English has had the benefit of four hearings. One was in the House, when the Post-Dispatch submitted the evidence it had gathered, and the House ordered an investigation on the strength of that evidence. Another was before the special investigating committee of the Judiciary Committee, when it thoroughly investigated the charges, and all the members except one voted for impeachment. Another was before the entire Judiciary Committee, which thoroughly examined the evidence and gave Judge English the benefit of counsel, with unlimited time for argument. The Judiciary Committee voted for impeachment, 18 to 5. The fourth was before the House of Representatives, with practically unlimited time for debate, pro and con. The House decided for impeachment by a vote of 306 to 62. These hearings have been practically four trials.

Judge English will have the benefit of another trial when his case goes before the Senate for final judgment. The Senate trial will be a complete rehearing of all the evidence, with ample opportunity for defense. It will be a new trial of the case.

How difficult and arduous is the task of impeaching a Federal Judge, no matter what the weight of evidence against him, is amply illustrated by the record in this case. All the advantage lies with the defense. The evidence must stand the test of a series of hearings. When a Federal Judge is impeached in the United States Senate, the evidence of the truth of the charges brought against him must be "strong as the proofs of holy writ."

Every bulwark of defense is cast about the Federal judiciary, which makes it the more imperative that action be taken to maintain high judicial standards, when the unfitness of a Federal Judge for his office is clearly proved.

MINT MACHINES AND MALEFACTORS.

Two items in Thursday's Globe-Democrat show how police and courts waste valuable time and labor over trifles, which time and labor are needed in the task of real crime prevention.

One item tells how the St. Louis Board of Police Commissioners is appealing from a $50 fine imposed on each of the members for contempt of court a year ago, in ordering a police raid on a carnival concession in violation of the Court's orders. The police took the stand that the "automobile push" game was a gambling device. Judge Falkenhainer held it was a harmless amusement and issued an injunction, which the Police Board ignored.

The other item tells of a restraining order granted Walter R. Miller to prevent the police from seizing a so-called mint-vending machine. The police claim it is a gambling device. Miller claims that the person dropping a nickel into the machine gets a package of gum to the value of his nickel and nothing else of intrinsic value. Up to this date no news has come of the police violating the restraining order.

But news does come, only too often, of bank, store, apartment and other robberies, hold-ups and murders. It is the duty of the police to enforce all the laws. But there is a big difference between ideal law enforcement and what is possible and most vitally necessary. Is it the view of the Police Board that we have enough patrolmen and detectives to keep a number of them raiding lotto games and seizing mint machines? Or should nearly all officers be kept busy catching dangerous malefactors? In the light of the prevalence of crime in St. Louis the answer is easy.

A HORRENDOUS PICTURE.

That was a horrendous picture of Manuel Quezon presented yesterday in a dispatch from Manila. This man, we are asked to believe, has become the virtual dictator of the Philippines, and is actually forming a super-government, which is soviet in character. This super-government is to exist side by side with the existing government, but is to be superior to it.

There is even evidence that Quezon is already secretly installed as the monarch of the new realm. And what is the evidence? The villainous Quezon, as is well known, gets a salary of only $6000 a year as Senate President, yet he lives like a multi-millionaire. It is common gossip over the bridge tables at the Manila Hotel, where, by the way, Quezon's most sumptuous dinners are given, that the man spends $7500 a month. Can anyone doubt that this is Muscovite gold?

Quezon, we are told, is a Frankenstein. The limited independence vouchsafed the Philippines has enabled this man to become a powerful and dangerous political boss, who may some day lead a successful rebellion to achieve complete independence for his people. We are informed that, while Quezon cannot suppress newspapers, he can coerce them, and that the native editors are whooping it up for him and his super-government plans. In view of the widespread passion for independence in the Philippines, we do not think Quezon need employ much coercion.

Quezon is unquestionably a man of power and influence in the Philippines. For years he has been outstanding in his fight for the rights of the natives. He is a patriot, and all patriots are dangerous persons. But it is difficult to believe that Quezon is nearly as dangerous as he is painted, or that Satrap Wood is likely to lose his iron control of the islands. The story of the super-government sounds like a tropical illusion.

FOREIGN DEBT SETTLEMENTS.

Twenty foreign Governments owed the United States, on Nov. 14, 1925, the day on which the funded agreement with the Italian Government was signed, the sum of $11,014,406,706. Of this total $7,342,997,268, or 66.6 per cent, was covered by funding agreements with 10 countries, negotiated by the War Debt Commission.

A storm of protest has risen in certain quarters regarding the easy terms of debt settlement granted to Italy, who owes some two billion odd dollars. A question also arises whether or not the Senate will be willing to ratify this agreement.

What actually happens under this arrangement is that the United States will have returned to her during the next 62 years $1.14 for every dollar we loaned Italy.

It is true that this is not much of an interest return, and the banker proves truly that the dollar has shrunk to 27 cents, based on the earning power of money at 3 1-2 per cent. These terms were granted after a most exhaustive study of Italy's capacity to pay. However, the fact remains that the United States gets her money back.

There is no doubt, from a money-loaning standpoint, that this country has been generous to the full to our war allies, in the question of debt settlements, and particularly is this true in the case of war-torn Belgium and economically impoverished Italy.

President Coolidge, in a speech made in New York last November, pointed out that, from the 10 countries, of the total 20, which have signed up debt-funding arrangements, this country will receive fifteen billion dollars for the seven billions loaned them.

The annual revenue to this Government for the next 60 years, from repayments of foreign debts, will be over three hundred million a year. If this sum alone was applied to extinguishing the principal of our own total national debt of twenty billions, it would be completely wiped out in that period of time, and with it all Government bonds, the interest on which the taxpayer now meets.

We should not lose sight of the fact, however, that practically all of the eleven-odd billions loaned distressed Europe was kept in this country. What really was sent to Europe was values in supplies on which large profits accrued to the American farmer, manufacturer and wage earner.

Not only this, we drained Europe of her available gold surplus, until we became the money power of the world.

Yes! The war agonies of Europe made us the most prosperous nation on earth.

We can afford to be generous.

A MEMORABLE APPOINTMENT.

Clinton W. Gilbert, in his Daily Mirror of Washington, has told some interesting things about Balthasar H. Meyer, the Interstate Commerce Commissioner who wrote the Van Sweringen decision. Mr. Meyer was a protege of the elder La Follette, from whom he got his political start. He was a professor of economics in Wisconsin University and later served several years on the State Railroad Commission of Wisconsin. He has been a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission for many years. Who, would you say, appointed him? Roosevelt? No. Wilson? No. Then it must have been Taft. It was Taft. Historians, we imagine, will give that appointment rather large space in their narrative of the Taft administration.

THE VOYAGE OF LA MARINIERE.

Like a page from a medieval tale is the story of the French prison ship which, departing from La Rochelle, is making its way to the convict camp on Devil's Island, off French Guiana.

Three hundred and forty men, imprisoned in steel cages between decks, are bound for the sterile patch of earth where Capt. Alfred Dreyfus was sent in 1894 before a world-wide indignation forced justice to be done to him. The ship, La Mariniere, is as grotesque as its cargo. Its sides are smeared with a ghastly combination of colors which proclaims its mission, like the black-sailed craft which carried Theseus and the Grecian youths to Crete.

La Mariniere is equipped with ingenious safeguards against mutiny. Let such a thing happen, and steam from 10 pumps may be released into the cells to scald the rats into submission. Let an individual be so foolish as to violate the disciplinary rules, and he is thrust into a "de luxe stateroom," where he must squat half-erect, with both feet through steel bars five inches apart. It is conceivable that some may endure this torture for an hour, but it breaks the ordinary rebel in half the time.

A small, pathetic group of relatives and sweethearts watched the ship as it got under way. One convict fell dead as he waved a last farewell. From the bowels of the boat, as its engines started, came a bellowing curse from the doomed ones.

La Mariniere is the last of her kind, and this is the first time in two years that she has carried Frenchmen into the black arms of Devil's Island. She is an anachronism, a practical monument of medieval barbarity.

Sir: Italian friend just from Rome tells something which should mightily please all St. Louisans loyal to our present gloriously reigning house of Honoribus Victoribus I. Seems Maestro Mussolini has heard of our puissant Lord Mayor's notable achievements in the way of autocratic rule—his conspicuous success in reviving the old Prusso-Macchiavelian art of imposing one's political will on others who would much prefer doing without it—and is so impressed that he has decided to junk the statue, bust, picture—or whatever it is—of Caesar, which has adorned the "place where he does his kinging," as Uncle Remus says of Brer Lion's den of authority. A sculptured likeness of our local imperator—a bust of Victor(y) as it were—will soon grace the Duce's big desk, forming the inspirational point to which the Boss of All Italy will direct his admiring and emulative gaze when in the throes of compiling some new catalogue of things forbidden—it being authoritatively predicted that the next mandate of this sort will be one directing, among numerous things of equal importance, the summary arrest and imprisonment of all little boys in Lower Tyrol found trudging about in brass-toed and red-topped German boots.

No use talking, you just can't localize the reputation of a great man; it spreads to the four corners of the world and hitches its wagon to a star before you can say Jack Robinson. And then, as you know, the name Victor is one much in favor in Mussolini's big private estate since the days when bold Garibaldi and his red-shirted followers started Victor of Sardinia on his way to the Quirinal. Last, but by no means least, for mediocrities like Mussolini and yours truly, there's a darn sight more kick in being ruled by the spirit of the great who are alive and acting up than by that of the illustrious dead, for this latter sort of mentorship becomes at times decidedly irksome to the live ones who have to endure just a little too much of it. As Bob Acres says of his ancestors—but that's really too irreverent.

"JAZZ MUSIC ELIMINATED."

Judging by the announcements of Missouri's old fiddlers' contest, which is held at Paris, Mo., on May Day, the country people are not going to content themselves with merely saying that jazz is bad.

They are going to cut it out. "Jazz music eliminated," says the program. The contestants will play "The Arkansas Traveler" and any other two pieces they please except "Don't Be a Fool, You Fool," "I Wish't I Was in Peoria," "The Wind Blew Through His Whiskers," "Keep Your Skirts Down, Mary Ann," "I Love My Baby," "Down by the Winigar Woiks," "Show Me the Way to Go Home," etc.

Pitching back over all these, the old fiddlers will take a firm stand for the old-fashioned music and show how it ought to be rendered. They will undertake to convince us that the old musician was just as capable of weird noises as the modern musician is, that the wailing saxophone is in no greater pain than the old violin. It is claimed for jazz that it sets us dancing as no music ever set a people dancing, but the old fiddlers will try to prove that out of the emotionalism of the old music came holy-rolling, shouting Methodism and St. Vitus' dance.

Very well. We haven't any opinion about it, and what we hold in hand behind our back can just as well be for one as the other.

So many Congressmen bobbing up from far distant parts of the country to defend Judge English in the three days of debate on the floor of the House does not necessarily mean that they believed the jurist had been a happy choice. What it did mean was that ours is a time very much unlike that in which man was eager to turn his thumb down upon the luckless. This is one of the reasons why justice is so lax. We like to be something more than sure before doing violence to someone else, and in that leaning backward we permit a great many erring to go unwhipped. A good many Congressmen hesitated to join in the condemnation of Judge English for the same reason that a jury in a criminal case sometimes falls something short of its whole duty. It was not always so, but such is the tolerance of our time. We are no Spartans, and we look with horror upon the old witch burners and inquisitors, whose delight was in human suffering. Ours may not be the most enlightened of times, but there is more heart in it than any other time we ever knew.

RARE VOLUME TELLS OF EARLY EXPLORER

Pomona College Gets Story of First Continental Hike of de Vaca.

By the Associated Press.

CLAREMONT, Cal., April 2.—A rare volume containing the story of what purports to be the first transcontinental foot journey of a white man in the conquest of North America is the latest addition to the William S. Mason collection of Western Americans in Pomona College library.

The book tells of the adventures of Cabeca re Vaca, Spanish explorer, in journeying through the southern section of the United States between the years 1528 and 1536, and of his explorations in the River Plate countries of South America after his appointment as Governor of the region in 1540.

An expedition, of which Vaca was a member, left Spain in 1527 headed for Florida and Louisiana. It was wrecked on the Florida coast. Fifty survivors drifted to the coast of Texas in rudely constructed boats and made shore Nov. 6, 1528. All but 15 died of disease or starvation and these became slaves of the Indians.

By a stroke of luck, Vaca staved off threatened death for himself and companions by posing to the Indians as a divine healer, usually being able to cure minor maladies. After six years, Vaca, with two companions, escaped. They reached the coast of California and turned southward, arriving at Mexico City, July 24, 1536.

As a reward for his exploring services Vaca was appointed Governor of the Provinces of the Rio de La Plata in South America. Here he incurred the jealousy of his compatriots and was sent back to Spain in irons, remaining in prison six years awaiting trial. Eventually, he was exiled to Africa.

Two separate editions of the first portion of the book are known to be in existence—one in the New York Public Library and the other in the British Museum at London.

U. S. INCOME TAX COLLECTIONS FOR MARCH $499,660,000

Almost $60,000,000 More Than Year Ago and $100,000,000 More Than Estimated.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Final income tax collections figures for the March quarter, the first under the reduced rates of the new revenue law, showed a total payment to the Government of $499,660,000. This is almost $60,000,000 more than was collected a year ago under the higher rates and is $100,000,000 more than treasury officials estimated would be collected for this quarter.

The collections assure a surplus at the close of this fiscal year, June 30, which probably will be applied to the public debt. The unexpected increase in returns despite the reduced tax rates was attributed by acting Secretary Winston to the "unusual income and profits resulting last year from the period of prosperity."

The New York Federal Reserve District reported the largest collections of the 12 districts with $160,802,311. The latest figures on collections by district, which do not take into account final telegraphic reports, follow:

Chicago $90,104,966, Cleveland $43,080,713, Philadelphia $38,260,525, Boston $36,264,331, San Francisco $31,368,845, Atlanta $22,958,029, Richmond, Va. $22,931,211, Kansas City $14,727,606, St. Louis $13,928,855, Dallas $9,947,255 and Minneapolis $9,816,284.

The collections take into account both personal and corporate income tax payments. An increase also was reported in miscellaneous tax collections but several of these which were repealed by the new law did not go out until the end of March and the full effect of the reductions will not be felt until later, treasury officials explained.

GENESIS A POEM OF DIVINE MAJESTY, SAYS PRELATE

Rt. Rev. Thos. Gailor Says No Sane Person Interprets Book of Revelations Literally.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 2.—Declaring that no sane person would attempt to interpret the book of the Revelations literally, the Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Gailor, Episcopal Bishop of Tennessee and former president of the National Council of the Church, in a sermon here last night assailed the theory that a literal interpretation of the Bible was the sole basis of Christianity.

"To interpret Genesis as hard, cold fact is to forget all the poetry of the book and to ravel out the tapestry of civilization," he declared. "Genesis is the vision of one true, creative God, a poem of God's majesty of creation, showing that God through a series of eras builds up the universe, breathing life into man as the ages pass until all creation comes by evolution to Jesus Christ.

"The church has never taught that because a man was inspired he was infallible. St. John writes of the gates of pearl and the crystal sea, not as fact, but as spiritual revelations."

CLAREMONT, Cal., April 2.—A rare volume containing the story of what purports to be the first transcontinental foot journey of a white man in the conquest of North America is the latest addition to the William S. Mason collection of Western Americans in Pomona College library.

The book tells of the adventures of Cabeca re Vaca, Spanish explorer, in journeying through the southern section of the United States between the years 1528 and 1536, and of his explorations in the River Plate countries of South America after his appointment as Governor of the region in 1540.

An expedition, of which Vaca was a member, left Spain in 1527 headed for Florida and Louisiana. It was wrecked on the Florida coast. Fifty survivors drifted to the coast of Texas in rudely constructed boats and made shore Nov. 6, 1528. All but 15 died of disease or starvation and these became slaves of the Indians.

By a stroke of luck, Vaca staved off threatened death for himself and companions my posing to the Indians as a divine healer, usually being able to cure minor maladies. After six years, Vaca, with two companions, escaped. They reached the coast of California and turned southward, arriving at Mexico City, July 24, 1536.

As a reward for his exploring services Vaca was appointed Governor of the Provinces of the Rio de La Plata in South America. Here he incurred the jealousy of his compatriots and was sent back to Spain in irons, remaining in prison six years awaiting trial. Eventually, he was exiled to Africa.

Two separate editions of the first portion of the book are known to be in existence—one in the New York Public Library and the other in the British Museum at London.

U. S. INCOME TAX COLLECTIONS FOR MARCH $499,660,000

Almost $60,000,000 More Than Year Ago and $100,000,000 More Than Estimated.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Final income tax collections figures for the March quarter, the first under the reduced rates of the new revenue law, showed a total payment to the Government of $499,660,000. This is almost $60,000,000 more than was collected a year ago under the higher rates and is $100,000,000 more than treasury officials estimated would be collected for this quarter.

The collections assure a surplus at the close of this fiscal year, June 30, which probably will be applied to the public debt. The unexpected increase in returns despite the reduced tax rates was attributed by acting Secretary Winston to the "unusual income and profits resulting last year from the period of prosperity."

The New York Federal Reserve District reported the largest collections of the 12 districts with $160,802,311. The latest figures on collections by district, which do not take into account final telegraphic reports, follow:

Chicago $90,104,966, Cleveland $43,080,713, Philadelphia $38,260,525, Boston $36,264,331, San Francisco $31,368,845, Atlanta $22,958,029, Richmond, Va. $22,931,211, Kansas City $14,727,606, St. Louis $13,928,855, Dallas $9,947,255 and Minneapolis $9,816,284.

The collections take into account both personal and corporate income tax payments. An increase also was reported in miscellaneous tax collections but several of these which were repealed by the new law did not go out until the end of March and the full effect of the reductions will not be felt until later, treasury officials explained.

GENESIS A POEM OF DIVINE MAJESTY, SAYS PRELATE

Rt. Rev. Thos. Gailor Says No Sane Person Interprets Book of Revelations Literally.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 2.—Declaring that no sane person would attempt to interpret the book of the Revelations literally, the Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Gailor, Episcopal Bishop of Tennessee and former president of the National Council of the Church, in a sermon here last night assailed the theory that a literal interpretation of the Bible was the sole basis of Christianity.

"To interpret Genesis as hard, cold fact is to forget all the poetry of the book and to ravel out the tapestry of civilization," he declared. "Genesis is the vision of one true, creative God, a poem of God's majesty of creation, showing that God through a series of eras builds up the universe, breathing life into man as the ages pass until all creation comes by evolution to Jesus Christ.

"The church has never taught that because a man was inspired he was infallible. St. John writes of the gates of pearl and the crystal sea, not as fact, but as spiritual revelations."

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

MRS. CLARENCE J. CURBY of 4 Washington terrace, her daughter, Miss Ruth, and her son, Jack, will sail the latter part of June on the Leviathan for Europe, to be gone all summer. They will tour the British Isles, and spend some time in Paris.

Miss Curby will return home today from Pittsburg, where she has been visiting former classmates at Dobb's Ferry and the French School of New York, and prior to that time was in New York two weeks with her mother and Mrs. Walter Medart.

Dr. and Mrs. Anthony B. Day of 4904 Buckingham Court will take possession within a few days of the former Bruce Seddon house at 336 North Newstead avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Seddon will spend the summer in Normandy and are building a new home for occupancy in the fall. Miss Anna Wyles of Highland Park, Ill., sister of Mrs. Day, will depart tonight for her home after a visit here.

Miss Judith Dana, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dana of Brentmoor, has chosen the attendants who will precede her to the altar at her marriage to James Ward Thorne of Chicago Saturday, April 24.

The young women will be Mrs. William Harrison Luyties, Mrs. Turner Clarkson of St. Louis, and Mrs. G. Corson Ellis of Chicago, Misses Katherine Sipple, Jane Parsons, Frances Fristoe, Marceline Reyburn and Josephine Moffitt. G. Corson Ellis will be best man and groomsmen will be Turner Clarkson, George Dana, William Harrison Luyties, all of St. Louis; Julian Farwell and Niblack Thorne of Chicago, Frank Stoner of Sewickley, Pa., William Henry Wemmer of Ohio, and J. J. Livingood of Cincinnati.

The wedding will take place at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon at St. Michael's and All Angels' Church, the Rev. Paul Block officiating. A reception will follow at the Dana home.

Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Edwards Breed of 4526 Westminster place, have had as their guests Dr. Breed's father, the Rev. David Riddle Breed, and his sister, Miss Esther Kendall Breed of Pittsburg and Los Angeles. The visitors departed today for their home in the East.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Whitman, who have been making their home with Mrs. Whitman's mother, Mrs. Paul Moll of Pershing avenue will depart soon to make their home near San Francisco. Mr. Whitman departed for the West last night and his wife and two children will join him later. A farewell dinner was given Wednesday night by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill Patton, at which posters burlesquing the trip formed part of the wall decorations, and each guest made an after dinner speech and presented an amusing gift to the travelers. There were 12 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Garcia Isaacs, formerly of 4931 McPherson avenue, took possession today of their new home, recently purchased, at 37 Arundel place. Mrs. Isaacs was Miss Grace Layman.

Reservations have been made in the last few days by a number of prominent St. Louisans for the "Good Will" tour to Europe, to be given under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce, beginning July 14. Among those who have signed up are Mr. and Mrs. Merrell P. Walbridge, 38 Kingsbury place; Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Sturtevant, 5542 Waterman avenue; Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Morton, Gatesworth Hotel, and Rembert W. La Beaume, son of Mrs. E. W. La Beaume of Hotel Chase. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. A. Vesper, 6481 Ellenwood avenue, who recently announced they would take the tour, will be joined by their daughter, Miss Josephine, and by Mrs. Martha Castles of Denver, a sister of Mrs. Vesper.

MISS MADELYN WEISS.

MISS WEISS of Wheeling, W. Va., is the guest of Miss Dorothy Bolin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bolin, of 5519 Bartmer avenue. She will be a bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Bolin to William Roberts Shillington, Wednesday, April 7.

Miss Temple Bailey will give a reading at the home of Mrs. Ingram Boyd, 6465 Ellenwood avenue, Monday afternoon. The affair will be under the auspices of the Church Service League of St. Michael and All Angels' Episcopal Church, directed by Mrs. Boyd and Miss Bertha Skinker.

Mrs. Harry Cantwell of 4543 Lindell boulevard will give a buffet supper April 11, in honor of Miss Mariah Laessig, daughter of C. H. Laessig, whose marriage to Dr. Otto St. Clair Krebs will take place soon.

The Easter sale of novelties at the Junior League shop, The Open Door, in the Galeria building, will close tomorrow night. For tomorrow quantities of fresh eggs have been tinted for the sale and toys appropriate for the holiday will be displayed.

The St. Louis Woman's Club will give a card party at the club Thursday afternoon, April 8, at 2 o'clock. A table d'hote luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Genevieve F. Logan of 736 Heman avenue, will depart the last of next week to attend the marriage of her nephew, Theodore M. Simmons, and Miss Katherine Williams, to take place soon in New Orleans. Miss Williams was a Mardi Gras queen this year.

Mrs. Martin Engman Jr. of 11 Princeton avenue gave a bridge party Wednesday in honor of Miss Elizabeth Warfield of Philadelphia, who is visiting Miss Felecia Chisolm, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Edward North Chisolm.

Miss Marjorie Jean Tarlton, a student at the University of Wisconsin, will return home April 7 to spend the spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Tarlton of 5598 Waterman avenue.

Mrs. L. F. Sherman of 4202 Lindell boulevard gave a bridge luncheon yesterday, in honor of Mrs. William E. Day of Kansas City. Covers were laid for 12 guests.

PLEA TO WELSHMEN IN U. S. FOR HOME RULE FOR WALES

Secretary of National Party Makes Appeal in Current Issue of Drych.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 2.—An appeal to Welshmen in America to support a Welsh political party "composed of young people who have determined to win back for Wales her national rights," appears in the current issue of the Drych, a Welsh weekly published in Utica, N. Y.

The appeal, signed by H. R. Jones, secretary of the National party of Wales, says in part: "The Welsh language is rapidly vanishing from the land and the English flood threatens to smother every flash of national light. Our educational system is English, our courts are English and laws of the Englishmen govern Wales. Nearly all our local councils have been turned into English in order to give positions to idle Englishmen, who are pushing into every phase of Welsh activity as though the whole earth had been created that they may become rulers. We do not acknowledge the right of the King or the Government of England to rule over us. We demand a Senate for Wales and we concentrate our efforts to obtain one."

Purchasing Agents to Meet.

Delegates to the annual convention of the National Association of Purchasing Agents will assemble here from many parts of the United States and Canada tomorrow night. Members of the Executive Committee of the organization will attend two all-day sessions in the directors' room of the Missouri Athletic Association, 407 Washington avenue, tomorrow and Sunday. The association has more than 6000 members.

$100,000 F. C. RAND GIFT TO VANDERBILT U.

Donor Is National Chairman of Campaign for $4,000,000 Endowment Fund.

A gift of $100,000 has been made to Vanderbilt University of Nashville, Tenn., by Frank C. Rand, president of the International Shoe Co. of St. Louis and national chairman of Vanderbilt's campaign for a $4,000,000 endowment and building fund.

Rand, who resides at 7100 Delmar boulevard, today confirmed a report from Nashville that the gift had been made. He is an alumnus of the class of '98 and has been a member of the university's Board of Trustees since 1912. Two sons, Edwin and Henry, are now students at Vanderbilt.

A native of Mississippi, Rand has long been interested in the educational development of the South and particularly in the progress of his alma mater, Vanderbilt. For the $4,000,000 campaign he has the assistance of an executive council whose membership includes James H. Kirkland, chancellor of the university; Whiteford R. Cole, president of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad; Rogers Caldwell, investment broker of Nashville and St. Louis, and Norman H. Davis of New York.

How Money Will Be Used.

Chancellor Kirkland declared "the gift of Mr. Rand is a challenge to other alumni who believe in the power of an institution like Vanderbilt to help mold the future destiny of the South."

The $4,000,000 fund will include $2,950,000 for endowment and $1,050,000 for buildings, apportioned as follows: Social science, biology and physics and geology halls, three buildings costing $350,000 each; endowments for maintenance of three new buildings, $450,000; increases in salaries, $500,000; development of libraries, $500,000; physical education, $200,000; new professorships, $1,000,000; engineering school, $300,000.

Alumni Dinner April 9.

Pledges will be solicited during the week of April 11. On April 9 dinner meetings will be held by Vanderbilt alumni throughout the country. The St. Louis gathering will be at the University Club. There are about 100 Vanderbilt graduates in St. Louis.

For campaign purposes the country has been divided into 26 districts. W. L. Hemingway is chairman of the Missouri division and A. B. Hill is local chairman.

MADE LOVE, IN PLAYS, TO FAMOUS BEAUTIES

Memories of 50 Years on Stage Recalled by Forbes-Robertson.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, April 2.—Fifty years of love-making on the English-speaking stage with many of the world's greatest actresses has left Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson memories of beauty and charm rarely equaled by persons in the theater.

Ellen Terry, Modjeska, Mary Anderson, Adelaide Neilson, Mrs. Patrick Campbell and Marion Terry are among those who received his stage-wooing.

As an off-stage lover, the famous actor centered his attention upon the beautiful Gertrude Elliott, sister of Maxine Elliott, and she became his wife.

Modjeska and Ellen Terry are spoken of by Forbes-Robertson in a manner which shows they especially appealed to his fancy.

Modjeska's mastery of six languages and thorough knowledge of the literature of all of them, as well as her rare gifts as an actress, impressed the Romeo of 40 years ago. Their performance of Romeo and Juliet in a beautiful garden in Cornwall, he said, was the forerunner of outdoor performances of classic plays which have become so popular throughout the world.

He ranked Modjeska in the forefront of the greatest actresses he has seen.

Ellen Terry's youthful beauty entranced the actor.

Beauty Fashion of Period.

"That was in the days when open-faced Victorian beauties were in fashion," said Forbes-Robertson. "Miss Terry's beauty was not appreciated by the man in the street. Only artists and sculptors worshipped at her feet.

"As time went on, however, her particular beauty became a sort of vogue, and I once heard Whistler say of her: 'For love of Nell, I'd go to Hell.'"

But in days the actor first mentioned Englishmen loved open-faced women with sloping shoulders and with their hair down on both sides of their face, and the average man missed all the beauty of the tall, slender, erect Miss Terry with her great mass of golden red hair arranged in artistic confusion, and her narrow, sensitive face and dreamy eyes.

Forbes-Robertson was only 21 when he first acted with Miss Terry and she was five years his senior. She now is 78 and is generally rated as the most beautiful old lady in England.

BOY'S DEATH LAID TO LIQUOR

Student Poisoned at Flushing, O.; Companion Ill.

By the Associated Press.

FLUSHING, O., April 2.—The death of Raymond Van Fossen, 18 years old, high school senior, early today and the critical illness of Floyd Tanley, 16, of Martin's Ferry, was attributed to poisonous liquor by authorities, who are conducting an investigation of the case. Both were found lying at the roadside near their home last night. Van Fossen died later and physicians were doubtful of Tanley's recovery.

They attended a show last night at Holloway, near here. Coroner Hardesty said Tanley told him they obtained some liquor afterward and drank it on their way home. The Coroner and Sheriff said they expected to make an arrest.

GRAND JURY FINDS JUVENILE F A R M IS WELL CROWDED

Scouts who had attended a meeting at Oak Hill Presbyterian Church. They stopped at the mouth of an alley on Russell place, between Utah place and Humphrey street. The detectives mistook them for burglars and fired as they ran away. At City Hospital, it was charged, Julian was shackled to a cot as a police prisoner.

No Evidence to Indict.

"So far as any ill treatment of Julian at the city hospital, the grand jury had no evidence to indict," continues the report. "Seemingly there was rough handling of the boy which could have been obviated had good judgment been used. It seems to us that city officials should adopt a different procedure for people innocently wounded than that accorded criminals.

"For Julian and his parents the grand jury has utmost sympathy. Julian is a fine type of American lad. It is regretted that he was an innocent victim in this case. But the facts did not warrant the indictment of the officers on the charge of shooting to kill."

The jury also commented on conditions in various city institutions, comment being favorable in most instances. It recommended segregation of older boys at the House of Detention and segregation of tubercular prisoners at the City Jail. Enforced idleness of prisoners at the City Workhouse due to a shortage of work and a lack of space for recreation, was described as "very undesirable."

INDIAN OIL LAND LEASING TO BE AIRED IN HOUSE

lands to the white man at the latter's prices, for politically the people who seek oil lands for development and production are more powerful than the Indian.

Party lines have disappeared in the fight. About 340,000 Indians have been declared citizens and eligible to vote. The Indian Bureau in the Department of Interior has always had an extraordinary influence with Congress for the Indian Bureau controls the deposits in local banks in Indan areas and has a general power over Indian affairs which members of Congress states containing Indian reservations do not like to see allied with their political opponents.

Problem for the Bureau.

The Indian Bureau itself has a perplexing job with local administration and has in past years felt justified in using iron-handed tactics to get results. There are two sides to the story, as the volumes and volumes of printed testimony on the hearings will disclose to the casual reader, but whether the disposition of the land that once belonged to the Indian is fundamentally just, will be debated henceforth in Congress and a general inquiry into the status of the Indian may result from the disclosures to be developed in the debate.

Bartender Freed on $1000 Bond.

Herman Dawson, bartender at the Claymo Hotel at Clayton, was released on $1000 bond last night after being charged with the sale and possession of intoxicating liquor and operating a nuisance.

Dawson was arrested after selling a half pint of whisky to Prohibition Director Dillon and Prohibition Agent Stanley. He was taken to the Page Boulevard Police Station, where he gave bond. The Claymo Hotel was raided a year ago by Federal prohibition agents, when a quantity of beer was destroyed. The hotel is owned by the estate of the late Joseph Parks.

DISCUSSES STREET WORK PROPOSED BY MAJOR PLAN

Director Brooks Tells Rotary Club Four Cutoffs Have Been Completed, Traffic Relieved.

GRAND BOULEVARD CONGESTION WORST

Widening Program Includes 185 Miles, of Which 35 Already Condemned Are Delayed by Litigation.

A review of what has been done and what remains to be done to relieve traffic congestion in St. Louis under the "Major Street Plan" published by the City Plan Commission in 1917, was given by Director of Streets and Sewers Brooks, in an address before the Rotary Club yesterday.

He estimated at $16,440,000 a year the economic loss to St. Louis because of uncertainty, confusion, loss of life, personal injuries and property damage due to congested streets. He based his estimate on a figure of $20 per capita made public at the National Conference of Street and Highway Safety which met in Washington last week.

"The Major Street Plan includes 183 miles of streets, 84.5 of which it is proposed to widen," Brooks said. "Of these latter 35 miles are now under ordinance for condemnation. Several important projects have been completed. Washington boulevard between Jefferson and Grand boulevard, with the cutoff at Grand, was increased in width from 60 to 80 feet. This relieved a serious condition on Locust, Pine and Chestnut streets, increased traffic capacity, and added impetus to the rehabilitation of property along Washington boulevard.

Four Cutoffs Completed.

"The opening of South Twelfth street from Chouteau to Park avenue, together with the extension of Lafayette avenue into Twelfth street at Soulard street, has provided a new approach to the business district from the south and southwest.

"Of 35 or more cutoffs, four have been completed. These are Pine-Lawton at Grand, Newstead-McPherson, Prairie-St. Louis and Grand-Carter. Vandeventer-Easton and Chouteau-Compton are awaiting improvement.

"Our recent bond issue includes an item of $8,650,000 for establishing, opening and widening streets. It is estimated that this amount will pay the city's share of practically all important projects planned, 36 in number.

"The Olive street project has progressed furthest, all legal work having been completed, the money for awards to property owners paid in the court. However, payment to the owners has been held up pending a decision from the Supreme Court involving certain technicalities. These were injected at the last minute by two or three property owners apparently dissatisfied with the awards and not in sympathy with the proposed improvement. A favorable decision

DISCUSSES STREET WORK PREPARED BY MAJOR PLAN

To Benefit Car Riders.

"This proposed Olive street widening between Twelfth and Lindell cutoff is of vital importance and will have three beneficial effects, it will expedite the movement of vehicular traffic to and from the business district; it will benefit thousands of car riders by decreasing the running time on the most heavily trafficked street car lines; it will bring about an early rehabilitation of Olive street.

"Market street on the south and Morgan street on the north will, when widened, be additional approaches to the business district. This does away with the necessity of traveling the full length of the congested district for that traffic going to the eastern portions of the downtown area. This will relieve such streets as Locust, Washington, Pine and Chestnut.

"Market street with its connection through Vandeventer will give a much needed thoroughfare to the southwest section of the city, while Morgan street with its connection through Enright will relieve bad conditions already developed along the Delmar avenue district. In the outlying districts, Chippewa, Hampton-Billon, Skinker-Hodiamont, St. Louis, Kingshighway Northwest and Lilian are important projects and are all under ordinance. Of these, Skinker-Hodiamont is now ready for improvement and excavation is under way between Delmar and Hodiamont avenues.

Of Future Importance.

"A street of future importance, and for which a need is now felt, is a street which follows generally the western city limits. It bears the same relation to the western section of St. Louis as Broadway does to the eastern section. It begins in Carondelet and ends in Baden and includes such existing streets as Davis, Loughborough, Jamison, McCausland, Skinker, Hodiamont, Darby and Goodfellow. It is 15.4 miles long from its start on Broadway to its finish on Broadway, and although following the western city limits, exceeds the length of Broadway between these points by one-fourth of a mile.

"The worst congested street in St. Louis today is Grand boulevard. Our plan for Grand boulevard relief includes a new 80-foot street paralleling Grand and located midday between Grand and Spring, with openings and connections to the north and south via Spring at Page on the north and Prospect avenue at Forest Park boulevard on the south. It further provides for a viaduct over the Mill Creek Valley and a possible overhead crossing of Market street at Prospect.

"As a relief street to the east of Grand, Theresa would be widened from 60 to 80 feet, the job eliminated at Lindell and a new street cut through north of Bell behind Central High School, the Odeon and St. Alphonsus (Rock) church.

Worse Than Downtown.

"The congestion of Grand boulevard between Laclede and Easton warrants drastic action because of its location at the intersection of the main east and west thoroughfares with the principal north and south thoroughfares. This district is already one of intensive development. Conditions are already worse than downtown. One of the main reasons for existing conditions in this area is the extreme length of the blocks between Grand and Spring. Much of the traffic on Grand is forced there because Grand is the first opportunity for vehicles to turn out of the east and west streets.

"If some street existed midway between Grand and Spring, much of the traffic now using Grand would be eliminated. This new 80-foot street is estimated to cost a million dollars. To widen Spring avenue over the same length and eliminate existing jogs would cost at least $650,000. Although this improvement of Spring avenue would undoubtedly benefit property nearby and accommodate additional traffic, it is too far removed from Grand to provide the relief necessary. Such relief can only be brought about by a reduction of the length of the block west of Grand. With a new street between Grand and Spring, there would come a greater enhancement of property values because of the reduction of the length of the block. An additional circulation of traffic would result.

Avoids New Structures.

"In 1878 the problem of widening Grand boulevard to 100 feet was taken up by city officials. This was just two years after the western city limitts was established, and it could have been widened for $5,000. It would cost $5,000,000 today to widen Grand boulevard.

"The line for the proposed relief street between Grand and Spring as now laid down, very fortunately avoids any new structures, thus keeping the cost to a minimum. The cost of this street will never be less than today, and if it is not done soon, large and expensive buildings may be erected, the removal of which would increase the cost and possibly make it prohibitive.

"The total cost of all the projects in the Major Street Plan does not exceed $35,000,000. This is $5,000,000 less than Pittsburg will spend on its downtown portion alone. Chicago is spending today $46,000,000 on three projects which include Michigan avenue $16,000,000, Roosevelt road $10,000,000, and South Water street $20,000,000. Of this $35,000,000 the city's share is $8,650,000. The balance would be borne by the benefited property."

BAR IN CHICAGO ON MILK FROM UNTESTED DAIRY HERDS

One Dairy Raided by Health Commissioner and Deliveries to Others Halted.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, April 2.—A new prohibition war raged yesterday in Chicago and its environs, but milk and not liquor was the beverage in contention's cup. Precipitated by a rule of the Chicago Health Department, effective at midnight Wednesday night, forbidding sale in Chicago of milk from dairy herds not tested for tubercular infection, the fight began before dawn when Health Commissioner Bundesen led a raid on a Chicago dairy and dumped into the gutter the allegedly impure contents of a number of milk cans.

Owners of nontested herds retaliated a few hours later, when 70 of their pickets entrenched themselves on a highway near Virgil, west of here, and halted 16 drivers bringing tested milk to the plant of the Liberty Dairy Co. there. Forty cans of milk were polluted with kerosene before deputy sheriffs arrived and safeguarded remaining deliveries.

Bundensen said that in spite of the disturbances, no impure milk entered in Chicago or was sold, and that enforcement of the Health Department's flat had been accomplished without limitation of the city's milk supply or an increase in prices.

TURNS IN HIS TRUCK AND DIES

Chauffeur, 20, Had Remarked He Was "Caving In."

"I'm caving in. I'd better get my truck back to the garage," James Acheson, 20-year-old chauffeur, said as he left a half-finished luncheon at a restaurant at Third and Walnut streets yesterday afternoon.

He drove his truck back to the garage of the John L. Meiler Co., at 206-8 Market street, where he was employed, and fell back in his seat, dead. The cause of death has not been determined. He was married recently and lived with his wife at 3846 Missouri avenue.

BOY, 15, ARRESTED FOR KILLING

Taken After Days of Hiding on Roofs Near Home.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 2.—After days of hiding on roofs and behind chimneys while police searched his home at 510 West Forty-ninth street, 15-year-old William Killbride was arrested last night for alleged participtlon in the killing of a grocer.

Utterly unlike his alleged accomplice, John Regan, 17, who broke down and cried as he told police of the killing, March 20, of August Ebling in his store at 438 West Forty-eighth street, Killbride, detectives said, was calm as he repeated the story the older boy had told them.

Killbride's father makes a living by selling newspapers. His sister, mother of a three-months-old child, is married to a man in the [illegible] on a charge of grand larceny. With four or five other children to rear, the boy's mother was forced to let him look after himself.

He was arraigned when 12 in connection with a burglary and discharged.

Detectives said the boy admitted he and Regan entered Ebling's store with the intention of robbing it and fled after Regan, with Killbride's .32-caliber revolver in his hand, had killed the grocer. Killbride said he found the weapon in a store he had robbed.

Man Found Dead in Bed.

An inquest will be held in the case of Herman Kastner, 50 years old, who was found dead in bed in a room he occupied at 306 South Second street yesterday. Heart trouble is believed to have caused death.

MISSOURIAN GETS 60 DAYS FOR VIOLATING FISH LAWS

Fine of $100 Assessed Against Second Man—Defendants Had Entered Pleas of Guilty.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., April 2.—Harvey Wilhite and Homer Fisher today entered pleas of guilty in the Greene County Criminal Court to a charge of violating the State fish laws. Wilhite was given 60 days in the county jail and Fisher was fined $100.

The penalties were imposed by Judge H. D. Durst, who was agreed on to preside in the case as special Judge when the defendants took the case away from Judge Warren L. White some days ago.

Wilhite and Fisher were charged with dynamiting fish in James River and were arrested some weeks ago by Everett Wommack, Deputy Fish and Game Warden, and were bound over to the Criminal Court following a preliminary hearing.

NEW EFFORT TO PROMOTE TEACHING AND STUDY OF THE MODERN LANGUAGES

Lacking Utilitarian Arguments, Defenders Must Prove Intrinsic Usefulness to Restore Former Values, Says Dean Heller.

A new effort to promote the teaching and study of modern languages was advocated by Otto Heller, dean of the Graduate School of Washington University, in an address at the meeting of the Modern Language Club of St. Louis and vicinity, held March 25.

He pointed to the success which the teachers of ancient languages have had in their efforts to popularize the study of Latin and Greek. "The classicists believe in systematic and persistent propaganda," he said, in explaining this success. In comparison, he said that modern language teachers have been negligent.

Have Failed of Results.

"We have failed to demonstrate by actual results the essentiality of our discipline," Dr. Heller said. "The vocationalist and the efficienceer can point out, without fear of contradiction, that all our strenuous attempts at teaching French, German, even Spanish, have not availed to make linguists out of many Americans. Manifestly, one might retort that neither does this nation shine by its penmanship, in spite of the vast sums spent on the teaching of writing. Nay, one might add that the recent educational emphasis on domestic science has produced no palpable improvement in contemporary American cookery, and argue that the teacher of foreign language has as good a right to fritter away the time of the pupils as all the rest of the teachers.

Unite Against Assault.

"I would rather not dispose of the charge by such a facile and tawdry answer. The odium for our share of the general educational dereliction must be accepted, and its causes must be removed. Our faith in the cultural necessity of languages is too static; it has to be made dynamic. We must unite and stand together against the modish assault upon a broader conception of education and must demonstrate by clear results both the pragmatic and the ideal value of our work."

Dr. Heller said people might be classified as those who know and those who do not know any language besides their own for speaking or writing purposes, or both. Outside of immigrants and their immediate progeny, he said, the people of the United States are "in overwhelming majority monolingual." He said that attempted reforms in language teaching methods had had little effect on the situation.

No Utilitarian Arguments.

"The average citizen, plain man, general reader, man in the street or whatever you choose to call that mythological scapegoat of our collective mediocrity, sees little use for foreign languages. Their knowledge in this country is happily not a prime necessity for commercial success, and it does not count among the social graces. Nor does the American need the foreign idioms when abroad—accommodating aliens have forestalled him by acquiring English. This being so, the teaching of foreign languages cannot be effectively advanced by utilitarian arguments. Our goods are a drug in the market.

"The good American, so it appears, deems it the part of loyalty to resist the seductions of goods made in Germany or France. Hence our article is not in demand. It may be true, as charged, that we 'don't deliver the goods.' But chief among the reasons of nondelivery is the absence of orders. And it is my humble judgment that nothing short of outspoken demand for our wares can bring a happy turn to our fortunes. This cannot happen in the momentary trend of civilization.

Lacks Quick Cash Returns.

"In respect of quick cash returns—at present the determining criterion of educational values—French and German cannot successfully compete with all the newfangled subjects. Only when literary culture is put on a parity with agriculture and beauty culture in our schools, can the winter of our discontent be once more made, if not glorious summer, yet at least an endurable season.

"The foreign languages are either going to be put on a firmer footing through their intrinsic, not ancillary, usefulness, or they are going to be thrown neck and crop out of the curriculum.

I may be told, for consolation, that there is no thought of purging the educational system of the foreign languages; that these subjects are not to be removed but merely shifted; in evidence of which it can be pointed out that elementary French, German, etc., have passed from the grade schools to the high schools, from which they have gradually slid up into the college.

"They are moving the languages higher and higher in order to let them down all the harder. It may be simpler to eject an unwelcome guest through the front door; but to prevent his return by the back door, the safest way is to invite him upstairs and to push him off the roof."

Assails Dr. Hopkins' Conclusions.

Dr. Heller assailed the conclusions of Dr. L. Thomas Hopkins of the University of Colorado, who was brought here last December to advise as to the revision of the curriculum of the St. Louis schools. An earlier statement of Dr. Heller, taking issue with Dr. Hopkins, was published in the Post-Dispatch Dec. 13 last.

"The A. B., A. M. and Ph. D. after the name of this 'modernist' have not made him highly lettered," Dr. Heller said of Dr. Thomas. "He woulld do away with the teaching of 'imaginative literature,' for the convincing reason that '90 per cent of our reading, after we finish school, is in newspapers and magazines.'

" 'Only the future novelist needs to read fiction,' the doctor pontificates. He would be capable of decreeing that only future confectioners must eat ice cream. The drama, of course, follows the novel to the scrap heap. With a loud and tearless voice the consulting revisionment announces that Shakspeare is dead—' 'The Merchant of Venice" is the only work of Shakspeare staying.' The 'old books' are to be thrown away to make place for the latest newspapers. A prohibition of books, just think. What a prospect for the booklegger! William Shakspeare is dead—long live William Hearst!

Silence Lends Tacit Consent.

Such are the views of a person employed in a post of prominent responsibility to lead and direct educational thought and activity, a trainer of the teachers of tomorrow, and one to whose arbitrament educational measures of incalculable consequences are submitted. How comes it that the holder of such views is allowed to vent them uncontradicted? Surely he would be drummed out of the educational camp—or homerically laughed out

CONSTIPATION DRAGS YOU DOWN

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brings lasting relief

Don't let constipation drag you down and sap your health and vigor. Let Mr. Bovee's experience point the way to sure relief:

"The writer was suffering from the worst kind of an attack of constipation, and was filling himself to the neck with all kinds of physic, which only gave me temporary relief and many times made me worse other than better. Since eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN for breakfast every day I have had no trouble whatever."
DAVID B. BOVEE,
Bolivar, N. Y.

Constipation paves the way to many harrowing diseases. Pimples, dizziness, headaches, sallow skin—are just a few telltale signs. Don't let this insidious disease send its poisons into your body.

Hog Trough Once Baptismal Font.

Special Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch and Chicago Daily News.

OSLO, Norway, March 14.—An archeologist saw by chance a hog trough of exceptional shape on a farm near Bergen. He purchased it for a few dollars and took it home to be cleaned and examined. Great was his surprise to find it a finely carved granite block. Investigation soon revealed it was the original baptismal font of the Svelo church. When the ancient Stave kirk of Svelo was demolished 80 or more years ago, the font was sold at auction with other things. For a time it was used as a stepping stone outside a farmhouse, and later was used as a trough. Made in the fifteenth century, the font has now been reinstalled in the Svelo church.

JEFFERSON CITY BANK CLOSED AFTER A RUN

Farmers' and Mechanics' Is Believed to Be Solvent—Examination Being Made.

By th Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, April 2.—The Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Jefferson City was closed by its board of directors today as the result of a "slow run" of withdrawals which have weakened its resources. The State Finance Department is making an examination.

There has been no run in the usual sense, and no line of depositors demanding their money, but the gradual withdrawals have made the directors apprehensive, and it was decided not to open the bank this morning. The general belief is that the institution is solvent.

James A. Houchin, former prison contractor, and twice an aspirant to the Democratic nomination for Governor, was president of the bank until last Friday, when he resigned. Houchin was indicted in February by the St. Louis Federal grand jury, charged with using the mails in a scheme to defraud, in connection with the operations of the Western Bond and Mortgage Co. and the International Aerial Navigation Co.

The indictments appear to have caused the withdrawals which occasioned the bank's closing.

The bank was organized in 1907. Its last statement, issued Dec. 31 last, before the withdrawals began, showed total resources of $207,446; deposits, $186,828; loans, $118,893, and no bills payable. The capital stock is $20,000, and undivided surplus, at that time, was $618.

Although it was announced that the bank was closed by order of the directors, it was learned that the closing was on the initiative of the president, J. H. Conrath, without a meeting of the board.

The majority of the 200 shares of stock of the bank is held by Houchin, interests that he represents and his son-in-law, J. W. Hobbs, also a diretcor. Houchin stated Conrath held only four shares of stock.

Houchin declared the closing of the bank came as a surprise and without action by the directors. He said no meeting of the directors was called until three hours after the bank was closed.

Houchin said that 112 shares of stock were held by himself and the interests he represented. Some of this stock is up as collateral in the bank for a $7500 loan, he said.

Conrath said Houchin resigned as president of the bank after the Finance Commissioner examined the bank and recommended a change in the personnel of the officers. The examination was made on March 26 and Houchin resigned that night at a meeting of the board. Conrath was elected president. Conrath expressed the belief the depositors would be paid in full.

The bank had no State deposits, but carried a deposit of approximately $31,000 by the City Collector of Jefferson City.

HENRI CHOUTEAU INDORSED

Henri Chouteau, member of the State Legislature and wealthy real estate operator, was indorsed for the Republican nomination for Congressman from the Eleventh District at a meeting of the Nineteenth Ward Republican Club which last night elected him its president. It is believed that the Republican organization generally will support Chouteau. He has not announced his candidacy but is expected to do so in a short time.

Harry B. Hawes, Democrat, now represents the district in Congress, but will seek the senatorial nomination in August. His withdrawal from the field has resulted in a general drive by Republicans to wrest the district from Democratic control.

NEW EFFORT TO PROMOTE STUDY OF MODERN LANGUAGE

of it—were we sufficiently indignant with him for tampering so sacrilegiously with our mission. But our hardihood in maintaining silence lends tacit consent to such barbarian stutterings.

"I speak from sad experience, for my many wounds honorably earned in fighting the heathen are mostly unsoothed by the balm of sympathy. For instance, I took it upon myself to join issues with Mr. Hopkins in the most widely read local newspaper. I did so in the hope of 'starting something.' But not one word of public comment upon Prof. Hopkins' promulgations have I seen or heard from other teachers.

Backward in Initiative.

"The plain fact of the matter is, the average member of our guild today is content to go mously about his business and be thankful that the worst is yet to come. Nothing remotely resembling a united stand for the defense of our ideals has yet been taken. To put it in publicity patter, we do next to nothing to break down the firmidable sales resistance of our prospects.

"To me the contest that is waging presents the aspect of a religious war. An educational doctrine whose avowed teleology is, to quote once more its spokesman from Colorado, 'To make pupils fit for some commercial work no matter when they drop out of school,' is fundamentally impious.

Opportunity to Function.

"I know that this body is not formed with a bellicose intent, but if it will function to protect and promote the modern languages not only as an auxiliary scientific and commercial tool, but also, and perhaps mainly, as a medium of mental discipline and development of taste, then it will perform without any breach of the public peace a militant service against the contemporary, and God willing, only temporary, educational progress to the rear.

"Teh raw brand of education still advertised as 'new,' despite its 30 years of abject failure, is a devastating counterfeit of reform. Education without the wing-power of idealistic imagination cannot model our youth save in the image of its advocates.

"The Lord preserve us from a generation that shall live untroubled by dreams, visions, illusions, marching in lockstep onward to material prosperity, with eyes as well as feet flatly on the earth earthy—conquering the secret of omnipotence, which, according to Ibsen's old cynic, consists in being capable of living one's life without ideals.

Should Restore Values.

"Only yesterday Clarence Darrow said that the problem of preventing crime is the problem of caring for our young. During the ascendancy of the 'new education,' America has achieved international primacy in criminal record, and the average age of our burglars, robbers and murderers is hardly above 21. The debility of what still passes for the 'new education' shows that it has fallen into premature senility.

"A new education is really needed. The restoration of some forgotten values to their former place of importance in the curriculum would go far toward giving it to us."

Chileans Discuss Plebiscite.

By the Associated Press.

SANTIAGO, Chile, April 2.—The Tacna-Arica situation was discussed by President Figueroa, the Foreign Minister and the Foreign Relations Committees of the Chamber and Senate yesterday. No official statement was issued, but officials asserted that it was agreed by the Government and the Congressional committees not to accept any proposal leading to the suspension or prorogation of the plebiscite proceedings.

COUPLE'S WISH TO DIE TOGETHER FULFILLED

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McCune Succumb on Same Day—Double Funeral Services.

It had been the wish of Patrick McCune, 75 years old, and his wife, Eliza Jane, 64, since they became seriously ill two weeks ago, that they might die together. McCune died at 6:15 p. m. Wednesday at city hospital and his wife died of pneumonia at 10:30 a. m. on the same day at the home of her son, John C. McCune, 2237A Cass avenue. They had been married 53 years.

"It had been their daily prayer since their illness became serious that they might die together," Mrs. John McCune said today. "Although it was impossible to care for them properly at their home at 2330 Mullanphy street, we could not get them to separate.

"We have lived together 53 years," they would say. "Let us die together." Finally we succeeded, last Sunday, in moving Mrs. McCune to our home and Mr. McCune to city hospital. Mr. McCune was not told of his wife's death.

They were born in Totsia, Mo. It was there they married, moving to St. Louis shortly afterward, where McCune worked as a gardener. They had nine children but only John lived to maturity. McCune in recent years was employed by the Board of Education until bronchial ailments forced him to resign.

After funeral services at 2 p. m. tomorrow from St. Leo's Church, the couple will be interred in the same grave at Calvary Cemetery.

"Have a Camel"

No cigarette satisfies the taste like a Camel

HAVE a Camel, and let your taste be satisfied! Millions of experienced smokers just wouldn't buy or smoke any cigarettes but Camels.

Camels are so different from other cigarettes. So glorious in flavor and fragrance. Because of their choice tobaccos and perfect blending, Camels are all pleasure, pure golden contentment. Nothing is omitted to make Camel quality the biggest sensation in the history of smoking. Camels give you the utmost in cigarette enjoyment.

Right here you have the reason why Camel makes—and keeps—so many friends: Camels satisfy the taste as no other does. They never tire the taste or leave a cigaretty after-taste no matter how freely you smoke them. And what a glowing contentment their goodness brings! Camels are the only cigarettes in the world that have the completely satisfying quality. For your taste's sake, demand them. Their pleasure-bringing goodness is your right. Have a Camel!

QUICK RELIEF FOR SORE, TIRED FEET

"After a long hot day on my feet I run for Tiz," writes a city salesman. "No matter how my feet ache and burn, Tiz draws out all the pain and I'm as good as new."

Tiz is magical. Acts right off. Stops the pain of corns, bunions, callouses, sore spots.

A few cents buy a box of Tiz at any drug or department store. Have feet that never swell, never hurt, never get tired.

ALCOHOL CONFISCATED BY DRY AGENTS AT E. ST. LOUIS DEPOT

Nine Cases, Labeled "Lubricating Oil," Was Addressed to Chemical Firm in Philadelphia.

Federal prohibition agents yesterday confiscated nine cases of alcohol, each case containing six five-gallon cans, at the Pennsylvania freight depot, East St. Louis. The liquor was labeled "lubricating oil" and was addressed to the Industrial Chemical Co. of Philadelphia.

Six of the cases had been consigned to the chemical company by the "Star Drug Co." of East St. Louis, while the remaining three were consigned by the "Stamm Pharmacy" of St. Louis, both alleged to be fictitious concerns.

M'KINLEY INDORSED BY DENEEN

Says Defeat Would Repudiate President Coolidge.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, April 2.—Charles S. Deneen, Republican Senator from Illinois, has issued a formal statement upholding the position of his colleague, Senator McKinley. Senator Deneen declared a group of Cook County politicians were seeking control of offices through a bipartisan alliance that made McKinley a special target.

The logical sequel of their tactics, if successful, he asserted, would be a repudiation of President Coolidge in the coming Republican State convention.

Man Found Unconscious in Room.

Fred Brookner, 45 years old, a dishwasher, was taken to City Hospital this morning suffering from gas poisoning resulting from his leaving the jets of a small gas stove burning last night in his room at 3903 Washington boulevard. Physicians at the hospital, where it was said Brooker would recover, explained that the flames from the stove consumed the oxygen in the room, causing asphyxiation. Brookner was found unconscious at 7:30 a. m. by the proprietor of the rooming house, who sought to arouse him.

Village Smiths Find New York.

Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch and Chicago Daily News.

LONDON, March 15.—On view at the Vassar galleries, Church street, Kensington, is a collection of exquisitely wrought iron work, executed by rural blacksmiths. The exhibition is the result of a vague wonder on the part of someone as to whether the decaying trade in horseshoes had brought about the extinction of the village smith. A tour of the country in search of blacksmiths brought to light the fact that the smith had merely yielded place to the craftsman. Few horseshoes are now made in the village smithy, but the smiths are devoting their time to turning out fine pieces of wrought iron work. The patterns of some of these have been handed down from father to son, with never a word or sketch written about them. The galleries have been visited by many Americans.

A friendly substitute for sunshine

SCIENTISTS are experimenting with the oldest and best loved commodity in the world—sunshine. For it appears that the rays of the sun have extraordinary curative properties. The exact nature of this therapeutic value has, however, not yet been determined.

Some experiments indicate a relation between the therapeutic rays of the sun and the mysterious vitamins which play so vital a part in life and health. Children, for example, whose diet is deficient in vitamins, may be protected to a remarkable extent from rickets if they are kept much in the open sunshine. Conversely, children who are given cod-liver oil (rich in vitamins) may be deprived of sunshine for long periods without falling victims to rickets.

What is the exact relation between sun-rays and the vitamins of cod-liver oil? Science, ever cautious, ventures as yet no positive hypothesis.

Yet cod-liver oil not only protects children from rickets; it has other amazing effects also. It increases resistance to disease; it aids convalescence; it imparts vigor to people who cannot get out much in the sunlight. So that it has come to be thought of in some degree as a "friendly substitute for sunshine."

It is necessary to be sure, however, that the cod-liver oil you get really contains the vitamins you should have. Most physicians and pharmacists recommend Squibb's Cod-Liver Oil because its vitamin potency is insured in two ways. The oil is carefully tested for vitamins and is prepared, packaged and transported under the protection of a special, exclusive process which guards against the subsequent loss of its vitamins. To be safe, insist upon Squibb's Cod-Liver Oil. At drug stores.

EX-SHAH OF PERSIA UNHAPPY

Rich, Young and Wealthy, Yet Lonely and Miserable.

Special Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch and Chicago Daily News.

PARIS, March 16.—Achmet Khan, ex-Shah of Persia, who now lives in France, is not happy, his intimates affirm. He has youth and health, yet he is bored and world-weary, as if he were 77 instead of 27. His fortune, removed more or less surreptitiously from Persia to a London bank in the last few years, is said to total millions. It is augmented by the family jewels, chief of which is the famous 28-carat diamond known as the "Grand Mogul." If he liked, Achmet could move in the best Parisian circles.

He took dancing lessons for awhile, but soon gave them up. He prefers to live alone, moving in solitary melancholy now and then from one palatial hotel to another, disgusted with his "ungrateful country," disgusted with society, disgusted with life.

FOUR PERSONS INJURED IN FIRE

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, April 2.—Three women and a man are in a hospital today recovering from injuries suffered when fire last night destroyed a fashionable apartment. Fifteen others, caught on the upper floors, were carried to safety by firemen. Many of them had been overcome by smoke and gas.

The fire started on the first floor, cutting off the exits.

Mrs. Mary Pahl was injured when she leaped from a third-story window. Sixteen families asleep on upper floors owe their lives to firemen who reached the scene just in time to rescue them.

MAN'S DEATH NOTE A PUZZLE

Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch.

BUDAPEST, March 20.—An unemployed waiter shot himself the other day in one of the largest cafes of Budapest. In his pocket was a letter to the police with the words: "The reason of my suicide."

To the astonishment of the police the letter contained a carefully worked out crossword puzzle with the remark that the solution of the riddle would show exactly the reason of the suicide and the name of those persons who were interested in the matter. The detectives have not been able to solve the puzzle.

BAKER PROCLAIMS NEUTRALITY IN SENATORIAL RACE

With Several Incumbents Seeking Re-Election, He Faces Predicament Over His Friend, Brunk.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Disaptch.

JEFFERSON CITY, April 2.—With opposition in the primary campaign developing for several Republican State Senators seeking re-election this fall, Gov. Baker yesterday declared he would take no part in the Republican contests for State seantorial nominations, preceding the August primary election. This announcement does not necessarily prevent activity by his appointive departmental heads and their platoons of deputies, nispectors and other employes.

The Governor's statement, the only public one that might be expected, is not surprising as to the present Republican State Senators, with one exception. The Republican minority in the State Senate of the last Legislature largely was ignored by the Governor and the minority frequently complained the Governor was more prone to consult with Democratic leaders in the Senate than with Republican Senators.

Brunk Seeks Re-Election.

The one Republican Senator who was close to the Governor during the session was State Senator Larry Brunk of Aurora, now Secretary of the State Public Service Commission, who is a candidate for re-election from the Eighteenth Senatorial District. Brunk created considerable commotion in administration circles last year, when, as Purchasing Agent for the penitentiary, he wrote letters to the Governor and State Penal Board objecting to alleged irregularities and "glaring overcharges" in the purchase of prison supplies, without competitive bids under supervision of the Penal Board.

Transactions disclosed in the letters took place early in the regime of Dr. Cortez F. Enloe, Director of Penal Institutions, and close friend and political adviser of the Governor. The situation was met so far as the administration was concerned, by "promoting" Brunk from purchasing agent to secretary of the Public Service Commission, a field of activity distinctly apart from prison affairs and management.

Friendly With the Governor.

Brunk has been friendly with the Governor, and it is understood the Governor views his candidacy for re-election with favor. Brunk, it is recalled, was the only one of the 11 Republicans in the last State Senate who supported Baker for the Republican nomination for the Governorship in the 1924 primary campaign. Six of them come up for re-election this fall.

Brig. Gen. W. A. Raupp of Pierce City, who was displaced as Adjutant General of Missouri by Baker to make way for a Baker appointee, has announced he would seek the Republican senatorial nomination in the Eighteenth District, in opposition to Brunk. Reports emanating from the Raupp camp are to the effect that Raupp has composed his differences with the Governor and that Baker would follow a "hands off" policy in that district. Baker today declined to comment on this, or to confirm the reported peace negotiation, but asserted he would not take part in any of the Republican senatorial primary contests.

Prison Disclosures Crop Up.

Newspapers in Brunk's district have reprinted the Brunk letters, first published in the Post-Dispatch, since he announced his candidacy and the prison disclosures will figure in the primary campaign. Republicans here expect the Democrats to give them more extensive recirculation after the primary election.

Another angle of the Eighteenth District contest is that Raupp is reported to have the support of several Republican leaders said to be unfriendly to Enloe, whose appointment will be up for confirmation before the next State Senate. His confirmation by the last State Senate was for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

Seventeen State Senators, one-half the membership of the upper House of the Legislature, are to be elected this fall. Eleven of the Senators whose terms expire this year are Democrats and six are Republicans. All of the 150 members of the House of Representatives are to be elected this year.

Ice Cream Rivals Vodka in Paris.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, April 1.—Ice cream shares with vodka an ever-increasing favor with Frenchmen. Many cafes advertise ice cream by special signs posted prominently over the cashier's desk and the once insurmountable French aversion to "glace americain" is passing. Oddly enough, ice cream often is classed as a beverage.

Brighton Flat for Women Only.

By the Associated Press.

BRIGHTON, England, April 2.—Brighton is the proud possessor of the first flats in all England built exclusively for women. The first block was dedicated by Lady Emmott. Each flat is self contained, and the occupant may have children or a woman companion—but no husbands, or anything of the kind. Seven additional blocks of such flats will be erected here and at other places. The rent averages about $1.75 a week.

BARBER SUPPLY FIRM RUINED BY BOOTLEGGERS' COMPETITION

Bankrupt Chicago Concern Says They Sell Supplies at Cost to Cover Up Illegal Operations.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, April 2.—Inability to dispose of nearly $75,000 worth of barber supplies because of the competition of bootleggers, who hide their real business in the guise of selling barber supplies, was set out in an involuntary bankruptcy petition by the James G. Barry Co., presented in Federal Court.

As soon as the Volstead Act became law, the petition said, the number of dealers increased rapidly until they now number some 300.

The bootleggers' profits, an attorney told the court, are derived through canvasses by illegitimate house salesmen who sell barber supplies at cost or even a loss to establish a large sales record. The records are then presented to the prohibition department, he said, as evidence of legitimate trade to support applications for large scale withdrawals of alcohol.

Fall Off Street Car Fatal.

Leopold Schuettner, 65 years old, of 2737 Shenandoah avenue, a railroad watchman, died at city hospital yesterday from injuries suffered March 27 when he fell off a Fourth street car which he had boarded at Fourth and Poplar streets. His skull was fractured. An inquest will be held.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL FOR CHAPMAN BEING PREPARED

Attorneys Continue Fight for Him Despite Refusal of U. S. Supreme Court to Intervene.

By the Associated Press.

HARTFORD, Conn., April 2.—Defeated in their attempt to get the United States Supreme Court to intervene in the execution of Gerald Chapman early next Tuesday, his attorneys today turned their attention to preparing a motion for a new trial. They will attempt to get a hearing on this motion tomorrow.

Meanwhile, State's Attorneys were interested in dispatches from Henderson, Ky., about a Negro, detained there, Thomas McKinley White, who says he acted as Chapman's chauffeur, and drove him to New Britain on the night before the murder of a policeman there. He said he witnessed the shooting, and received between $7000 and $8000 from the slayer not to talk. White said a troubled conscience caused him to disclose his relations with Chapman.

The murder of the New Britain policeman during a burglary is the crime for which Chapman, mail robber and bootlegger, is under death sentence.

Frederick J. Groehl, Chapman's attorney, plans no further action in the Federal courts. Justices Holmes and Brandeis at Washington yesterday refused to issue a stay of execution.

A petition for executive clemency is being prepared for presentation today to Gov. Trumbull. Workers said they expected to get 1000 signatures. They had about 500 last night. The petition was started by clubwomen. It was not believed that the Governor would interfere with the execution in the face of his recent statement that he would not grant Chapman a reprieve of one hour.

Defense attorneys have obtained an affidavit from Henry C. Peck of Canton, averring that Walter S. Case, one of the Chapman jurors, had expressed a wish before Chapman's trial that he might be selected as a juror, so that he could do all that was possible to hang Chapman.

THREE WOMEN INJURED WHEN TAXICAB HITS STREET CAR

Chauffeur Arrested and Charged With Careless Driving After Collision.

Three women were injured when a taxicab collided with the side of a Cherokee street car at Pennsylvania avenue and Cherokee street at 6:30 p. m. yesterday. The chauffeur of the cab, George Anderson of 2525 North Market street, was arrested and charged with careless driving.

The injured were Mrs. Loubelle Colvin, 19 years old, of 3616 Pennsylvania avenue; Miss Sarah Murray, 19, of 922 LaSalle street, and Miss Helen Murray, 19, of 5076 Page boulevard. They suffered scalp wounds and injuries to their backs as the taxicab overturned. They were taken to their homes.

Find Coyotes Have Poor Teeth.

By the Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 2.—The coyote is really not a bad fellow; it is toothache that has made a chicken thief out of him, a report issued by the Federal-State Predatory Animal Control force here today set forth. It showed that 13 coyotes recently poisoned in the vicinity of pig pens and poultry yards had lost practically all their teeth and therefore were unable to fight fiercer game.

JESUS CHRIST DIED FOR ALL! WILL YOU HELP US SAVE SOME?

The Catholic Church Extension Society is endeavoring to raise an Endowment Fund for the Home Missions of the United States. The following is the detailed plan:

The Mission Students' Endowment Fund will consist of one thousand prelates and priests contributing $1000 each for the purpose of this Fund. After the death of the donor a burse of $5000 will be created in his name and memory and the interest on the burse used for the education of a poor student for the missionary priesthood. Two hundred prelates and priests have already done so.

The Mission Priests' Endowment Fund will consist one thousand Catholic laymen contributing $1000 each for the purpose of this Fund. After the death of the donor a burse of $5000 will be created in his name and memory and the interest on the burse used for the support of a missionary priest at $25 a month. Will you?

The Mission Schools' Endowment Fund will consist of one thousand Catholic ladies contributing $1000 each for the purposes of this Fund. After the death of the donor a burse of $5000 will be created in her name and memory and the interest on the burse used for the support of a Mission School. Let us tell you how.

The Mission Community Endowment Fund will consist of one thousand Catholic institutions contributing $1000 each for the purposes of this Fund. After the completion of the Fund burses will be created in the order in which the donations are received and the burse so created may be used for the benefit of the contributing institution or community. It can be done.

The Mission Church Endowment Fund will consist of one thousand Catholics contributing $1000 each in memory of their dead. After the completion of this Fund, a $2000 Chapel will be built in memory of the dead. Nearly 100 have already done so.

The Mission Society Endowment Fund will consist of thirty thousand Catholic people contributing according to their means. The interest on this Fund will be used for the furnishing of Mission Chapels throughout the country. The following plan gives everyone an opportunity to subscribe. What is your name worth?

1000 persons each giving $500
1000 persons each giving $250
1000 persons each giving $100
1000 persons each giving $50
1000 persons each giving $25
2500 persons each giving $10
5000 persons each giving $5
7500 persons each giving $2
10,000 persons each giving $1

A Bulletin, describing all the Funds, will be sent on request.

MAKE EASTER SUNDAY A GALA FEAST DAY

Give a Buffet Dinner to Relatives and Friends and Serve the Good Things of the Season.

EASTER is near and spring and gladness and sunshine are in the air. Why not make a gala feast day of Easter Sunday? Begin the day by dressing the breakfast table, Easter Sunday morning, with pretty cloth and have Easter lilies and Easter baskets for decorations.

Even though you serve only a simple meal of fruit, cereal, bacon and eggs and coffee cake, make the meal festive and have the coffee good and strong. If the menu includes strawberries, broiled mackerel and hot waffles and syrup, dress the fish up with trimmings of French fried potatoes and sprigs of parsley.

Then make your Easter dinner or supper a real party. If your quarters are small, content yourself with inviting a friend or two to partake of your hospitality. If you have commodious accommodations have a family reunion Easter Sunday with your relatives as guests.

Serve a buffet dinner or supper and have all the good things of the season to eat. Buffet service does not require expert waiters nor does it limit the number of guests to those that can conveniently be seated at the table. Ordinarily the hostess and an assistant can adequately serve a dozen or more guests.

The buffet meal is served from a central table and the guests either stand while partaking of the meal or else seat themselves informally, at their pleasure and convenience. The service table should be attractive with a center piece of Easter blossoms. Additional decorations could include Easter bunnies, Easter eggs and gilded candles.

Arrange the service plates, silverware and napkins at one end of the table where the platter containing the meat should also be placed. At the other end of the table place the vegetables which may be served from baking dishes or casseroles. In the opposite corners of the table put plates of buttered bread or buttered rolls. Dishes of celery, olives, after-dinner mints and chocolate candy eggs may be placed in the remaining spaces.

The hostess may serve at one end of the table. A woman relative or friend may be asked to preside at the opposite end. In arranging the menu for a buffet meal, care should be taken to select dishes which may be eaten with a fork or spoon. Chicken pie, baked ham with sauce, sliced leg of lamb with mint sauce are easily managed and are well suited to serve at a buffet dinner or supper.

The meal may start with a fruit cocktail, which should be passed. Following which Mme. Hostess serves the meat course from her end of the table direct to the guests who carry their plates to the opposite end of the table, where they are served the vegetables. The bread or rolls may be passed or the guests may help themselves from the table.

At the more elaborate meal a salad may be served preceding the dessert. Before serving dessert the guests should be relieved of their service plates. A frozen dainty of some kind accompanied by cake is the best selection for dessert. Coffee, which follows dessert, may be poured by the hostess or brought in on a tray from the kitchen.

Have no fears about a buffet meal being difficult to serve. There is always a spirit of informality about such a meal which makes for a pleasant time and as long as guests have a good time and plenty of good things to eat, there will be no criticisms about the shortcomings of the service.

Try Lamb Pot Pie.

In small families where roasts will be left over it is a problem to use the meat acceptably with no waste. Try making this pot pie out of the leftovers from your Easter leg of lamb.

To make lamb pot pie brown pieces of leftover lamb in bacon fat and finely cut onions, adding one cup each of celery, carrots and potatoes, all diced. Cover with water and boil until tender. Thicken the gravy with flour, season mixture well and pour into a well-greased baking dish. Cover with baking powder biscuit and bake in a hot oven until the biscuits are brown. Serve from the baking dish.

Molasses Adds Flavor.

Whenever it comes to pies, New England gets the credit of making the best fruit pies under the sun. It is perfectly natural, because down East they eat pies for breakfast, dinner and supper.

Everybody who visits along the New England coast wonders why the blackberry and huckleberry pies are better there than anywhere else. The secret is out—a dash of New England molasses is added to the fruit filling of all pies.

Sweet Economy Sandwiches.

These are exceptionally good when jams, fruit butters and jelly are low. Take all the small pieces of stale bread and dry them in oven, then put through food chopper or place on bake board and roll until fine, then put the crumbs in bowl and add syrup enough to make a thick jam, a little salt to take away the flat taste. A few nuts put through the food chopper with the bread makes a very pleasant change. This makes a sweet sandwich for the hungry schoolboy and girl.

Nutrition Nuggets.

It may be of interest to scan the menus for the week making a list of the alkaline foods. This element in our foodstuffs is so often neglected, the diet being overbalanced with acid, that such a survey should be helpful. The alkaline foods represented this week are as follows: Cherries, apricots, milk, potatoes, cauliflower, lettuce mushrooms, apples, olives, cress, celery, bananas, grapejuice and orange juice.

Such seeming trifles as the addition of a maraschino cherry to an individual cornstarch pudding does not, it is true, add to the nutritive value. The attractiveness, however, of the color combination, having the tiny suggestion of unusual flavor, does have direct effect on the palatableness and, therefore, the palatableness of the dish.

Among the acid-forming foods in this week's menus are muffins, bacon, cereals, cornstarch dessert eggs, cheese, bread, liver, steak, clams, oysters and scallops. This does not mean that these foods are harmful but that in the normal course of their digestion their final product is acid. For this reason they must be accompanied by a judicious mixture of alkaline foods as given in the preceding paragraph.

Remember that the fleshy or white-meated fish is less oily and, therefore, more suitable for young people or those with delicate digestions than one of the richer varieties.

PLANNING MENUS FOR THE COMING WEEK

Advice on Arranging Balanced Meals That Are Palatable and Nourishing.

THERE has been a special effort to vary the breakfast fruit. Housekeepers will be surprised to see what a variety they can produce if they will get into the way of depending on high-grade canned fruit. For example, the combination of stewed canned berries and apricots is unusual and very palatable.

In serving the fresh rhubarb it should be remembered that this fruit is not to be given to children. Even grownups with any digestive difficulty had best leave it alone as there is present an acid which to anything but a healthy stomach may prove to be an irritant. So potent is this acid that some diet authorities go so far as to say that rhubarb should not be used at all as a food. On the other hand, there are those who feel that it is a most healthful spring fruit. The point is to use it judiciously. Great care has been taken to plan one day's meals with the possibilities of the next in mind. For example, chicken loaf on Monday is a sequel to the casserole of Sunday's dinner. The general character of the luncheon is made from a dietary point of view as well as from that of palatableness. When the rather hearty dish like chicken loaf is served one should plan to have a delicate vegetable like lettuce and a very simple dessert.

On the other hand, with such a hearty and occasional luncheon dish as frankfurters with potato salad, the courses should be cut down and apples are served advisedly as being a good digestive accompaniment to the sausages.

As usual, considerable attention is paid to vegetable dinners. That of Tuesday is decidedly different from the standard "vegetable plate," while Saturday's dinner makes up for its lack of meat by an especially nourishing dessert.

Desserts are somewhat difficult at this time of the year, but much can be accomplished with variations of flaky cereals combined with fruit. Mock mince pie is better for spring than real mince pie. The cranberry season is waning, but cranberry shortcake makes a pleasant variety. A good way to serve it is to prepare individual baking-powder biscuits. Cut the biscuits rather thick so that there will be considerable soft part and have the berries stewed and ready to pour on while both the sauce and the biscuits are hot.

SPICES REASONABLY USED AID DIGESTION

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
United States Senator From New York,
Former Commissioner of Health, New York.

TWO or three of my doctor friends are violently opposed to spices. They cannot say enough bitter things about them. There certainly is plenty of spice in their criticisms.

I never could see why anybody, especially a doctor, should get excited over the use of ordinary condiments. It may be the most common of all, salt, is overindulged in by a good many persons. The amount of spice in a given helping of food is so infinitesimal that I cannot see how any harm could be produced.

Drugs which are given in tiny doses must be taken day after day to produce symptoms of poisoning. It is true that great hazards attend the industries where chemicals are used. By absorption through the skin or by inhalation, there is a never-ending bombardment of the body which may yield eventually.

You can see that that is entirely different from the occasional use of this or that spice. You get a little allspice today and some cinnamon tomorrow and something else next week. I would not approve the constant chewing of any spice. But as a flavoring substance I can see no objection whatever.

We used to buy the most outrageous humbugs, called "spices." The ground spices of that time were mixtures of shells, fibrous substances, dirt and everything else except much of the real spice. Today the food and health authorities and the manufacturers themselves are working together to make possible a guarantee of purity in the spices on the market.

The days of the wooden nutmeg have gone into history. But even now it is important to buy a standard brand, especially of the grated variety. Wheat and cocanut shell have been pulverized to add profit to the mixture.

It is a crime against humanity that under any circumstances such fradulent food practices should be indulged in for the sake of a little profit. I am glad to say such methods are run upon very seldom these days.

Do not hesitate to make reasonable use of the spices and condiments. Be temperate here as in everything—then you may safely indulge your taste.

Treat for Tiny Tots.

Treat the tiny tots to a tea party and serve peach junket made after this recipe:

Heat together until lukewarm one-third of a cup of sugar and three cups of milk. Dissolve one junket tablet in one teaspoon of cold water and stir mixture into the lukewarm milk and sugar. Add one teaspoon of vanilla extract. Pour immediately into individual molds that have been lined with sliced canned peaches, cut in very thin slices. When set, put in a cool place. Serve with a wafer and give each kiddie a mug of milk.

FOR BALANCED DIET COUNT CALORIES

This Is the Best Manner of Checking the Daily Ration.

When we have checked our daily ration for the whole amount of energy present, or the total number of calories represented, we have, it is true, taken the first step toward achieving a balanced diet. The second step is just as easy to take, but it is undoubtedly true that far fewer persons understand its importance. This second step consists in balancing the dietary so as to divide the energy represented by, let us say, the 2100 calories, into energy from protein, from carbohydrates and from fat.

Roughly speaking we require from 10 to 15 per cent protein, from 60 to 65 per cent carbohydrate and from 20 to 30 per cent fat.

How shall we determine whether or not our calories are properly distributed?

Simple calculations of these percentages, based on the 2100 calories will give an approximate idea of the proper distribution, but we must first have something by which to check our calculations.

If we bear in mind that roughly speaking, protein foods are meats, fish, milk, eggs and certain vegetables, notably peas, beans and lentils, we have a check for our first point, i. e., the number of protein calories.

Again, carbohydrate foods are represented by cereals, breads, cakes, pastries and sugar and the same simple mathematical test may be applied to our meals in this regard.

Naturally one does not wish to carry about a pencil and notebook for the purpose of calculating his calorie distribution, nor is this desirable. A fair conception of the mechanics of dietary making will, however, make it at once more interesting and more practical for one who desires to eat sensibly.

NEW RECIPES FOR SALMON COOKERY

American Housewifes Are Interested in Sea Food Dishes.

AMERICAN housewives are far behind the housewives of other countries in the use of fish as food. Fish, like meat, is rich in protein and while other nations have recognized the food value of fish and accepted it as one of their staple articles of diet, housewives of this country serve fish only occasionally. Children, particularly, should be encouraged to eat fish frequently.

But the popularity of fish as a food is steadily growing and new and attractive recipes for fish cookery are constantly appearing. Salmon, on account of its delicious flavor, recommends itself to most palates. Those of us who find it inconvenient to purchase fresh salmon find that the canned product is adaptable to all types of cooking.

Among the new salmon recipes may be mentioned salmon loaf which calls for one can of salmon, the same amount of soft bread crumbs, two eggs, one-half cup of milk, one tablespoon lemon juice, the same amount of chopped parsley and one-half teaspoon of salt. Mix all the ingredients together and add enough of the milk to moisten. Make into a loaf and bake in a moderate oven until firm. Turn out and serve hot with a white sauce to which has been added one tablespoon of chopped parsley.

Salmon Salad.

Shred one can of pink salmon and remove the bones. Shred one medium sized head of lettuce. Free one small can of peas from moisture. Mix the three ingredients together lightly. Serve on individual plates with mayonnaise dressing and decorations of sliced hard-boiled eggs and cucumber rounds.

Salmon Patties.

Drain liquor from a one-pound can of salmon, remove bones and flake the solid meat with a fork. Melt three tablespoons of butter and blend it with three tablespoons of flour and one and one-half cups of milk. Stir mixture constantly until the sauce begins to thicken, then add liquor drained from salmon, and one-half cup of diced celery which previously had been boiled tender in one cup of water. Add to this mixture, the flaked salmon and one-half teaspoon of pepper and one teaspoon of salt. Serve hot mixture in patty shells.

Salmon Croquettes.

Salmon croquettes, which are among the most popular salmon dishes, may be made by adding a can of flaked salmon to a croquette basis made by boiling together two tablespoons of butter, four tablespoons of flour and one cup of milk until the mixture is very thick, when it should be poured into a platter to cool. When cool, combine the mixture with the flaked salmon, one-half can of peas seasoned with one teaspoon of salt and one-half a teaspoon of pepper. Add a beaten egg and form into croquettes. Dip in beaten egg diluted with water and roll in bread crumbs. Fry in deep fat until croquettes are golden brown. Serve hot.

Mint Sauce.

When mint is so green, fresh and pungent at the market stall, why not buy a few stalks and make mint sauce to serve with your roast leg of lamb? Here are directions for making old-fashioned mint sauce.

Wash and drain stalks of mint.

Remove all the leaves, discarding the stems.

Lay on a board and with a sharp knife cut till fine.

Put this cut up mass into a bowl and pour over it hot vinegar. For ½ cupful of pulp, use 2-3 cupful white vinegar. Be sure the vinegar is to a boiling point.

Let stand at least 10 minutes before serving.

Save Tea Leaves.

Save tea leaves for washing varnished paint. When sufficient leaves have accumulated steep them for 30 minutes in a tin vessel and then strain through a sieve. A washing in this water will give the varnished paint a newer and fresher appearance than if soap and water are used.

Baked Egg Plant.

Cut egg plants in half lengthwise and parboil them in salted water. Scoop out most of the inside and pound this to a paste in a mortar with a little fat bacon and some mushrooms previously chopped up, and a little onion, also chopped, pepper and salt to taste and a little bread crumbs soaked in good stock. Fill each half with this mixture, lay them in a well-buttered tin and bake for about a quarter of an hour.

Delicious Baked Ham.

A new baked ham recipe calls for two pounds of ham sliced thick, cooking apples and brown sugar. Trim off the fat, mince and spread on the ham. Place meat in baking dish and cover with the apples, pared and cut out into sections. Sprinkle generously with brown sugar. Pour a little hot water into the pan and bake for one hour in a moderate oven.

Floor mops should be washed out once every two weeks in strong soda and water and put in the open air to dry.

A good rule for the use of different kinds of flour is to use pastry flour wherever baking-powder is used, and bread flour with yeast.

RECIPES FOR DISHES IN WEEK'S MENU

Cooks Are Directed How to Prepare Delicious Desserts.

Stuffed Apple Salad.

Select sufficient red apples to serve the family. Wash and dry and cut off the tops. With a potato scoop take out part of the inside of the apples, leaving only a fairly thick shell. Chop the apple pulp with celery and nuts to make an attractive salad. Moisten the salad with cooked dressing and fill cavities of the apples with the salad. Arrange on a plate with a border of the salad encircling the apples.

Corn Flake Pudding.

Have ready a buttered baking dish; place in the bottom a layer of corn flakes, then a layer of pared and sliced apples. Add a layer of raisins; then another of corn flakes sprinkled with brown sugar. Continue the process until the dish is full, being careful to have corn flakes and sugar on top. Bake in a moderate oven and serve with cream sauce.

Buttered Kidney Beans.

One can beans, 1 teaspoon margarin, few grains pepper, one-quarter cup milk, one-third teaspoon salt. Combine the milk and beans, heat and stir in the margarin with the salt and pepper; reheat and serve very hot.

Eggs and Cheese.

Have ready hard-boiled eggs. Remove the yolks and mix with mayonnaise and grated cheese; rub to a smooth mass. Add chopped stuffed olives to season. Fill the whites with this mixtures and serve on a bed of lettuce.

Scalloped Celery.

Have ready celery which has been cooked very tender. Drain and save part for soup. Make a cream sauce flavor with one-half cup of the celery water. Place a layer of the celery in a buttered baking dish and pour on sufficient sauce to moisten. Fill the dish with alternate layers and sprinkle the top with crumbs and bits of cheese.

Lemon Cream Sherbet.

Three-quarters cup lemon juice, four cups water, two egg whites, one cup cream, two cups sugar. Boil the sugar and water together and cool. Add the lemon juice; strain and freeze partially. Stir in the cream and fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites.

Maine Fish Balls.

This recipe is furnished by a native of the State of Maine. Soak about three-eighths of a pound of boned codfish over night. Shred and mix with this potatoes which have been boiled and rubbed through a strainer. Add one beaten egg and one teaspoon of butter with sufficient hot milk to moisten. Form into round balls, not flat cakes, and fry in deep fat.

A Fashionable Dish.

While the word "fashion" is generally supposed to be used in connection with modish women's clothes, yet the word, with propriety, may be applied to food for scarcely a month passes without the introduction of some new way to cook or serve a vegetable, fruit or meat.

One of the fashionable dishes of today is a combination of candied sweet potatoes and fried apples, which is so new that it does not even boast of a distinctive name of its own, yet the dish has quickly taken its place among the favorites at fashionable luncheons and formal dinner parties.

The dish is really a variation of the candied sweet potato with the sweet potato cut in rounds and each round topped by a round slice of fried apple.

Fun for Little Mary

WHY not allow little Mary to make the teacakes for Sunday night's supper? She would have a perfectly grand time making drop cakes from the following simple recipe:

Cream together one-half cup butter and two cups brown sugar. Add two eggs well beaten, one cup of sour cream or milk, to which has been added one scant teaspoon of soda. Beat well into the mixture three and one-half cups of flour. Add one cup each of chopped walnuts and seeded raisins and one teaspoon each of vanilla extract, allspice, cinnamon and cloves and one-half teaspoon of salt. Beat mixture well and drop from teaspoon on buttered pan and bake in moderate oven.

A Savory Dish.

Leftover veal or pork may be the foundation for a savory dish through adding two cups of diced cold cooked veal or pork to a cream sauce made of two tablespoons butter, the same of flour and two cups of milk. Boil above ingredients and add the yolks of two hard boiled eggs rubbed through a strainer, one-half pound of sauted mushrooms, a pinch of powdered mace, the same of paprika and one teaspoon each of Worcester sauce and of salt, two tablespoons of chopped olives and one tablespoon of chopped green peppers. Boil until well blended. Serve with toast points with the hard boiled egg whites sliced and used as a garnish.

Desserts can be made more attractive if served in a glass dish on a small doily.

SPRING VEGETABLES ARE PLENTIFUL

Display of Seasonable Fruits Attracts Attention of Housewives.

Fresh fruits and vegetables never looked more attractive and inviting than they did yesterday when we made the rounds of the markets, meat shops and grocery stores.

At each place visited, the lettuce, tomatoes, cauliflower, onions, cabbage, carrots, celery, chard, spinach, Brussels sprouts, beets, parsnips, asparagus and radishes with their various shades of red, green, yellow and white blended into one picturesque whole which was as satisfying to the artistic eye as was the display of oranges, apples, bananas, lemons and strawberries.

The capable housekeeper has learned to use vegetables and fruits in season which when cooked palatably and served attractively are always acceptable to the family. And this is as it should be, for vegetables and fruits provide iron, lime and other minerals that are needed to build up the body and keep it in repair. In addition, vegetables furnish the special substances that help make children grow.

Points to be remembered in cooking vegetables are few and simple. Fresh spring vegetables taste best when simply boiled, steamed or baked and served with a butter, cream or milk sauce.

Do not overcook vegetables, as it impairs their flavor. Delicately flavored vegetables are destroyed by overcooking while vegetables with strong flavors, such as onions and cabbage, become disagreeably strong if cooked too long. Overcooking also destroys the attractive color of some vegetables.

Drain all boiled vegetables as soon as tender—they become soggy if allowed to stand in the water they were cooked in.

Most vegetables should be cooked in a small amount of water, because a part of the mineral salts dissolves in the water and is lost when they water is thrown away.

SPRING VEGETABLES ARE PLENTIFUL

Display of Seasonable Fruits Attracts Attention of Housewives.

Fresh fruits and vegetables never looked more attractive and inviting than they did yesterday when we made the rounds of the markets, meat shops and grocery stores.

And this is as it should be, for vegetables and fruits provide iron, lime and other minerals that are needed to build up the body and keep it in repair. In addition, vegetables furnish the special substances that help make children grow.

Points to be remembered in cooking vegetables are few and simple. Fresh spring vegetables taste best when simply boiled, steamed or baked and served with a butter, cream or milk sauce.

Do not overcook vegetables, as it impairs their flavor. Delicately flavored vegetables are destroyed by overcooking while vegetables with strong flavors, such as onions and cabbage, become disagreeably strong if cooked too long. Overcooking also destroys the attractive color of some vegetables.

Drain all boiled vegetables as soon as tender—they become soggy if allowed to stand in the water they were cooked in.

Most vegetables should be cooked in a small amount of water, because a part of the mineral salts dissolves in the water and is lost when they water is thrown away.

Tender spinach and other greens require no added water for cooking. This class of vegetables must be thoroughly washed and enough water will cling to their leaves to prevent burning.

Delicately flavored vegetables should be cooked slowly in a small amount of boiling water while starchy vegetables should be put on to cook in a sufficiently large amount of boiling water to cover them. Boil them gently and keep the vessel covered during the process.

Strong-flavored vegetables may be cooked uncovered in a large amount of rapidly boiling water and the water changed several times during cooking.

Uses for Stale Bread.

Not one scrap of old bread ought to go into the garbage can, no matter how large or small the family. Dry it thoroughly in the warming oven, grind or roll it, and put away in tin cans for use. If company drops in suddenly to dinner and no dessert has been prepared, it is ready to make into a bread pudding that can be baking while the family are eating the first and second courses. Served with whipped cream or fruit sauce it is delicious. A cupful of the crumbs, with two eggs and a pint of milk, will make enough to serve four people.

If one is short of potatoes for hash, a cupful of crumbs will take their place, and no one will be the wiser. Added to fried potatoes one not only gets more in quantity, but a change as well, that is very pleasing.

For escalloping tomatoes or corn, bread is much nicer than crackers, also for croquettes of all kinds.

Pin Wheel Tarts.

Make a good pie dough, roll thin and cut about three inches square; then cut down each corner until about half an inch from the center. Fold every other corner down to the center and press firmly. This resembles a pin wheel. Place a slice of canned peach in center and bake in a hot oven. Jam, marmalade or jell can be substituted for the peach. This is also a good way to make use of left-over pie crust.

If a ham be plunged from boiling water at once into ice water, the fat will harden white and firm, giving the meat a fine color.

SPAIN GETS CREDIT FOR FRANKFURTER

Origin of the Popular Article of Food Under Discussion.

The world, or at least that part of it which is concerned about food and its origin, is all agitated about where the frankfurter originated and where the name of "hot dog" came from.

The most interesting and likely history of this popular article of food is given in a recent number of Colliers' Magazine, which declares that hot dog is mostly bull meat, mixed with pork, highly spiced, steam cooked and smoked over hickory smoke. The sausage originated in Bologna, Spain, so long ago that only the main facts are recalled.

In those days, as the story goes, they used to slaughter an enormous number of bulls in the arenas in Spain when bullfighting was more popular and more brutal than it is today. It looked like a great economic crime to see so much prize beef wasted. But nobody wanted bull beef just so; bulls are tough and not so delicious as cows and steers are. A butcher in Bologna had an idea and bought bulls that were killed in the bull ring and made the meat into a sausage, mixed with pork and highly seasoned. Bologna sausage appealed to the popular taste.

Germans borrowed the formula, put the same sausage mixture into small casings and Bologna became "Frankfurters" in Frankfort and "Weenie" in Vienna. Coney Island gave it the name of hot dog and popularized it.

One stand in Coney Island that has been selling hot dogs for half a century is reputed to have a sale of five to 10 tons of Frankfurters a day in the busy season. Somebody has to sell a lot of 'em to get rid of that 400,000,000 pounds a year.

Care of Perishables

The approach of spring reminds us that additional thought must be given to the care of fresh fruits and vegetables in the family pantry or icebox.

According to the advice of the United States Department of Agriculture, fresh fruits and vegetables should be kept clean, well ventilated and, if possible, at a temperature between 60 and 40 degrees F.

Decayed ones should be frequently sorted out. Very often the decayed portion may be cut away and the rest of the fruit or vegetable used at once. Wilted leaf vegetables sometimes may be freshened by soaking in water just before using. All vegetables and fruits, especially those to be eaten raw, should be thoroughly washed in running water before they are used. The loss of flavor and texture is very slight and is made up for by the removal of bacteria and possible spray residue. Decaying fruits and vegetables always attract flies.

Most cooked foods made with milk, eggs, meats or fish, are excellent breeding places for harmful micro-organisms, including many which cause poisoning. Chilled leftovers should be used as soon as possible. Leftovers of meat pie, dishes made with cream sauce, soft custard, boiled dressing and dressing made with cream must be carefully kept and handled and promptly used.

UNSWEETENED STERILIZED
EVAPORATED MILK
BRING THE LABELS TO OUR PREMIUM ROOM

THERE'S no difference between Wilson's Milk and fresh milk—because Wilson's is fresh milk—pure milk collected daily from dairying farms and evaporated to double richness—sealed and sterilized in cans for your convenience. But there is a difference in evaporated milks. Try Wilson's and see.

A FULL QUART OF RICHNESS
in Each Large Wilson's Can

Because it is double-rich you may dilute a large can of Wilson's Milk with an equal amount of water and you will have a full quart of whole milk that is richer than the legal standard. Diluted in this proportion Wilson's serves every milk need—economically. And for all cream needs you use the double-rich Wilson's Milk just as it comes from the can—and save half the cost of cream.

RICE PUDDING
A New and Better Way to Make It

½ cupful of Wilson's Milk—½ cupful of water—½ cupful of uncooked rice—½ cupful of raisins—⅓ cupful of sugar ¼ teaspoonful of salt—few gratings of nutmeg—1 egg.

Drop the rice into a saucepan of rapidly boiling salted water. Cook until tender, drain, blanch well in cold water and drain again. Dilute the Wilson's Milk with the water. Add to it the egg, sugar, salt and nutmeg and beat slightly. Add the raisins and rice. Pour into a buttered baking dish and bake slowly for about an hour. During the baking period stir the pudding occasionally with a fork that the raisins may be evenly distributed through it. Serve hot or cold.

CASINO MAGNATE OF FRANCE, ONCE SCULLION, DIES

Eugene Cornuche, Son of Bar Proprietor, Made Deauville and Cannes Fashionable Resorts.

BUILT FORTUNE ON TOURIST TRADE

Catered to Gay, but Avoided High Life Himself - Headed Aid Society of Former Cooks.

Special Cable to Post-Dispatch and New York World.

Copyright, 1926, by the Press and Pulitzer Publishing Cos. (New York World and Post-Dispatch.)

PARIS, April 2. — Eugene Cornuche, the dishwasher who became the Casino magnate of France and whose regard the fashionable of all the world sought, is dead in his sixty-first year.

He had been ill for a long time and seeing the approaching end, this master of gamblers spent his last days converting his daring financial investments into conservative fields, so his wife and children would risk poverty no more than the most carefully guarded burgeois family in France. He died yesterday.

The fortune he built on the high living and reckless gambling of the sporting world he hedged in carefully.

Cornuche made Deauville and Cannes the fashionable resorts they are today. He fixed his prices high and exacted such lavish spending that he insured the exclusiveness of wealth for his resorts. Lords and millionaires spent their money as Cornuche decreed and the come-ons did it because they saw it done.

Wanted Only Rich Customers.

No restaurant keeper or casino owner ever treated his guests as cavalierly as did Cornuche, and he got away with it. He wanted only the rich at his resorts. The amount they spent governed his esteem for them.

His great fortune was built almost exclusively on British and American visitors and the regular casino gamblers. He watched his establishments at Deauville and Cannes in season and out, and on the winnings he started last year a new resort at Labaule on the Breton coast. This was to cater to rich clients who wished to be further from Paris so week-end tourists would not bother them.

The mass of Frenchmen regarded Cornuche as the exponent of chique, of flash, but the only kindly things said about him after his death are the result of the money he took from foreign spenders and used to help less successful restauranteurs.

For years he was head of a mutual aid society called Etoile to which only restaurant owners who began as cooks, helpers or dishwashers were eligible. He spent a fortune helping others over bad times.

Eugene and his brother, Gustave, were sons of a little bar proprietor in the Rue Lafitte—the kind of a bar called zinc, after the metal of which it is made. The brothers went to the Riviera—Eugene as a dishwasher, Gustave as a cook.

Famous as Cook.

When their mother came back to Paris and with an eye to the rich clientele which liked to find amusing little "holes" they reorganized the Lafitte Zinc. With Eugene as cook, it soon became fashionable, and finally Cornuche was offered a job as cook in Maxim's. Here he became famous and, with his brother, got complete control of Maxim's.

Eugene opened his larger career when he went to Trouville, then the fashionable resort of France, where Henri Letellier, a millionaire, was fighting for the mayoralty. Cornuche helped him and they lost. Vengefully vowing to make a mud hole out of Trouville, they built a fashionable resort a mile away in Deauville.

Cornuche was a genius for attracting the right kind of crowd. He induced former King Manuel of Portugal to go to Deauville, and then when the place became more popular he got King Alfonso of Spain and, later, the Prince of Wales. Deauville thus made, he turned his attention to Cannes and developed a casino there in rivalry to Monte Carlo, still in partnership with Liteliier.

But through all the years of catering to the high, wide and say life of Europe, he carefully eschewed it himself. For years his friends tried to get him the Cross of the Legion of Honor. They succeeded only recently, but the honor was awarded to the head of the Etoile, not to the gambling king.

Honduran Contract With Bank.

By the Associated Press.

TEGUCILGALPA, Honduras, April 2.—The Honduran Congress has approved a contract with the National City Bank of New York under which the bank will collect all funds received by Honduran consular offices and will act as intermediary for the payment of British bondholders under the recently concluded debt agreement with Great Britain.

FAMILY TO DINE TODAY ON A FISH CAUGHT LAST JULY

Muskellunge Taken From Lake in Wisconsin Packed in Ice, and Moss Since Then.

On July 25, 1925, Mrs. Agnes Schisler, wife of A. W. Schisler, 116 Swan avenue, Webster Groves, caught a fish. Today she and her husband will eat it, or at least begin eating it.

For the fish is no ordinary fish but a 31-pound muskellunge, and consequently has been cared for in no ordinary way during the eight months elapsing since it was so rudely yanked from the waters of Lac Du Flambeau in Wisconsin. "Let us eat it next spring," said Mrs. Schisler as she pulled it into the boat.

So it was packed in ice and moss and sent to a St. Louis cold storage company, where it was intered in more ice. Yesterday the Schislers regained their fish, finding it as fresh and shiny as on the morning it was pulled from the waters, the moss around it still green, the original ice in which it was packed still intact. In fact the only ill effect to the muskellunge, perhaps due to its long fast, was the loss of six pounds.

Says Florida City Is Solvent.

By the Associated Press.

HOLLYWOOD, Fla., April 2.—The city of Hollywood is experiencing no financial difficulty, it was declared in a statement by Charles Windham, City Manager. All departments of the city are functioning normally, Windham's statement said, and a suit attacking the validity of bonds about to be issued by the city has been withdrawn. More than 165 business men have pledged their assistance.

NEW YORK, April 2.—Building wreckers to the number of 2700, employed on 45 jobs in Greater New York, have gone on strike for an increase of 15 cents an hour. They demand $1.20 an hour for skilled men and $1.10 for helpers.

STRANGLER LEWIS PUNCHED UNOFFICIALLY BY MAN, 52

Chicago Broker Jabs at Wrestler in Traffic Row Until Police Intervene.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAG, April 2.—Instead of being paid, Ed (Strangler) Lewis, claimant of the world's heavyweight wrestling championship, may have to pay for his most recent engagement. All Lewis received was a split lip and an opportunity to explain to the Judge.

His opponent, Charles S. Wheeler, 52-year-old broker, is proud of mind and sore of body—proud because family history will record that he engaged the Strangler and sore as a result of a drubbing. The Judge also wants to see Wheeler.

Spectators say honors were even when 800 pounds of policemen broke Lewis' famous strangle hold on Wheeler's neck.

The bout started when two automobiles in which the combatants were occupants scraped fenders in a snow-covered street. Angry words followed. "I usually spank people who talk like that to me." Lewis was quoted as saying. Whereupon Wheeler smote Lewis on the lip.

For a brief period, spectators saw Lewis use his fists, but the wrestler, finding his opponent capable, resorted to his profession until both resembled snow men. Police finally arrived to intervene.

FRIEND OF DURKIN SENTENCED

He Was Man Who Drove Gunman and Women to Los Angeles.

By the Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 2.—Lloyd Worthington, former companion of Martin Durkin, Chicago gunman, was sentenced to three and a half years in Leavenworth Penitentiary for violation of the Dyer act in transporting a stolen automobile from Chicago to Los Angeles. Worthington, evidence showed, carried Durkin and two women in the automobile from Chicago.

WIDE DIFFERENCE IN U S TRADE BALANCE FOR EIGHT WEEKS

Secretary Hoover Refuses to Predict That Last Year's Ratio Will Be Reached.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The United States has four months left in which to make up a wide difference between its favorable trade balances for this and the last fiscal year.

Figures made public by the Commerce Department for the eight months ending with February show the excess of exports over imports amounted to $328,123,512, as against $878,456,423 for the same period last year.

Explaining these figures, together with the excess of approximately $55,000,000 in January and February of imports over exports, Secretary Hoover said several factors must be considered, such as higher prices paid for imported rubber and a decline in exports of crude materials and crude foodstuffs, which alone fell off about $50,000,000 in February, as compared with the same months last year.

The secretary would not predict whether figures for March and the remainder of the fiscal year would show gains sufficient to bring the trade balance in this country's favor up to last year's figure. He reiterated, however, that the favorable balance in merchandise would have to total $600,000,000 or $700,000,000 if the invisible balance representing tourists' expenditures, emigrants' remittances and other forms of American investments abroad was to be offset.

ANOTHER STEP IN U. R. REORGANIZATION

Receiver Retires $4,200,000 Certificates and Pays $2,987250 Interest on Bonds.

The path toward reorganization of the United Railways was further cleared yesterday by the disbursement of $7,334,450 by the Receiver to retire $4,200,000 of outstanding receiver's certificates, together with $126,000 interest on the certificates and $21,000 premium, and to pay $2,987,450 accumulated interest on bonds.

To this payment the Reorganization Committee contributed $1,900,000 cash and $4,100,000 in cash and underlying bonds, a total of $6,000,000, for which the Receiver surrendered $6,000,000 of general 4 per cent bonds which remained in the treasury of the company. The general 4s are the principal security of the reorganization financial plan.

Overdue Interest Paid.

Overdue interest paid was as follows: $147,900 on Union Depot bonds, accumulating since October, 1923; $294,800 on Lindell bonds; $246,000 on Cass bonds; $1,223,750 on Transit bonds; $400,000 on St. Louis & Suburban consolidated bonds, and $675,000 on St. Louis & Suburban general bonds.

Claims for fees and salaries totaling more than $140,000 were filed by officers and attorneys for the United Railways Corporation against the receiver yesterday. Former Judge Henry S. Priest asks for $69,750 salary as counsel for the corporation for six years at $9000 a year and for the year 1919 at $18,000 a year.

Other Salary Claims.

A. L. Shapleigh claims $30,937.50 salary as president of the corporation for four years at $7500 a year and Richard McCulloch $19,687.50 as president at $7500 a year for two years, seven and a half months, including also $4800 for acting as head of subsidiaries since 1922. Albert D. Nortoni asks for $15,000 as counsel fees for appearing in defense of the John W. Seaman receivership suit.

Hearing on the claims has been set by Ferd L. Williams, special master in the receivership, for next Monday in the office of the receiver, Rolla Wells. Judge Priest and the others are claiming their fees as preferential claims as they were "in aid of the preservation of the estate." Prior similar claims were opposed by attorneys for the receiver, and were not allowed. Whether the reorganization committee and the receiver will oppose the claims at this time has not been indicated.

Another claim filed yesterday was that of Mrs. Mary E. Chenier, for $3671.75 plus 6 per cent interest for fees as court reporter. Mrs. Chenier was employed by attorneys for the company to make a transcript of the record of the hearings that preceded the receivership.

SYMPHONY'S COLLEGE TOUR

Concerts to Be Sponsored by Student Bodies.

A special college tour has been arranged for next week by the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra as a supplement to its annual spring festival tour. Concerts will be given only in college towns, and in each place the concert will be directly sponsored by the student body of the college, except in Marshall, where the performance will be under the auspices of the Woman's Club. This is the first time such a tour has been planned.

The first performance will be given Tuesday evening at Missouri Valley College in Marshall. The remainder of the week's schedule is as follows: Wednesday, Wentworth Military Academy at Lexington; Thursday, State Teachers' College at Warrensburg; Friday, Central and Howard-Payne Colleges at Fayette, and Saturday, University of Missouri at Columbia.

ARMY BOXER KILLED BY FALL

Capt. H. L. Morrow, 28, of Texas, Had Served Oversees.

By the Associated Press.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 2.—A slip of one foot during a boxing match cost the life of Capt. Horace L. Morrow, 28 years old, overseas veteran of the World War, at Waelder, near here, Wednesday night.

Morrow, who was commander of Company L, 141st Infantry, Texas National Guard, was boxing with a comrade at the conclusion of drill in the armory. When his foot slipped, Morrow fell, striking his head on the concrete floor. He died instantly.

CAN'T DRIVE CAR FOR 60 DAYS

If He Does, Charles T. Prothero Must Pay $250 Fine.

A $250 fine of Charles T. Prothero of East St. Louis for driving when intoxicated was stayed on probation today until Oct. 1, with the condition that Prothero abstain from driving his automobile for 60 days.

Judge Beck warned Prothero that he might be required to pay a part of the fine at the end of the probation. Prothero was arrested March 19 after a chase on North Broadway in which a police sergeant and patrolman in a police automobile fired two shots at the machine in which he was driving with a friend.

Why Blatz Malt Syrup is Best

When purchasing malt syrup, the name "Blatz" protects you; because since 1851, it has been a public guarantee for malt products of unsurpassed quality. This is very important, because the demand for Blatz Bohemian Malt Syrup has resulted in many inferior brands being placed on the market.

Such brands are adulterated with glucose or molasses which cost the manufacturers much less. They look practically the same as an all-malt product, but the difference is apparent when you try to use them.

Blatz Bohemian Malt Syrup is not only made entirely of barley, but of barley which is highest in food and malting value — the No. 1 grade. Other brands may be advertised as all-malt products and yet have little malt value because they are made from small, inferior kernels—the No. 3 grade.

Blatz is not a "local malt", made and sold in one town, it is the standard brand all over the United States. It is purer, richer, thicker and better in every way. Our exclusive formula cannot be successfully imitated.

A brand is made to suit every taste and purpose. In spite of the cost to us, world famed imported Bohemian Saazer Hops are used in Blatz Bohemian Malt Syrup, Hop Flavored. Every can of "Blatz" is pasteurized and sealed in the most sanitary way. No expense is spared to make "Blatz" the best buy. Ask any user.

Bob Cruickshank With 145 Leads In Golf Tourney

Hutchison and Yates Two Strokes Behind in North and South Open.

PINEHURST, N. C., April 2.—Bobby Cruickshank, the professional whose eleventh-hour failures are almost as famous in golf as Walter Hagen's victories, this morning leads the field in the North and South Open Championship, with 145 for the first half of the 72-hole medal play.

Two strokes behind were Jock Hutchison of Chicago and Arthur Yates of Rochester, N. Y., who holds the North and South amateur title. The first 10 included MacDonald Smith, Tommy Armour, Hagen, Bill Mehlhorn, John Golden, August Nordone and Tom Harmor.

Archie Compston, the English professional, finished his first 36 with 153, while Leo Diegel, Jim Barnes and Johnny Farrell, other well-known professions, were well down in the list.

Yankee Recruit Hits Homer With Bases Full in Game With Dodgers—Pitcher Grimes Is Banished by Umpire.

Rights, liberties and personal freedom of big league baseball players are limited even in exhibition games.

And Pitcher Grimes of the Brooklyn Dodgers, has discovered that questioning an umpire's decision is barred in Nashville, Tenn. He was ousted from the park for such an offense there yesterday in a game which his club lost to the New York Yankees.

Banishment of Grimes was not the feature of the battle, however, Lazerri, Yankee recruit, winning the plaudits of the customers by smacking a homer with the bases full to guarantee victory.

The Philadelphia Athletics displayed a keen batting eye in their defeat of the Rochester Internationals at Waycross, Ga., Walberg and Simmons each connected for a circuit drive in the first frame, Walberg's coming with three runners on and Simmons with two on base. Wambsganss made a third four-bagger for the Athletics in the second inning.

In their contest with Toledo at Jackson, Tenn., the New York Giants showed the championship brand of ball which some dopesters believe will land them a pennant this season. Southworth made a costly bobble, however, misjudging a fly and allowing the Toledo team to score two runs.

Braves Win Another.

Boston Braves, all jubilant and high spirited over their season's record, closed their Florida training period by beating Providence. The Cleveland Indians beat the Toronto club at Atlanta and now head for New Orleans for three games and several days of practice on "inside baseball." The Indians are in fine trim for the start of the season.

Yesterday was just another hard luck day for the Boston Red Sox who were trimmed by Birmingham on the Birmingham lot.

Champions of the world, the Pittsburg Pirates and runnerup world champions, the Washington Senators, are homeward bound. The Pirates will work out indoors at Kansas City today, McKechnie fearing staleness because of four idle days. The games with the Kansas City outfit were canceled, due to weather conditions. Manager Harris and his Senators arrived in Quitman, Ga., today for the first of their barnstorming games. Columbus will provide the opposition.

The Cincinnati Reds, Chicago White Sox and Detroit Tigers have chalked up another day of practice. The Sox were given a double dose of work at Shreveport. Cobb sent his Detroiters through a drill and then led them to the annual knife and fork contest arranged annually for the team by the Augusta, Ga., Kiwanians.

Satisfied with their team's progress and predicting a brilliant future, President Herrmann and Captain Roush will leave the Reds after today's interclub game at Melbourne, to spend Easter at their homes. Roush will rejoin the club at Louisville next week to be in the lineup for the home-coming game against the Indians.

The Philadelphia Nationals are rejoicing. The Phillies are home.

Chicago's Cubs have missed only two days practice this spring and one was yesterday when rain prevented a game with the Los Angeles club. They are scheduled to play the Hollywood Stars today, the Angels Saturday, and the Stars again Sunday.

Montreal Senators Win.

MONTREAL, April 2.—One more victory over the Victoria Cougars will give the Montreal Maroons, champions of the east, the world's professional hockey title. Montreal, by 3 to 0, scored its second victory last night over the Cougars, who won the title in the Pacific Coast League. The game was played under western rules, which permit three zones of forward passing. The next game will be played here tomorrow night.

SCHAEFER BREAKS 18.1 CUE RECORD

Challenger Gets High Run of 241—Wins Both Blocks and Now Leads Hoppe 330 Points in Title Match.

By Leased Wire From New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 2.—With only four more blocks to go, Jake Schaefer went into what looked like a commanding lead yesterday in his 3600-point match with the champion, Willie Hoppe, for the world's 18.1 balkline billiard crown. Schaefer not only won both of yesterday's blocks but established a new world's record run of 241.

In the afternoon, Jake outplayed Hoppe to the tune of 384 to 34, compiling an average of 54 6-7, while the champion averaged only 4 6-7.

In the evening, Schaefer triumphed again by a count of 300 to 236, with an average of 30 flat. Hoppe's average for this block was 26 2-9. This made the totals for the match 2400 for Schaefer to 2070 for Hoppe, a lead of 330 points for the challenger.

The grand averages so far are 32 for Schaefer, and 27 72-74 for Hoppe.

Schaefer Sets New Record.

When Schaefer went to the table for his first turn yesterday afternoon he trailed by 65 buttons. He overcame this handicap quickly and completed his block in seven innings with an unfinished run of 219. In the evening he added 22 markers to this count for his collection of 241.

The summary—Afternoon:

Hoppe: 0, 2, 2, 15, 3, 12, 0—34—1834. Average for block, 4 6-7.

Schaefer—7, 2, 81, 27, 47, 1, 219 (unfinished)—384—2100. Average for block 54 6-7.

Evening game—

Schaefer: 22, 1, 0, 1, 43, 45, 35, 41, 34, 78 (unfinished)—300—2400. Average for block, 30. Grand average, 32.

Hoppe: 4, 4, 0, 0, 57, 0, 109, 59, 3—236—2070. Average for block, 26 2-9. Grand average, 27 72-74.

SCHANG AND DIXON TO DIVIDE CATCHING DUTIES, SISLER SAYS

BROWNS IN FINAL DRILL IN FLORIDA

Team Starts Barnstorming Trip North and Will Play Hank Gowdy's Columbus Senators Tomorrow.

TARPON SPRINGS, Fla., April 2.—Spring training for the Browns at the Tarpon Springs camp came to a close today with a draw decision between two contestants. While the trunks and other baseball luggage were hauled to the station for the journey to Northern parts, Manager George Sisler announced he was unable to find an advantage of as much as an inch in the catching race between Leo Dixon and Wallie Schang. It is Sisler's intention to refer to Leo and Wallie as his "first string catchers."

On some clubs but one catcher holds such distinction. He is the big ace with the mask, works with the mitt in at least 100 games, while the assistants, the second stringers, sit around, get most of their employment in the bullpen and operate behind the plate only occasionally. There is Ray Schalk, who caught 151 games for the Chicago White Sox in 1920, while Muddy Ruel was paired with a pitcher in 149 games for the Senators when they won their first pennant in 1924.

With Dixon and Schang, however, it is to be difficult for the Browns this season. And Sisler's decision of calling their catching bout a dead heat proves that he has seen what has gone on during this training trip.

Experience and Youth.

Schang is well supplied with experience and he has earned his place through conscientious training with the squad. The first day he was in uniform he hopped around like a frisky juvenile. When he was flattened by a sailing bat from Marty McManus he returned to action 25 hours ahead of orders from the attending physician.

Schang was in camp to convince Sisler that he was not ready to walk down the road to the old man's home. Getting his second wind, he was called to his home in New York owing to the illness of his mother. Rejoining the team, Schang again jumped into the job like a hustling colt.

Schang has a winning personality on the ball field. He peps up young and old pitchers and it is not forgotten that he knows what has been going on in pitching and batting around the plate for more than a dozen seasons.

Each has Strong Points.

Schang's fine points are his experience and his hitting. He scores here competing with Dixon, but Leo is the youthful, brilliant catcher whose merit marks stand out in the open. Such an arm cannot remain on the bench and it will divide the catching burden throughout the season with Schang.

Sisler, in talking about the catching arrangement, said that Dixon would be the battery partner in all games with Milton Gaston, who has a fork ball that is almost as difficult to hold as Dazzy Vance's assortment.

No collection of big leaguers ever staged a drill with more fire and enthusiasm than did the Browns on closing day, yesterday. They gathered one hour earlier than usual, starting at 11 a. m. and when Jimmy Austin called quits at 2:30 aching muscles moved to the clubhouse for the final rubdown and shower at Tarpon Springs.

Ready Now, or Never.

Batters swung at the pitchers until they became groggy and called for time out and the pitchers used all of their hooks and benders while the outfielders tramped around for 45 minutes catching flies, and as a finishing touch to the day the infielders gobbled in everything Jimmy Austin sent in their direction.

"If we are not ready now we never will be," shouted Gene Robertson as the infielders withdrew from the scene of action.

Tarpon Springs made it the end of a perfect session by giving a steaming hot day for the work.

Brittle Knees Likely to Prove Giants' Handicap, Foster Says

Misplaced Pebble or Depression in the Ground Is Likely to Throw an Infielder for 10-Yard Loss—McGraw Satisfied With Hurling.

By John B. Foster.

(Copyright, 1926.)

SARASOTA, Fla., April 2.—The New York Giants started North in better order than they did last year. Seemingly their prospects are better. But there is one ghost of the past that hangs over the team, and that is its probable physical endurance.

One year ago, Manager John J. McGraw said the future of the Giants rested upon the kind of pitching he received and then the pitching turned so bad that he became ill and it was some time before he was in proper physical trim to resume his duties on the bench. This year McGraw is satisfied with his pitching.

There is a menace lurking around the team, however, despite the pitching and that is the possibility that some of the players may break down or be injured. The Giants are a brittle ball club. There is no getting away from it. They carry their knees well in the spring if they do not injure them while training, and then as the days go by, they are often unfortunate enough to have things happen to their joints. Any little misplaced pebble or depression in the ground is likely to throw a Giant knee for a loss of 10 yards and not even the good work of pitchers can overcome that.

Same Old Infield.

If you go back far enough you will find where this team has been jolted hard time and again because of the accidents to ball players. One year the injured list was so long that the team did not get out of spring training with half an outfit.

The infield is to go on with Kelly, Frisch, Jackson and Groh.

The boys on that infield have given about all of their best to the national game. There isn't a chance that they can be faster than they have been in the past. It is a dependable infield and a very dependable one as long as it stands up. The reserve strength of the team is good because there are Lindstrom and Farrell.

473,000 Persons Saw Hockey Tilts

235,500 Witnessed Clashes Between College and Amateur Teams in New York.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 2.—That the game of hockey enjoyed tremendous success during its first season on a really big scale in this city is shown by the fact that a total of about 473,000 persons witnessed the games in Madison Square Garden during the campaign which closed recently. About 237,500 persons watched the New York professional sextet in action against the various other teams in the National Hockey League. The other 235,500 persons attended the various college and amateur games.

A total of 62 hockey games were played in the Garden during the season. Twenty-one of these were professional games, 24 were played by teams of the Eastern Amateur League, 13 were college games, two were schoolboy contests and there were two other games between amateur club teams and college sextets. About 110,000 persons saw the teams of the amateur league in action, while approximately 125,000 were on hand for the games in which the college teams and the schoolboy sextets took part.

The largest crowds of the season, of course, were attracted by the professional teams, and in two or three instances these contests taxed the capacity of the Garden. The largest crowd of the season, which numbered 17,319, according to officials of the New York Hockey Club, attended the first game of the season between the New York six and the league-leading Ottawa Senators.

The second largest crowd attended the formal opening of the Garden. This crowd numbered 17,231.

1200 PLAYERS IN SAN ANTONIO LOOP

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 2.—Organized amateur baseball in San Antonio is starting its fifth season under a commission system patterned after that of professional baseball and is stronger than ever. For the first time it has no semipro competition.

Ralph Durkee, who is to the sport here what K. M. Landis is to professional ball, said that the commission would handle 1200 players this year, compared with 800 last season. These ball tossers are enrolled on some 56 teams in eight leagues.

Mrs. Smith Wins Two Pin Prizes

Wins All-Events and Shares Two-Woman Trophy in City Tourney.

Mrs. W. R. Smith won the all-events prize and shared the two-woman championship with Miss Mae Moredock in the women's city scratch bowling tournament which was concluded yesterday at the Schaefer alleys.

Miss Charlotte Schmitt won the individual trophy.

Miss Moredock and Mrs. Smith scored 568 to take the two-woman title. Mrs. Smith's 1658 won the all-events.

The Fisher Body team made a strong bid for the St. Louis Bowling Association's high score gold medals this week in the course of the Schaefer-Delmar League play when it scored 1233. Thirty-nine strikes were scored. The members of the team and their scores follow: Hank Behnen, 269; Al Hoffman, 258; Lee Bolin, 268; Koy Karls, 215, and Walter Kuhnert, 223.

Entries for the annual handicap tournament which opens at the Washington alleys April 9 include 316 five-man teams, 784 two-man teams and 1476 individuals. The event will run six weeks, closing May 20.

Yale Retains Title.

NEW YORK, April 2.—Yale University retained its epee championship in the intercollegiate fencing tournament which started here yesterday, with 13 points. Yale won three bouts, tied two and lost none. Army placed second in the epee category, with Hamilton, Navy, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Pennsylvania following in order.

The individual title went to Bennett of the Navy, who won eight bouts and lost two. Brown and Snow of Yale and Britten of the Army tied for second place with 11 points each.

Bricklayers to Use Veterans in Miller Contest

Only Two Players Added to Roster Since Team Last Played Here.

The Bricklayer Soccer Club of Chicago will show a veteran line-up in its exhibition game with the Ben Millers, champions of the St. Louis League and Western U. S. F. A. champions, at High School Field, Sunday afternoon.

According to the roster sent to local officials by the Bricklayer management, but two players have been added since the eleven last appeared in this city. The new additions are J. Ferguson, left fullback, and J. McIntyre, left halfback. These two players have replaced the Bromley brothers.

The team that will face the Ben Millers will line up as follows: A. Rudin, goal; G. Cant and J. Ferguson, fullbacks; T. Hill, J. Corbett and J. McIntyre, halfbacks; H. Keeman, D. Coutts, J. Rees, C. Cuthbert and H. Hill, forwards.

It was announced that the White Squadrons of the Sherman Park Division and the Tripps of Carondelet Park of the Municipal Association will play in a preliminary game, starting at 2 o'clock.

Ribby Murphy has been selected to referee the Ben Miller-Bricklayer game.

According to the Bricklayer management, the eleven this season has twice defeated the Canadian Club, beaten 2 to 0, by the Millers in the Western final last Sunday, and once held the Canadians to a tie.

HELFFRICH TO CONTINUE RACING ACTIVITIES

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 2.—Alan Helffrich, America's premier half-miler, who expected to hang up his track shoes at the conclusion of the current indoor season, has experienced a change of heart toward footracing and will continue his activities on the track for another year at least.

The former Penn State star, who has raced this winter under the handicap of having to do his training on an outdoor board track, in below zero temperature at Orono, Me., and his racing indoors on the metropolitan tracks, has about decided to stick around for 12 months more and his friends hope that this means that Alan will delay his retirement still further to make his third effort to qualify for Olympic honors at Amsterdam in 1928.

WISCONSIN-BILLIKEN GAME IS POSTPONED

The baseball game with University of Wisconsin, which was scheduled for tomorrow afternoon, has been postponed until April 12, St. Louis University officials announced today. Wet grounds and cold weather were given as the reasons.

Iowa, whose game here yesterday was postponed, will open the season here next Thursday at St. Louis U. field.

Test Your Heart Each Spring Before You Start Missing Putts

CHICAGO, April 2.

WARNING against golf suicide was given today to middle aged players by Dr. M. J. Seifert of the Gorgas Memorial Institute.

"Golf suicide is death on the golf course, from heart disease which was entirely unsuspected by the victim," Dr. Seifert explained. "Such deaths would be preventable in most cases if every golfer of 50 would precede his playing season by a thorough physical examination. Otherwise golfers of middle age are going to keep dropping off from a combination of unaccustomed physical exercise and excitement."

By the time a man reaches 50, sometimes before, the doctor said, his heart has grown tired.

"One must first find out how good his heart is, how much it will reasonably stand, and treat it accordingly," was Dr. Seifert's advice.

JIMMY SMITH INVITED TO MAKE STOCKHOLM TRIP WITH BOWLERS

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 3.—A team of seven American bowlers to represent the United States in competition for the New York Bowling Alley Association's international trophy in matches June 2, 3 and 5, will sail for Stockholm, Sweden, May 20. The trophy was won by a Swedish team three years ago in the first international tournament. Jimmy Smith of Milwaukee has been invited to join the team, and acceptances have been received from Capt. George F. Jarrett, Jersey City; Charles Trucks, Philadelphia, and Mort Lindsey of Stamford, Conn. The bowling associations of Chicago, Cleveland and Buffalo each will select one other member to complete the team.

Service Teams Entered.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—Service events will be an important feature of the sorts program of the Sesquicentennial International Exposition here June 1-Dec. 1. Army, Navy and Marine championships will be held in baseball, tennis, swimming, track, boxing, wrestling and golf. Men from all stations will come for the championships.

WATER BASKETBALL GAME TO BE PLAYED AT WASHINGTON U. MEET

Exhibition water basketball is carded for the Washington U. interscholastic tank meet tomorrow night in Wilson pool. The two teams, which will compete as a finale to the program, are composed of a squad of Washington alumni and a squad of alumni from other valley universities. Both teams have been working out at the Missouri Athletic Association.

The Washington alumni are R. S. Lyon, W. G. Mellow, F. W. Pothoff, E. R. Thomas, L. R. Woods and R. Woods and the opposing squad includes T. Hawkins, C. G. Heath, H. Handlan, W. G. Howell M. B. Leland, C. H. Krause and E. G. Peugnet. Carl Bauer, Washington swimming coach, will referee the game.

Jerry Specht, former holder of the Missouri valley breast stroke record, will offer a specialty in a clown diving act. Specht will be assisted by John Jonas, Bruin diver. Two former Olympic swimmers, Henry C. Grote and Gus Goessling, will officiate as judges, with Loren Murchison, who started events in last Saturday's interscholastic track meet, again in the role of starter.

WELTERWEIGHT BOXERS ARE FROM ALL NATIONS

NEW YORK, April 2.—With Mickey Walker, an Irishman, heading the list, the welterweight division is a veritable League of Nations these days. Here are the five leading contenders for the title: Pete Latzo, Polish; Jack Zivic, Croatian; George Ward, Irish; Willie Harmon, Jewish, and Joe Dundee, Italian.

Tommy Milligan, the Irish Scot, is not included, for the reason that he has renounced his European title, claiming that he no longer can make the welterweight limit. Of the many other 147-pounders chasing after a match with Walker, Al Mello is Portuguese, Sailor Friedman, Georgie Levine and Meyer Cohen are Jewish; Bermondsey Billy Wells is English, Paul Doyle is Italian, Jimmy Jones is Welsh, Jack McVey is a Negro, Tommy Freeman is Irish-Scotch, Pinkey Mitchell is Irish and Eddie Burnbrook is German.

GLO-CO
LIQUID HAIR DRESSING

Success is indicated by a man's grooming and clothes. You're sure of well-groomed hair when you use Glo-Co Hair Dressing. Keeps the hair in place all day.

And without that artificial look men dislike. Glo-Co Hair Dressing is a liquid—not a sticky, greasy paste or cream. It's great for the scalp too. Is what your doctor would recommend. Stimulates the roots of the hair and helps keep dandruff away.

Watch out for baldness if you're troubled with dandruff. Take a Glo-Co treatment each week. Apply Glo-Co Hair Dressing to the scalp to soften the scurf, then wash with Glo-Co Shampoo. The cleansing, antiseptic lather frees the scalp from every trace of dandruff and bacteria.

After the shampoo, comb your hair with Glo-Co Hair Dressing to keep it in place.

Sold at drug and department stores and barber shops. If your dealer cannot supply Glo-Co Hair Dressing or Shampoo, a full-sized bottle of either will be sent for 50c. Glo-Co Company, Inc., 6511 McKinley Ave., Los Angeles, California.

RICKARD ANNOUNCES TITLE FIGHT AND $1,000,000 STADIUM PLANS

BERLENBACH AND DELANEY OPEN SEASON

First of Series of Outdoor Matches Will Be Held June 10—Leonard-Walker and Dempsey-Tunney Bouts Considered.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 2.—Tex Rickard seems likely to dominate all professional sport in the metropolis outside of golf and baseball.

His latest announcements—all in one day—describe a $1,000,000 stadium in the Metropolitan area in 1927, the reopening of Boyle's Thirty Acres in Jersey City to boxing, the signing of a Paul Berlenbach-Jack Delaney championship contest and the acquisition of the Yankee Stadium for fights this summer.

As for prospects under his promotion, Jack Dempsey may fight Gene Tunney this summer; Benny Leonard may fight Mickey Walker; Luis Firpo, Georges Carpentier—in fact, all the colorful ring battlers of the world may be used.

Stadium to Seat 120,000.

In 1927, under present plans, Rickard will control the privileges of Madison Square Garden, Boyle's Thirty Acres, the proposed new structure to seat 120,000, and probably the fight privileges of one of the big league baseball parks. During the 1926 outdoor season he will have almost every leading heavyweight boxer under his hand.

That new arena, probably situated in Long Island City, will be available for football, hockey, boxing, circuses, rodeos and possibly baseball.

Rickard pointed out that with Boyle's Thirty Acres at his disposal he will be able to shift a Tunney-Dempsey match to Jersey if present objections to it here by the New York State Athletic Commission are not removed.

Those objections hinge around the commission's insistence that Harry Wills, Negro challenger, be given first call on a title match. They may be removed, however, it was indicated today, by the commission deciding that Wills already has violated the rules by entering into his agreement with Dempsey and Floyd Fitzsimmons, Michigan City (Ind.) promoter, at a time when Dempsey was on this State's ineligible list.

Wills Still a Factor.

Wills, however, in Rickard's opinion, is not yet out of the heavyweight picture altogether, although the Negroe's chances of meeting Dempsey have diminished.

If a Dempsey match is found impossible otherwise, Rickard indicated he would be willing to stage an elimination test between Wills and Tunney, the winner to face the champion.

Last Night's Fights.

By the Associated Press.

Boston—Jack Sharkey, Boston, New England heavyweight champion, defeated King Solomon, Panama (10).

Pasadena, Cal.—Santiago Zorilla, Panama, defeated Joe Pimenthal, Los Angeles (10).

St. Joseph, Mo.—Glen Lage of Marshalltown, Ia., gave M[illegible]e Rozgall of Omaha, Neb., a 10-round beating. Bobby O'Shea of St. Paul won a decision over Jimmy Ryan of Des Moines (10).

Six Awarded Letters.

Athletic Director Kaw of Principia Academy has selected six men to receive the basketball numerals this year. The men chosen for the honor are Capt. Preston and Robert Richardson, forwards; William Green, Joe Deal, Graydon Ellis, guards, and Don Laughlin, center. During the season the academy competed in 15 contests, won 11 and lost four games. The quintet rolled up 376 points to 276 scored by the opposing teams. Central High was the only five to win two games from Principia. The other two games lost were to Beaumont and Soldan.

WRAY'S COLUMN

Junking John L.'s Belt.

SOME 25 years or so ago, over the fly-specked mirror of a Market street bar, was draped the remnants of a solid gold belt, from which some 300 or more original diamond settings had been picked out—and hocked or sold.

Sprawled out in a chair within easy view of the belt was to be found daily the remains of what had once been a great athlete, become gross and fat and mostly bleary-eyed—the proprietor of the bar and one of its best customers.

If he noted the belt he must have been daily jolted into the remembrance that this trophy had been bestowed by the people of Boston in recognition of the most popular ring hero of all time—John L. Sullivan. The man in the arm chair was all that remained of John L.

As with the belt, all the sparkle and brilliancy of the great fighter had gone.

• • •

Spirit Has Declined.

YESTERDAY the United States mint at Philadelphia wiped out the remnants of that belt by melting down the gold and returning some $800 in currency to the junk dealer who had sent this classic emblem for reduction into coin.

One might say, and not be far astray, that the old spirit of the ring passed with John L.'s belt. Typical of the ring aims and objectives of today was the minting of the trophy—the desire to convert glory into gold.

The day of the fight belt is over. Tex Rickard has tried in vain to revive the sentiment. The attitude of the fighter has changed.

He doesn't want belts. To him they are what they were to the Baltimore man who sent John L.'s historic trophy to the mint-junk.

In ancient days pride of craft meant something to the fighter. He fought first because he wanted to be the best man in the world. The belt was the visible testimony of his fitness for the honor.

Now he takes the Cash—the credit and the glory he lets go. Belts to him would be a matter of the number of diamonds set into it or the amount of gold that might be melted down.

There is always the danger that the boxing game itself, if not safeguarded as to its earnestness, will go the way of the championship belt and be junked.

• • •

Goodby, Harry.

HARRY WILLS is doing a fadeout from the world's championship picture and evidence is found in the news columns of the fact that he is not wanted as a challenger. Excuses are being put into the mouths of the commissioners to show that Wills, not Dempsey, violated the commissioners' rules and that, therefore, Tunney is now the logical man to fight for the title.

Politics is said to be back of the matter.

The situation is very unfair to Wills, who has waited over four years for Dempsey to fulfill his promise to fight him. Promoters fear to arouse antagonism to the game by a mixed race championship. Politicians will not lend countenance to the event for fear of having to shoulder responsibility at the polls for any backfire that might result.

The public is not so much the loser. Wills is old, his hands are brittle or under suspicion; his courage always has been doubted, and his style of fighting promised to make a "ho-hum" evening of it because of his hugging and foul fighting.

None the less he has been deceived and cajoled, and disappointed. As a solace he can point to about $150,000 in big money that has been his share of exploitation and fights with Firpo, Madden, Floyd Johnson and other easy marks.

• • •

Time for Action.

HIGH TIME for something more than words out of Jack Dempsey. Since Dempsey first promised Harry Wills a fight for the title—

Four world's baseball championships have been decided.

At least 20 changes in ring championships have been recorded.

Holders of titles in every other ring class have fought innumerable times.

Boxing has died and been resurrected in St. Louis.

The State of Florida has been encircled by hard roads and subdivisions.

About 25 new race tracks have been built and operated in the United States.

California has been restored to the boxing map after a long period of taboo.

In short, the world has sped along rapidly on its way, while Dempsey has stood still, or sidestepped. Time for action.

A champion who can fight and won't ought to be made to fight or get out.

A $750,000 personal guarantee for Dempsey's bit, for which he is said to be waiting, is about as probable as that all the swamp land in Florida will be retailed for $1000 a foot front.

Bachelors Win Girls' Cage Title

Defeat Samelsons, 9 to 8, in Final Contest of Championship Series.

The Bachelor Club defeated the Samelsons Wednesday night at Mullanphy gymnasium and won the intermediate title of the Girls' Municipal Basketball League. The score was 9 to 8.

All the girls' league pennants have been awarded now, the Curlees having won the senior title and Rosati Kain Alumnae the junior. Last night's contest was the final of a three-game championship series.

A foul throw by Left Guard O'Connell in the last few minutes of play gave the Bachelor Club its one-point victory last night. The score:

Copulos Beats Maupome.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

DETROIT, April 2.—Gus Copulos yesterday twice defeated Pierre Maupome here in their national three-cushion billiard league play. Copulos won the first game, 50 to 48, in 59 innings and won in the evening 50 to 47, in 57 innings. Copulos had a high run of six and Maupome made a string of seven.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, April 2.—Allen Hall beat Otto Reiselt two games here yesterday. Hall took the afternoon contest 50 to 20 in 36 innings and won in the evening 50 to 40 in 58 innings. Hall made a high run of eight and Reiselt of six.

ILLINOIS FISHERMEN TO RECEIVE LARGER RETURNS FROM LICENSES

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 3.—Fishermen in Illinois will receive larger returns from their fishing license in 1926 than ever before. Reports of the Department of Conservation for 1925 and the first quarter of 1926 show tremendous increases in activities over previous years.

The establishment and successful operation of six large hatcheries in different sections of the state mean not only more fish for Illinois streams and lakes, but a greatly reduced distribution cost. W. J. Stratton, director of the department, has so located these hatcheries that deliveries can be made by trucks to almost all points by hard road. This leaves the fish car free to distribute fish that are rescued from backwaters of the Illinois and Mississippi rivers, where the roads are often impassable. The records also show that six crews of four to 10 men each were kept busy at rescue work from early spring until ice covered the water last winter. Work will be started again as soon as the rivers are low enough to permit successful operation.

St. Louis Bowlers Get 1231 Total In A.B.C. Event

Nord and Kaelin Prove Stars—Buffalo Men in All-Events Money.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

TOLEDO, O., April 2.—Pin topplers competing in the doubles and singles events today at the A. B. C. tourney, although failing to turn in scores of sufficient magnitude to win them a place among the 10 leaders, turned in some good totals.

C. Nord and K. Kaelin led the St. Louis bowlers with a nice total of 1231, with games of 401, 386 and 444, which total should win them a fair-size prize check. L. Heibel led in the singles assault and finished with a 583 count.

Several upsets occurred among the leaders in the all-events, when F. Boholz of Buffalo took possession of fifth place with a nine-game count of 1919, while his teammate, Clarence "Lefty" Long, last year's A. B. C. all-events champion was not far behind with a score of 1901, for eighth place.

Klug Gets 722 Ttotal.

Only one outstanding score came in the minor events, when Max Klug, a member of the Toledo Page Dairy five, rolled games of 227, 257 and 238 for a 722, which gave him second place in the individual standings, nine pins below Eddie Votel of Braddock, Pa., who has held the top spot two weeks.

J. Porto a member of the Algonquins of New Haven, Conn., rolled 672. P. Spinella of the Orpheum Club of Brooklyn collected 670. Only four other scores better than 630 were registered in the individuals. They follow: J. Chapaton, Detroit, 639; W. Juszack, Toledo, 637; W. Mattison, Toledo, and D. Bloodgood, Schenectady, N. Y.

The only score in the 1200 class during the entire day was the 1225 of Klug and Elwer of Toledo.

SKI CHAMPION IS DEFEATED BY GIRL

WARSAW, April 3. — Poland is proud of holding the women's world ski championship. Mrs. Ela Zienkiewicz has been victorious in all international ski competitions held in the Pyrenees, Alps and her native Polish Tatras. Mrs. Zienkiewicz has been beaten, however, and beaten in her own native Tatras, by a ski phenomenon, a 14-year-old girl, Miss Pawlak. Miss Pawlak will represent Poland at the first international ski competitions held this year.

Sharkey to Box Godfrey.

Salem Is Favored In Basket Event

South Dakota Five Eliminated Westport of Kansas City Yesterday.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, April 2.—Five boys of Salem, S. D., any one of whom the town Marshal would send home if he caught them out after the curfew had rung, constitute the dark horse of the University of Chicago's National High School Basketball tournament.

Today they are one of the eight surviving teams in the invitational meet whose winner is accorded the interscholastic basketball supremacy of the nation. Their performance last night in eliminating the touted West Port High team of Kansas City, Mo., made them a tournament favorite. Salem plotted today the conquering of Breckenridge High of San Antonio, Tex., in this evening's game, which would put the Dakotans into the semifinals.

The tournament has advanced to the fourth brackets. Winners of games today will go into the semifinals tomorrow afternoon.

Pairings for today's championship play follow:

4 p. m.—Fitchburg, Mass., vs. Nanticoke, Penn.

7 p. m.—Gaylord, Minn., vs. Fargo, N. D.

8 p. m.—San Antonio vs. Salem, S. D.

9 p. m.—Newton, Kan., vs. Pueblo, Colo.

NEW ZEALAND HEAVY WILL MEET GODFREY

Jack Smith Is Sought by Braves

Boston Offers Padgett and Catcher to Cardinals for Outfielder.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., April 2.—The Boston Braves have offered to trade Ernie Padgett and a catcher to the St. Louis Cardinals for Jack Smith, outfielder, information received here late yesterday said.

While no word was received from Branch Rickey, vice president of the Cardinals, it was said he was in the market for two such men.

The catcher, it was understood, probably would be Womack, who refused to join the Braves.

Jimmy Welsh probably would be released to another club if the deal goes through, it was said, since Manager Bancroft fears the condition of his knee will prevent effective work.

Washington U. Football Squad Works Indoors

Heavy Line and Fast Backfield Likely to Develop From Pikeway Material.

Spring football practice at Washington University opened with favorable weather conditions Monday but the weather man has forced the squad of more than 40 men to restrict their activities to indoor sessions for the last two days.

The red and green jerseyed squad found no easy going for their initial workout. All of them, uniformed but stockingless, were sent through a preliminary drill consisting of kicking, passing and catching the ball, tackling the dummy, taking out the dummy, falling on the ball and scooping up the sphere with one hand. The coaching staff then divided the squad into three groups.

Under the supervision of Coaches Higgins, White, Davis, Ingamells, Dr. Edmunds and Dr. Simpson, the backs were then drilled on shifting the ball, using the straight arm, pivoting and twisting, cross-stepping, and the backfield shift. Line men found their work laid out on the lines of charging straight ahead, the use of hands, over and under drill, and coming out of the line.

Drilled on New Formations.

Coach Bob Higgins has been giving the squad two new formations each session to drill on. A skull practice for the entire squad on the recent rule changes and special broken-field running for backfield men complete the program.

A tall, beefy line seems destined to grow out of the squad and a fast shifty backfield is practically assured with Capt. Mahan, Al Hayes, Ted Whittler, Curly Campbell, Harold Hall, Mickey McDonough, George Senne, Paul Harding and Oscar Burch competing for regular berths behind the line.

Line prospects offer possibilities of almost 20 six-footers with poundage hitting over the 185 mark. Conspicuous among the recent prospects from last fall's yearling squad were the three Brown brothers, Clyde Collins, Richard Kursz and Thies Lohring.

SECOND GAME OF MUNY SOCCER SERIES SCHEDULED FOR SUNDAY

The second game of the municipal soccer championship series will be played Sunday at Fairground between the Fairmont Democratic Club and the Grand-Kossuth Business Men, finalists. Starting time will be 2:30 o'clock.

The American Zinc squad, East St. Louis municipal titleholders, will meet the Paulian Council eleven, a semifinalist in the local eliminations, in a preliminary, starting at 1 o'clock.

Fairmount Democratic Club is favored to take Sunday's contest and win the title. In winning the first game last Sunday, 4 to 0, the Fairmounts showed plenty of punch and good teamwork.

GENGLER WITHDRAWS FROM TITLE TENPIN MATCH WITH SMITH

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CLEVELAND, April 2. — With Jimmy Smith, America's greatest bowler, leading by 724 pins in the international world championship match, Count Gengler withdrew from the competition. The scores for the first 20 games were, Smith 4257 and Gengler 3533.

Roy Griebel of this city will oppose Smith in the remaining 40 games of the competition.

Mrs. Agnes Higgins of Chicago gained a lead over Mrs. Grace Garwood of this city in the woman's title match.

TILDEN, HANDICAPPED BY WRENCHED KNEE, WINS IN SEMIFINALS

By the Associated Press.

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 2.—Though handicapped by a wrenched knee, William Tilden II, Philadelphia, National champion, defeated Jerry Lang, New York, 2—6, 6—4, 6—3, 7—5, 7—5, in the semi-finals of the South Atlantic tennis tournament today.

9 NET MEETS FOR COUNTRY DAY TEAM

The Country Day School has scheduled nine matches for the tennis season, starting April 16, against Clayton High. Five of the nine engagements will be with Preparatory League teams, as tennis was recently adopted by the conference. Three of last year's regulars are back and Bissell, Finch and Moody are candidates for the remaining two positions.

Schedule:

April 16—Clayton at home.
April 23—Ritenour at home.
April 30—W. U. Freshmen at home.
May 7—St. L. U. High at home.

REPARATION WINNER IN BOWIE FEATURE

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 2.—J. R. Davis' Reparation outclassed the field in the Inaugural Handicap at Bowie yesterday, winning over Lounger and Cudgeller. The seven furlongs were covered in 1:29 1-5, the victory being worth $3480.

Six candidates for the Futurity at Tijuana Sunday went to the post in a five-furlong dash there, and Shasta Bullet defeated Artillery Man and Tondeleyo in 1:00 3-5.

Hot Pepper accounted for the feature at Tampa, with Bolton second and Romp third. The time for the six furlongs was 1:20 3-5.

Orlando's April Fools' Handicap was won by Long Point, followed by Silk Sox and Canola.

Here are plain everyday business reasons for our ability to sell the quality of clothing that you'll find here, at our three low prices!

First of all—Volume Production. We are one of the largest fabric buyers in America. Consequently, we get first choice of the finest fabrics, at prices in keeping with the huge quantities we buy!

And then—Volume Sales! Our overhead is low because our turn-over is great! Through our stores in twenty-two cities we sell millions of dollars worth of men's clothing annually—for we would rather make a small profit on a large number of sales, than a large profit on a few! The number of men who buy Bond Clothes each year would constitute a City larger than Boston! And the more we sell, the less we have to charge!

You needn't spend a fortune to dress as if you had one.

Bond's De Luxe Suits

Made with two pair of trousers and one idea—to compete with Custom tailored quality at less than half of any good custom tailor's price!

The very finest of the fine—and THAT'S saying something.

THERE IS NO Compromise WITH Quality!

WEBER MOTOR CAR CO.

The Weber Motor Car Co. owes its leadership in used car sales to its strict adherence to Weber-Pledged Quality! It is this uniform quality that makes a Weber-Pledged Used Car a better buy than a cheap new car.

The fact that our prices are consistently lowest and our terms are conveniently arranged is only incidental.

Nothing else is just as good, because there is no substitute in Weber-Pledged Quality.

In the Big Sunday POST-DISPATCH

"The Easter Girl"
In Color Roto

The title page of the next Sunday Magazine—"The Easter Girl"—is a pastel by Taft, printed through the courtesy of the Newhouse Galleries. It is an attractive example of printing by the Color Roto process. The Color Roto process of printing is used in St. Louis exclusively by the Post-Dispatch with machinery and presses designed and perfected by this newspaper.

Colonel Bill's Last Fight

Bill Easley, frontiersman, had hoped to found a cattle dynasty in Oklahoma. Vast herds were to roam his thousand acres. His wife and seven children shared in the wealth of the Osage Indians, and all seemed to go well until a son-in-law came into the picture, and then—

The Prince and the Girl

This is the true story of a beautiful young American girl's romance with a royal Persian. The girl's mother is a modern mother. Is it her fault that the Prince fell in love with Gertrude and showered her with high-priced automobiles, jewelry and a $50,000 home?

The Ambitious Farmer Heir

This is the story of an ambitious Iowa farmer who has set himself up as "the legal descendant" of Sir Francis Drake, the famous sea rover. Up around Des Moines, friends have raised something like $100,000 to aid in the cause. What are his chances? Is the Drake estate a myth?

Ogden McClung Adventurer

The lost cities of the Mayas lured this wealthy publisher from the jungles of Central America. A staff writer from the Sunday Post-Dispatch, who interviewed the "millionaire clubman," has written an interesting account of a series of exciting adventures.

Eight Pages of Funny Pictures

Two Comic Sections, every page printed in colors. Jiggs takes a trip to Saptown in "Bringing Up Father." The loss of ballast wrecks the Skipper in "Toonerville Folks." The change of menu in "Mr. and Mrs." "The Man in the Brown Derby" indulges in the pleasures of being lazy. Fun with a bee between "Mutt and Jeff." She started for a plumber, but "Dumb Dora" didn't come back. "Boob McNutt" went to cash a check and landed in jail. Easter eggs and alligator eggs start things with "The Captain and the Kids."

The Boys' and Girls' Magazine

Rhymes of Unreal Times. Another wonderful story of Ol' Peter Rabbit buys a pair of easy shoes. Little Nemo dreams an unusual dream. The Uncanny Beast in Pap Hill's Orchard. Yellow Duck Rhymes. Hidden Pictures, and a Clever Cut-Out.

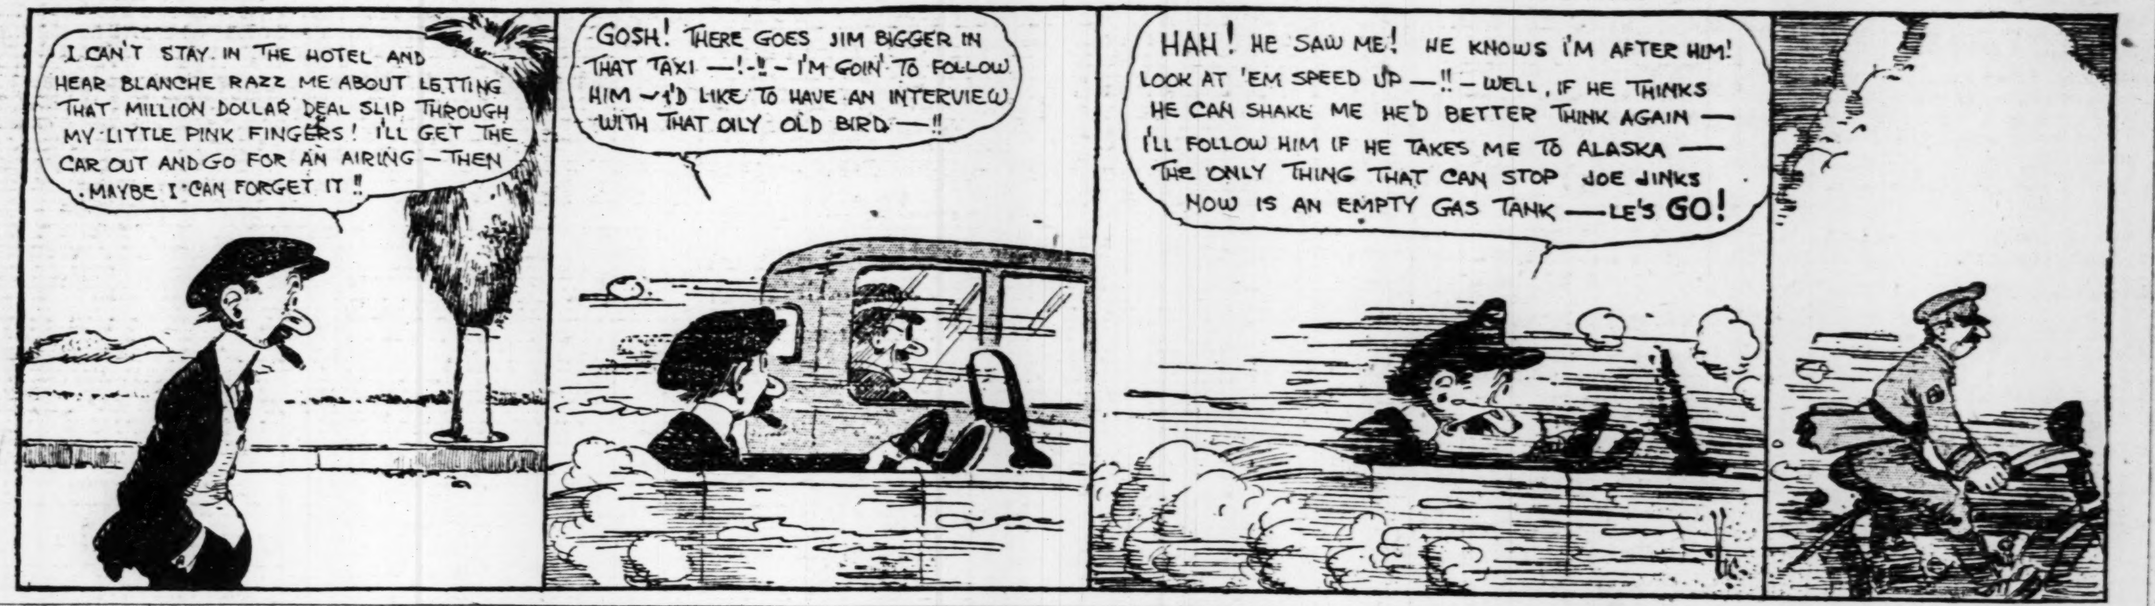
JOE JINKS

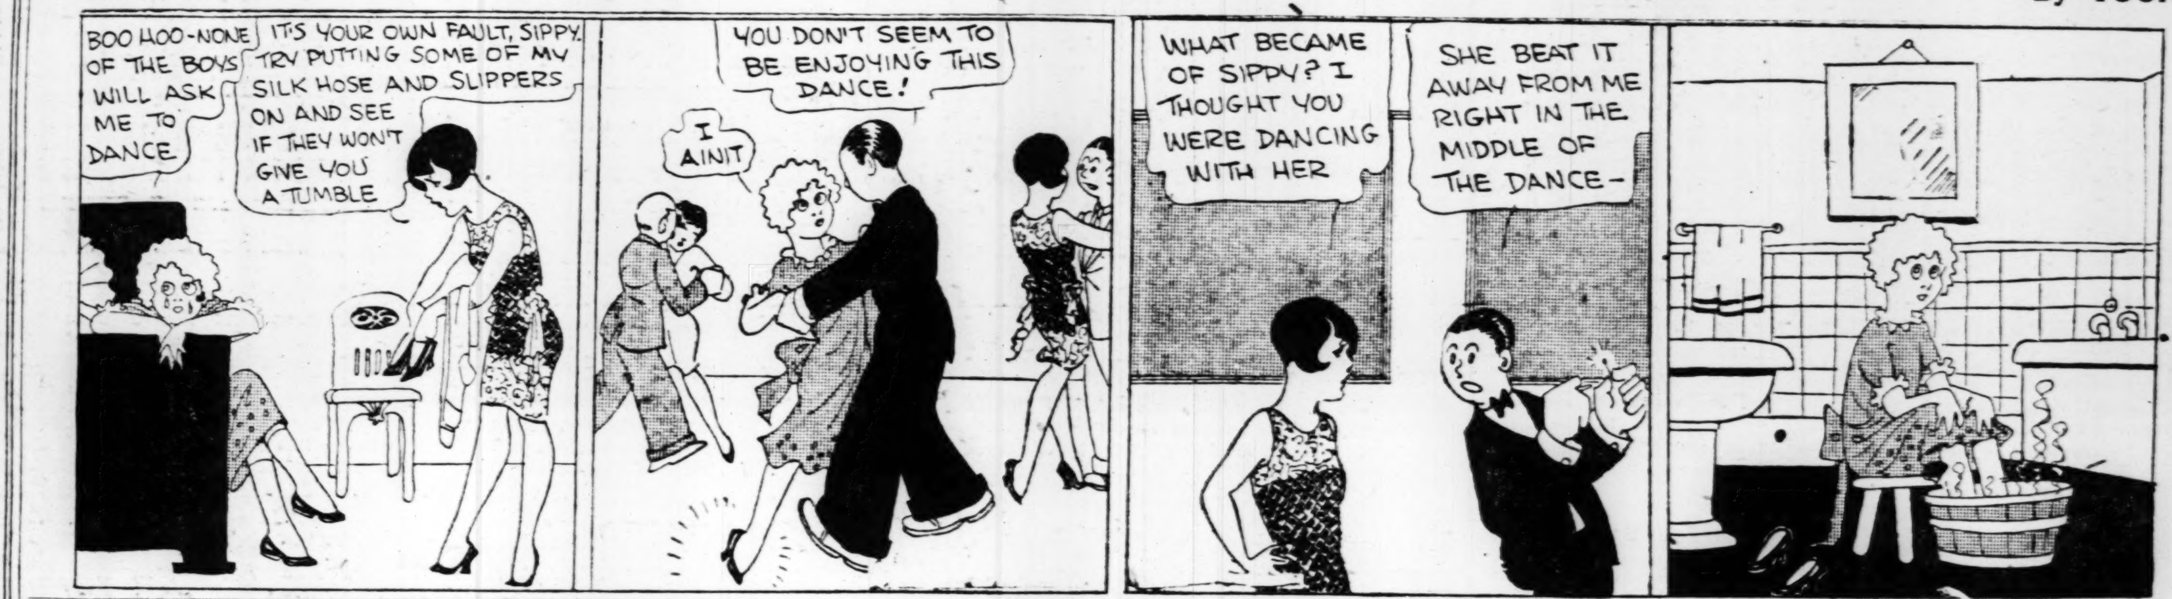
—By VIC



I CAN'T STAY IN THE HOTEL AND HEAR BLANCHE RAZZ ME ABOUT LETTING THAT MILLION DOLLAR DEAL SLIP THROUGH MY LITTLE PINK FINGERS! I'LL GET THE CAR OUT AND GO FOR AN AIRING — THEN MAYBE I CAN FORGET IT !!
GOSH! THERE GOES JIM BIGGER IN THAT TAXI —!-$— I'M GOIN' TO FOLLOW HIM —I'D LIKE TO HAVE AN INTERVIEW WITH THAT OILY OLD BIRD —!!
HAH! HE SAW ME! HE KNOWS I'M AFTER HIM! LOOK AT 'EM SPEED UP —!! — WELL, IF HE THINKS HE CAN SHAKE ME HE'D BETTER THINK AGAIN — I'LL FOLLOW HIM IF HE TAKES ME TO ALASKA — THE ONLY THING THAT CAN STOP JOE JINKS NOW IS AN EMPTY GAS TANK — LET'S GO!

DUMB DORA

—By YOUNG



BOO HOO-NONE OF THE BOYS WILL ASK ME TO DANCE.
IT'S YOUR OWN FAULT, SIPPY. TRY PUTTING SOME OF MY SILK HOSE AND SLIPPERS ON AND SEE IF THEY WON'T GIVE YOU A TUMBLE
YOU DON'T SEEM TO BE ENJOYING THIS DANCE!
I AIN'T
WHAT BECAME OF SIPPY? I THOUGHT YOU WERE DANCING WITH HER
SHE BEAT IT AWAY FROM ME RIGHT IN THE MIDDLE OF THE DANCE—

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

The Post-Dispatch reserves the right to reject any query. Personal and telephone calls, or answers by mail, cannot be given attention, except letters on medical questions of undoubted sincerity when accompanied by stamped addressed envelope.

R. L. D.—To clean studded jewelry, wash in warm suds made with yellow soap and few drops of sal volatile. You will find that this makes the ornament brilliantly clean.

F. P. W.—To clean marble slabs mix two parts of common soda, one part of pumice stone and one part of finely powdered salt. Sift the mixture through a fine sieve and mix it with water, then rub it well over the marble and the stains will be removed. Rub the marble with salt and water, then wash off and wipe dry.

HOUSEWIFE.—If the new refrigerator smells of paint burn a pan of charcoal in it by day and at night set pans of cold water on the shelves. The lead and oils will settle in the water. The volatile particles cause the odor. When precipitated into the water they cannot rise again into the air. If your newly painted floor smells conquer the nuisance by setting large pails of water in the room over night. In a couple of days the smell will be gone.

NEWLYWED.—Ecru laces can be kept to their original color by using yellow ochre, obtainable at any paint store. It is perfectly harmless to lace or muslin. Mix a small quantity of this powder with boiling water and add to the starch or last rinsing water; test the color with a corner of the curtains where the pattern is heaviest; put all curtains, intended for one room or window, in at one time, so that the color will not vary. Souse and wring out in

R. E. M.—To remove the "ring" left by sponging silk, stretch the silk taut and scratch very gently with your finger nail around the edges of the ring, always from it and evenly until you have blended the darkened portions of the silk with the rest. If done carefully this will make the blur nearly, if not quite, imperceptible. Next time sponge with alcohol and ether in equal parts. If, in cleaning with any liquid, you will put a thick, dry pad of cotton under the stained part of the stuff, there will be little danger of the "ring."

LEGAL INFORMATION

(By a Member of the St. Louis Bar Association.)

H. W. K.—If you have failed to pay the rent when it is due they can sue you out in five days.

E. L. J.—The city ordinance provides that the party living nearest the sidewalk must remove the snow.

O. Z. Y. P.—Whether he makes a will or not, the property which is owned jointly will all go to his wife, on his death.

YOURS TRULY.—As long as you pay the tax which is assessed against your property you are safe.

M. L. B.—In either case the husbands of the two daughters would have to sign the deed in order to convey a clear title.

DUMBBELL.—You are entitled to your share of the property. You should consult a lawyer without delay.

MIKE.—In our opinion it is lawful to keep the squirrel in the cage from June 1 to Dec. 31, and unlawful from Jan. 1 to May 31.

M. O.—She would probably be entitled to as much of the furniture as she had paid for with her own money.

EAST ST. LOUIS.—Write to the Marriage License Office, City Hall, New York City, N. Y., for the information.

OLD MAIDEN.—Probably you are entitled to a part of the money in the bank. If you have any trouble in getting it, consult a lawyer.

G. H. H.—A person could be sent to prison for more than 99 years if any statute provided for that. We do not know of any such statute, however.

A MINOR.—Probably your lawyer is giving you good advice. If you are not satisfied you can consult some other lawyer in whom you have more confidence.

A. B. C.—He could not sell the property in the manner stated without an order from the Probate Court and any interested party could object.

J. A. M.—You should refuse to pay him the remaining $100. If he made a false representation regarding having a surety bond, report the facts to the Warrant Office, in the Municipal Courts Building, Fourteenth and Market streets.

MEDICAL QUESTIONS

Health and sanitation questions of public interest only will be considered. Diagnosis or treatment of individual cases will not be given.

A MOTHER TO BE.—Repeat question, inclosing stamped, self-addressed envelope, for reply.

MEDICINE.—Repeat your question, inclosing stamped, addressed envelope for reply.

J. R. L.—Repeat your question enclosing stamped addressed envelope for reply.

MRS. A. J.—The condition of your eye from your description is an unusual one and to be properly diagnosed and treated should be examined by an oculist.

R. E. A. L.—You should consult a skin specialist, or if you cannot afford this, apply to the skin and cancer hospital, Washington and Theresa avenues.

M. M.—Epsom salts for the bath has the reputation and the indorsement of many good doctors as being of great benefit for the rheumatism.

A. E.—We do not believe that you have any occasion to be alarmed but should follow the advice of your doctor, who evidently has, and will continue to give the proper advice and treatment when necessary.

PATTY.—A fibrous tumor is a tumor or enlargement formed by the undue and abnormal growth of what is called connective tissue. The cure is by surgical operation for its removal.

THANK YOU.—If the ear trouble is due entirely to the effects of the medicine it should have disappeared by this time. It may be that the disease has done some injury, so you should have an examination made by an aurist.

GROPING.—The chief reason for the removal of an enlarged prostate is its obstruction to the free and normal flow of urine. When it is pronounced operative interference is the one and only hope of relief. Unless you get along fairly well and the obstruction does not increase, we would advise an operation as the best and quickest way out of the difficulty. The operation is not a serious one and when performed by an expert is practically free from danger. With this obvious cause of your trouble removed your health should be restored without further medical or surgical treatment.

BIRD WATCHER QUITS HER JOB

Finds Work on North Norfolk Island Too Arduous.

NORWICH, April 2.—Miss Turner, the solitary bird watcher on the Island of Scalt Head, in a remote part of North Norfolk, has decided to quit her post to which she was appointed by the Norfolk and Norwich Naturalists Society.

Dr. Sidney Long of Norwich, the honorary secretary of the society, says Miss Turner's job was really too big a thing for any woman to tackle, as the island is a lonely stretch four miles long and required a great deal of physical exercise to get about from one end to another. A local man has now been appointed as a whole-time watcher.

German Women Help France.

By the Associated Press.

MUNICH, April 2.—Lida Gustava Heymann, Gertrude Baer and Frau Frieda Perlen, representing the German section of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, of which Jane Addams of Chicago is international chairman, have just returned from a unique mission to France. They were delegated to present to the municipality of Arras, in the heart of the devastated areas, the sum of 15,000 fracs raised among German women for the purchase of trees as an act of good will and as a gesture of German willingness to repair damages wrought in the World War.

WEIGHTIER HOGS FAIL TO HOLD EARLY BASIS

Good Clearance of Swine Reported With Bulk of Desirable Offerings Selling Between $12.00 and $13.50.

NATIONAL STOCK YARDS, Ill., April 2.—Receipts today estimated: Cattle and calves 1500; hogs 8500; sheep 250; horses and mules 125.

CATTLE—Following an upward swing in previous days this week, the market today eased off slightly, with declines in extreme cases amounting to 15c to [illegible]. Receipts were comparatively light and trading was spotted. Beef steers sold at $7.90 to $9.15 per cwt. and light yearling steers and heifers brought $8.25 to $10. Choice shipping weight veal calves again centered at $12.75, the same as Thursday. Southern canner yearlings [illegible] at $5.

Quotations—Beef steers, range, $6.50 to [illegible]; light steers and heifers, range $4.50 to $10.75; beef cows, range $5.50 to $8; canner [illegible] cows, range, $4.50 to $5.50; [illegible] cows, range, $3.25 to $4.50; bologna bulls, range, $5.50 to $6.50; heavy beef bulls, range, $6 to $7; stocker and feeder steers, range, $5.50 to $8.75.

HOGS—A reaction in prices from yesterday's low time put the hog market back on a basis generally steady with the best time Thursday, modest receipts the most potent factor contributing to this feature. Arrivals were estimated at 8500 head with 1000 through hogs reducing the available supply of fresh offerings to 7500. Eleven markets received 58,200 head, decrease of 21,240 from last Friday and an increase of 9500 from a year ago today. Local quality graded good.

While the early movement of hogs could not be classed as active, there was a fair demand from shippers for the lighter weights and the top on this class reached $13.60 for several consignments, $13.65 being paid sparingly for sorts. Bulk of the desirable lightweight hogs from 160 to 190 lbs. brought $13.40 to $13.60. Medium-weight butcher hogs found a slow call from packer buyers at $13 to $12.40, this spread in price catching the weights from 200 to 220 lbs. average. eWightier kinds from 230 to 280 lbs. average sold in a wider spread of $12.25 to $12.75, with heavy hogs around 300 lbs. average at $12@

There was a broad demand for pigs and these ruled strong to 10c higher than yesterday. Best offerings sold upward to $13.75 in small lots, with the bulk of 100 to 130 lb. averages going at $13.25 to $13.50. Some lighter kinds ranged downward according to weight and quality. Sales included some vaccinated stock pigs at $14.

Packer sows, while in good demand, were slightly under yesterday in point of values. The top was $10.75, with bulk of sales at $10.50 to $10.75. Stags sold at $9 to $10 mostly, although occasional sales of light fat kinds ranged upward to $10.50.

Packers exerted bearish pressure on the weightier grades of hogs of 250 pounds and over, and most late sales of these weights were 40 cents under early basis today, with others not more than 25 cents off. The lowest price reached for heavy hogs averaging around 300 pounds was $11.60, with 260 to 280 pound kind at $11.75 to $12.10 and 250-pound average at $12.25. Not enough light hogs were sold late to furnish a true criterion of market on this kind. Clearance was fair. Bulk of desirable offerings sold between $12 and $13.50.

SHEEP—Receipts of sheep and lambs were estimated at 250 head, but up to a late hour this estimate had failed to materialize. Market nominally steady with Thursday.

Good to choice wool lambs quotable at $12.75 to $13.25; medium to good, $12.25 to $12.75; plain to medium, $11.75 to $12.25; cull and common, $10 to $11.50; bucks $5 to $9. Good to choice clipped lambs $10.50 to $11; medium to good, $10 to $10.50; plain to medium, $9.50 to $10, with heaviest kinds $9 to $9.25. Culls, $8 to $9. Good to choice mutton ewes, $8 to $8.50; medium to good, $7 to $8; plain to medium, $6 to $7. Choppers and canners, $3 to $4; bucks, $4 to $5. Fat goats, $3 to $4; thin and common goats, $1 to $2.50. Fat kids, $6 to $8; thin and common kinds, $3 to $5.

Local feedlots contributed some clipped lambs late in day that sold steady to strong with Thursday. Top, $10.75 for 83-pound average, with heavier lambs at $10.50. Sales included a few mutton ewes at $8.50, called steady.

HORSES AND MULES—Markets maintained a good level here this week in most departments and the modest offering of slightly better than 500 head found a good clearance. Wagon horses, farm horses and low-priced work stock were the best sellers in the equine department. Of mules, trade centered in the better grades, and these bulked at $175 to $225.

PLANS FOR LABELING U. S. WHEAT SENT THROUGH CANADA

By the Associated Press.

MONTREAL, April 2.—Following a two-day conference at the Board of Trade rooms here under the chairmanship of Leslie H. Boyd, president of the Board of Grain Commissioners, a probable basis for an agreement as to the labeling of United States grain shipped out of Montreal and other Canadian ports has been arrived at. Announcement to this effect was made today by Mr. Boyd, but no particulars were given.

Canadian grading is entirely different from the American method.

When United States grain on its way from Chicago to Europe comes into Montreal in bond it is examined by a Standards Committee, which fixes the standards for such grain. The United States Department of Agriculture felt that this standard should be made to apply as nearly as possible to the standards which prevail in the United States.

United States wheat and other grains going through Montreal for export in bond have run as high as 90,000,000 bushels per year. Last year the figure was 40,-000,000.

RATHER WIDE INTEREST IN WOOL IN WEST PAST WEEK

By the Associated Press.

BOSTON, April 2.—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say:

"Rather wide interest in wool is reported both here and in the West this week, more especially in the West. Prices here are no better, but the declining tendency seems to have been fairly well halted for the time being, while rather better demand from some of the smaller mills is in evidence.

"In the West, buying has been more widespread, with good to choice fine and fine medium wools costing $1 to $1.05, and occasionally a bit more for a [illegible] clip, clean basis, landed Boston. Grease prices for both fine and medium clips in the territory sections range from 30 to 35 cents, according to the wool, with some heavy shrinking clips in the range of 26 to 29 cents.

"The foreign markets are generally firm and occasionally a bit dearer, with consuming centers moving at a moderate pace.

"Mohair is steady in the local market. Kerrville, Tex., sold 400,000 pounds Tuesday at about 59 cents for goat hair and close to 69 cents for kid hair.

"The rail and water shipments of wool from Boston from Jan. 1, 1926, to April 1, 1926, inclusive, were 61,625,000 pounds, against 45,075,000 pounds for the same period last year. The receipts from Jan. 1, 1926, to April 1, 1926, inclusive, were 106,394,000 pounds, against 90,434,-200 pounds for the same period last year."

The Commercial Bulletin will publish the following wool quotations tomorrow:

Buys 16,000 Acres of Oil Holdings in Texas.

By the Associated Press.

BARTLESVILLE, Ok., April 2.—Purchase of more than 16,000 acres of the Landreth Production Corporation's oil holdings in Texas by the Phillips Petroleum Co. of Bartlesville was announced today by Frank Phillips, president. Phillips did not confirm a report that the transaction involved more than $4,000,000.

This property is only partially developed, having 60 wells and 4800 barrels daily production of high gravity crude oil, Phillips said.

The announcement said that 3860 acres of this property comprise more than three-fourths of the new Landreth pool, which is halfway between and similar to the South Electra and South Vernon fields in Wilbarger County.

NERVOUSNESS OVER START OF COTTON

Situation Reflected in Advances in Prices During the Past Week.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 2.—Increasing nervousness over the start of the coming crop has been reflected by advances in the cotton market here during the past week. Further rains and unseasonably low temperatures over the South have been coupled with complaints of delayed farm work and while the bulk of the demand has been attributed to people who had sold during February or early in March, some little broadening of both trade and investment demand has been reported. The buying tapered off as prices reached the 18-cent level for October contracts, or after an advance of about 80 to 90 points from the low levels touched at the beginning of March. Moderate reactions followed under profit taking which was probably promoted by the approach of the Easter holidays and reports that the high prices were bringing out rather freer offerings of spot cotton in some of the Southern markets. A continuance of unsettled weather proved a check on selling otherwise, however, and the market showed a generally steady undertone toward the end of the week. The opinion most generally expressed by local traders is that delays to farm work during March may not prove of much consequence in the long run should weather conditions during April be favorable. A late start for the crop would be considered very unfortunate as increasing the risks of boll weevil damage during the summer, but the feeling appears to be that there is still plenty of time to plant and some operators think that with a week or two of really good spring weather, nervousness over any delays so far reported would soon disappear. This idea of the situation may have been partly responsible for checking the advance during the earlier part of the week, but prospects for renewed rains over the

New Securities

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 2.—Great Western Coal Co. has been placed in receivership following announcement of its inability to meet interest requirements due April 1 on its $719,000 of outstanding first mortgage 6½ per cent bonds. Alan W. Mason, vice president of the Baltimore Trust Co., and R. P. Hobson have been named receivers.

Sanitary District of Chicago, through Halsey, Stuart & Co., and the National City Company, offers $5,000,000 of 4 per cent bonds. They mature serially from April 1, 1927, to April 1, 1946, inclusive, and are priced to yield from 4 per cent to 4.10 per cent.

S. W. Straus & Co. offer $600,000 of first mortgage bonds secured by the Oak Park Arms Hotel, Oak Park, Ill. They are priced to yield from 5.85 to 6.25 per cent.

Substantial interest in the business of E. Kahn Sons Co., beef and pork packers of Cincinnati, has been acquired by Westheimer & Co. of Cincinnati and Baltimore. They will offer the preferred and participating preference stock for sale, the first time that any Kahn stock has been offered publicly.

Exchange Seat $135,000.

NEW YORK, April 2.—George A. Muir of New York, bought the Stock Exchange seat of Fisher A. Buell, for $135,000 yesterday. The previous sale was $150,000.

Easter holidays had a sustaining effect on yesterday's market. Only one of the private reports on acreage prospects has been issued so far. It pointed to a prospective reduction of about 2.3 per cent in acreage, but an increase of 2 per cent in the use of fertilizer. These figures were without apparent effect on the market which would suggest that the trade is either waiting for later and more conclusive reports or that the percentage indicated were about in line with expectations.

SUICIDE VERDICT IN DEATH OF BOY, 13

Case That of George M. Gibb, Who Shot Himself at Home of His Aunt.

An inquest verdict of suicide was returned by a Coroner's jury today in the death of George M. Bibb, 13-year-old high school boy, who shot himself in the head with a revolver Wednesday at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Robert J. Gibson, 2841A St. Vincent avenue, with whom he lived.

Mrs. Gibson testified that the boy was in the bathroom when she came home from work, and that she called him from the kitchen. He replied, "All right, I'll be there in a minute." Then she heard a shot, and the boy's brother, Morrison, 11, crawling through the transom, found his brother on the floor unconscious.

Mrs. Gibson said she could give no reason for the boy's act. He had had two teeth removed last week and had remained at home this week because of the inclement weather. He took the revolver from a buffet drawer, where it had lain for several years. He was a first-year student at Roosevelt High School.

DR. CECIL R. WAYMAN NEW TUBERCULOSIS CONTROLLER

Appointed by Hospital Commissioner Shankland, Succeeding Dr. H. I. Spector.

Hospital Commissioner Shankland today announced the appointment of Dr. Cecil R. Wayman, 2305 South Grand boulevard, as Tuberculosis Controller for the city, to succeed Dr. H. I. Spector, who was requested to resign last month because of his unfavorable report concerning the physical condition of prisoners at the City Workhouse.

Dr. Wayman, who is 49 years old, is a member of the St. Louis, Missouri, and American Medical Associations and was a Major in the Medical Corps during the World War. Until recently he served at the United States Veterans' Bureau Clinic here. The salary is $3600 a year.

RUSSIANS TO EXPLORE JUNGLES

Party of Seven Scientists Depart for South America.

By the Associated Press.

PANAMA, April 2.—Seven Russians, comprising a scientific expedition, have sailed on board the liner Tivives to make an exploration of the jungles of South America and a study of the flora, in the hope of discovering new plants of commercial and industrial value. The party, headed by Prof. George Boronoff, intends to spend 18 months in exploring the wild country of Colombia, Peru, Bolivia, Argentina and Brazil. The party has been in Mexico five months scouring forest lands, studying and collecting specimens for Russian institutes.

Vassily Givago, a civil engineer, attached to the soviet Supreme Council of National Economy of Moscow, and a member of the party, when asked whether the expedition had any political significance, countered with: "Why do foreigners picture Russians as bearded anarchists with a bomb in every pocket?"

FACES EDWARDSVILLE CHARGE

St. Louis Gets Rid of Much-Married E. J. Edwards.

In order that Eugene J. Edwards might be taken to Edwardsville, Ill., to be tried for bigamy, charges of obtaining money under false pretenses by passing worthless checks in St. Louis were dismissed in Court of Criminal Correction yesterday. He was immediately turned over to Madison County authorities and St. Louis police were relieved of keeping books on the many charges against him.

Edwards was arrested March 10 at a St. Louis hotel with an Evansville, Ind., woman. Subsequently two women who claimed him as a husband appeared, he was identified by two storekeepers and a hotel manager as a passer of bad checks, and another deserted wife was reported. It is understood that Mrs. Gertrude E. R. Earle of Collinsville, will prosecute him at Edwardville.

AGED PAIR WED IN AIR

Georgian, 81, and Bride, 71, Married In an Airplane.

By the Associated Press.

ALBANY, Ga., April 2.—J. R. McCord, 81 years old, and Mrs. Kate Arrington, 71, were married here in an airplane thousands of feet above the city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. W. McCord, evangelist, and a son of the bridegroom.

McCord determined on the aerial wedding after taking his first ride in an airplane a few days ago. His proposal met with immediate response from the bride-to-be. The bridegroom only recently recovered his sight after a long period of blindness.

Woman Thrown Through Auto Top.

By the Associated Press.

DANVILLE, Ill., April 2.—Mrs. Elias Pruitt of Champaign probably was fatally injured; her daughter, Mrs. Maude Bradford, also of Champaign, and her son, Forest Pruitt, of Pittsburg, Pa., escaped with slight injuries when their automobile plunged over a 15-foot embankment and landed upside-down in a small stream near Wellington, north of here, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Pruitt was found about 30 feet downstream unconscious, having been thrown through the top of the car.

The Trend in Fashions

Spring Dresses Will Be in Silks of Two Tones In Pastel Shades—Skirts to Feature Pleats.

BY MARGERY WELLS

BLACK is ultra-smart for evening wear. They say so in Paris and therefore the fad is bound to reach us, as it has done in a small and exclusive way even now. We have worn colors, bright and subdued, for so long that this rage for black comes as a sort of relief, and there is no denying the fact that black is intensely becoming to the majority of women for evening wear.

Many sleeves are wide and flowing. This is a new element of the fashion. There are big wide cuffs extending from the elbow and falling away in long lines that sometimes reach the hem of the gown. This is, of course, for lacy and chiffony evening gowns. Then there are the street and afternoon dresses which have cuffs of the same tendency—those that are shaded and fall away from the arms in graceful manner. They are lined often with bright colors and contrasting silks, giving that contribution to the general plan and design of the dress.

* * *

Use Two Materials

TWO materials—wool and silk—are often used in the newer dresses. They can be of exactly the same color and tone and the dress can be made in the simplest of manners, but the mere fact that contrast of fabric seems to supply enough interest makes the costume a living thing and entirely in harmony with all the mandates of modern style.

Printed silk and plain silk are combined, too, to make the most interesting frocks. There will be a blouse of one and a skirt of another, either of which may be printed or plain. And then you will find there is precious little trimming added. Perhaps there may be a few buttons, but, as a rule, they too are covered with one of the fabrics that is used in making up the dress.

SILKS of two tones are smartest for spring dresses. But the shading of color is always of a pastel tone. This idea cannot fail to be fashionable, and when the coat is lined with one tone of the color, the dress showing another tone, then the smartness is complete.

Linings for coats are frequently wider than the coats themselves this spring. That is, the lining will be continued on for a space of sometimes 10 or 12 inches and then folded over to make soft, pliable revers, or a scarf of a fichu sort of thing, or some other arrangement of that sort. This is one of the newer methods of making a coat or a wrap interesting according to spring standards.

* * *

Plenty of Pleats

THE fullness in skirts is seldom curved or rounded or cut in godets this spring season. There are pleats aplenty and there are accordion flutings of sorts, but these are usually confined at the fronts of dresses or at the sides, in order to give that look of smartness which is one of the hallmarks of the style of the day.

It is really funny to see how many dresses there are in the new collections which are so straight and uncompromising in line. After all, the straight dress is the popular one of the day, and designers seem to have realized the fact and to have indicated their willingness to fall into line with popular taste and to cater to it.

* * *

Not Going Backward

THERE are those who argue that a style does not last forever, that women will some day take to corsets, long hair and cumbersome dresses. But the modern generation does not seem to have any natural feeling in the retrogressive direction, if any of their comments and jeers can be taken seriously.

The bloused back is one of the latest features. It is very new and has not as yet become strongly popular, but there are indications that it will be a favorite later on. The waist line is still long, to be sure, but the bodice is bloused at the back, being held fast and straight in front. This is a line which is strangely becoming to some people and therefore it is bound to find some degree of popularity.

The little vest blouses that are made for tailored suits are really lovely, and are bound to strike a responsive note in any feminine breast. They are made of anything from satin to pique, and there are linens and broadcloths and crepes in between. They have little short sleeves, to make for their comfort under tightly or loosely fitting coats. Then the fronts where the vests show between the open fronts of the coats are made in tailored fashion with interesting buttons or series of tucks or nicely arranged bindings. These vests are one of the economical, practical inventions of the day, and the woman who discovers them, with their minimum laundry possibilities, is going to feel that something has been added to the convenience of her life.

* * *

Velvet Jackets for Sports

VELVET jackets or duvetyne jackets are very smart for sports wear, and these, worn with shirts of silk or flannel, are lovely things to make a new note in the realm of sports clothes. The jackets are bright in color, while the skirts are usually white or neutral in shade, and the combination is one that serves the purpose so adequately that it is bound to meet with an immediate response.

Capes are good, and in the making of coats you will find that the designers have used the cape idea with the utmost effect. The sleeves are often only cape portions, and under these flying wings there is no other notion of a sleeve. For dress coats the idea is 100 per cent. for in a wrap of this character one can find all the advantages coupled with those of a coat and all of the disagreeable features of each removed as though by magic.

Satin wraps are very good. They are mostly of black satin and have linings of crepe in some pale shade to match or to conform with the shade of the dress that is worn underneath. You can see that a wrap of this sort will allow of the assembling of several kinds of ensembles, for the dress can match the coat or its lining or it can be a sort of combination of the two, and then you have obtained three separate costumes by using only one coat as the foundation.

FOR BEAUTIFUL ANKLES

By LUCREZIA BORI

"WHAT wouldn't I do to have thin ankles!"

How often I have heard girls and women make this statement.

Now, the point I want to make is that they make it with apparently all sincerity, yet I wonder. I wonder how many of them would do just what they think they would if this meant sticking to some apparently insignificant exercise day in and day out.

Now, one peculiar aspect I have noticed among beauty-seekers is that so many of them become enthusiastic over some suggested remedy when this remedy must be procured at the hands of a highly trained specialist and costs a bit of money into the bargain.

But the simple home treatments that one must carry on from day to day without the help and stimulation of another are the treatments that often prove too much for the woman who is enthusiastic at the beginning.

If I could only inpress on these women the necessity of an inflexible will in the carrying out of these little "home treatments!" It may be harder to keep your enthusiasm keen when you have to carry the work along all by yourself, especially when, perhaps, you meet with a certain amount of ridicule from other member of your family.

But don't let this bother you. Enthusiasm is worth all the more when it doesn't have to be fanned by the help of others.

To get back to ankles, which is really my subject in hand, I hope I have prepared the seekers after slim ankles to feel really determined to stick to this exercise below if they want results. It's a simple little exercise to be done at home, and it's easy, but it must be persevered in.

You must be barefooted or in your stocking feet.

Place your hands on your hips and stand erect.

Now raise slowly on your toes, then slowly lower your heels to the floor again.

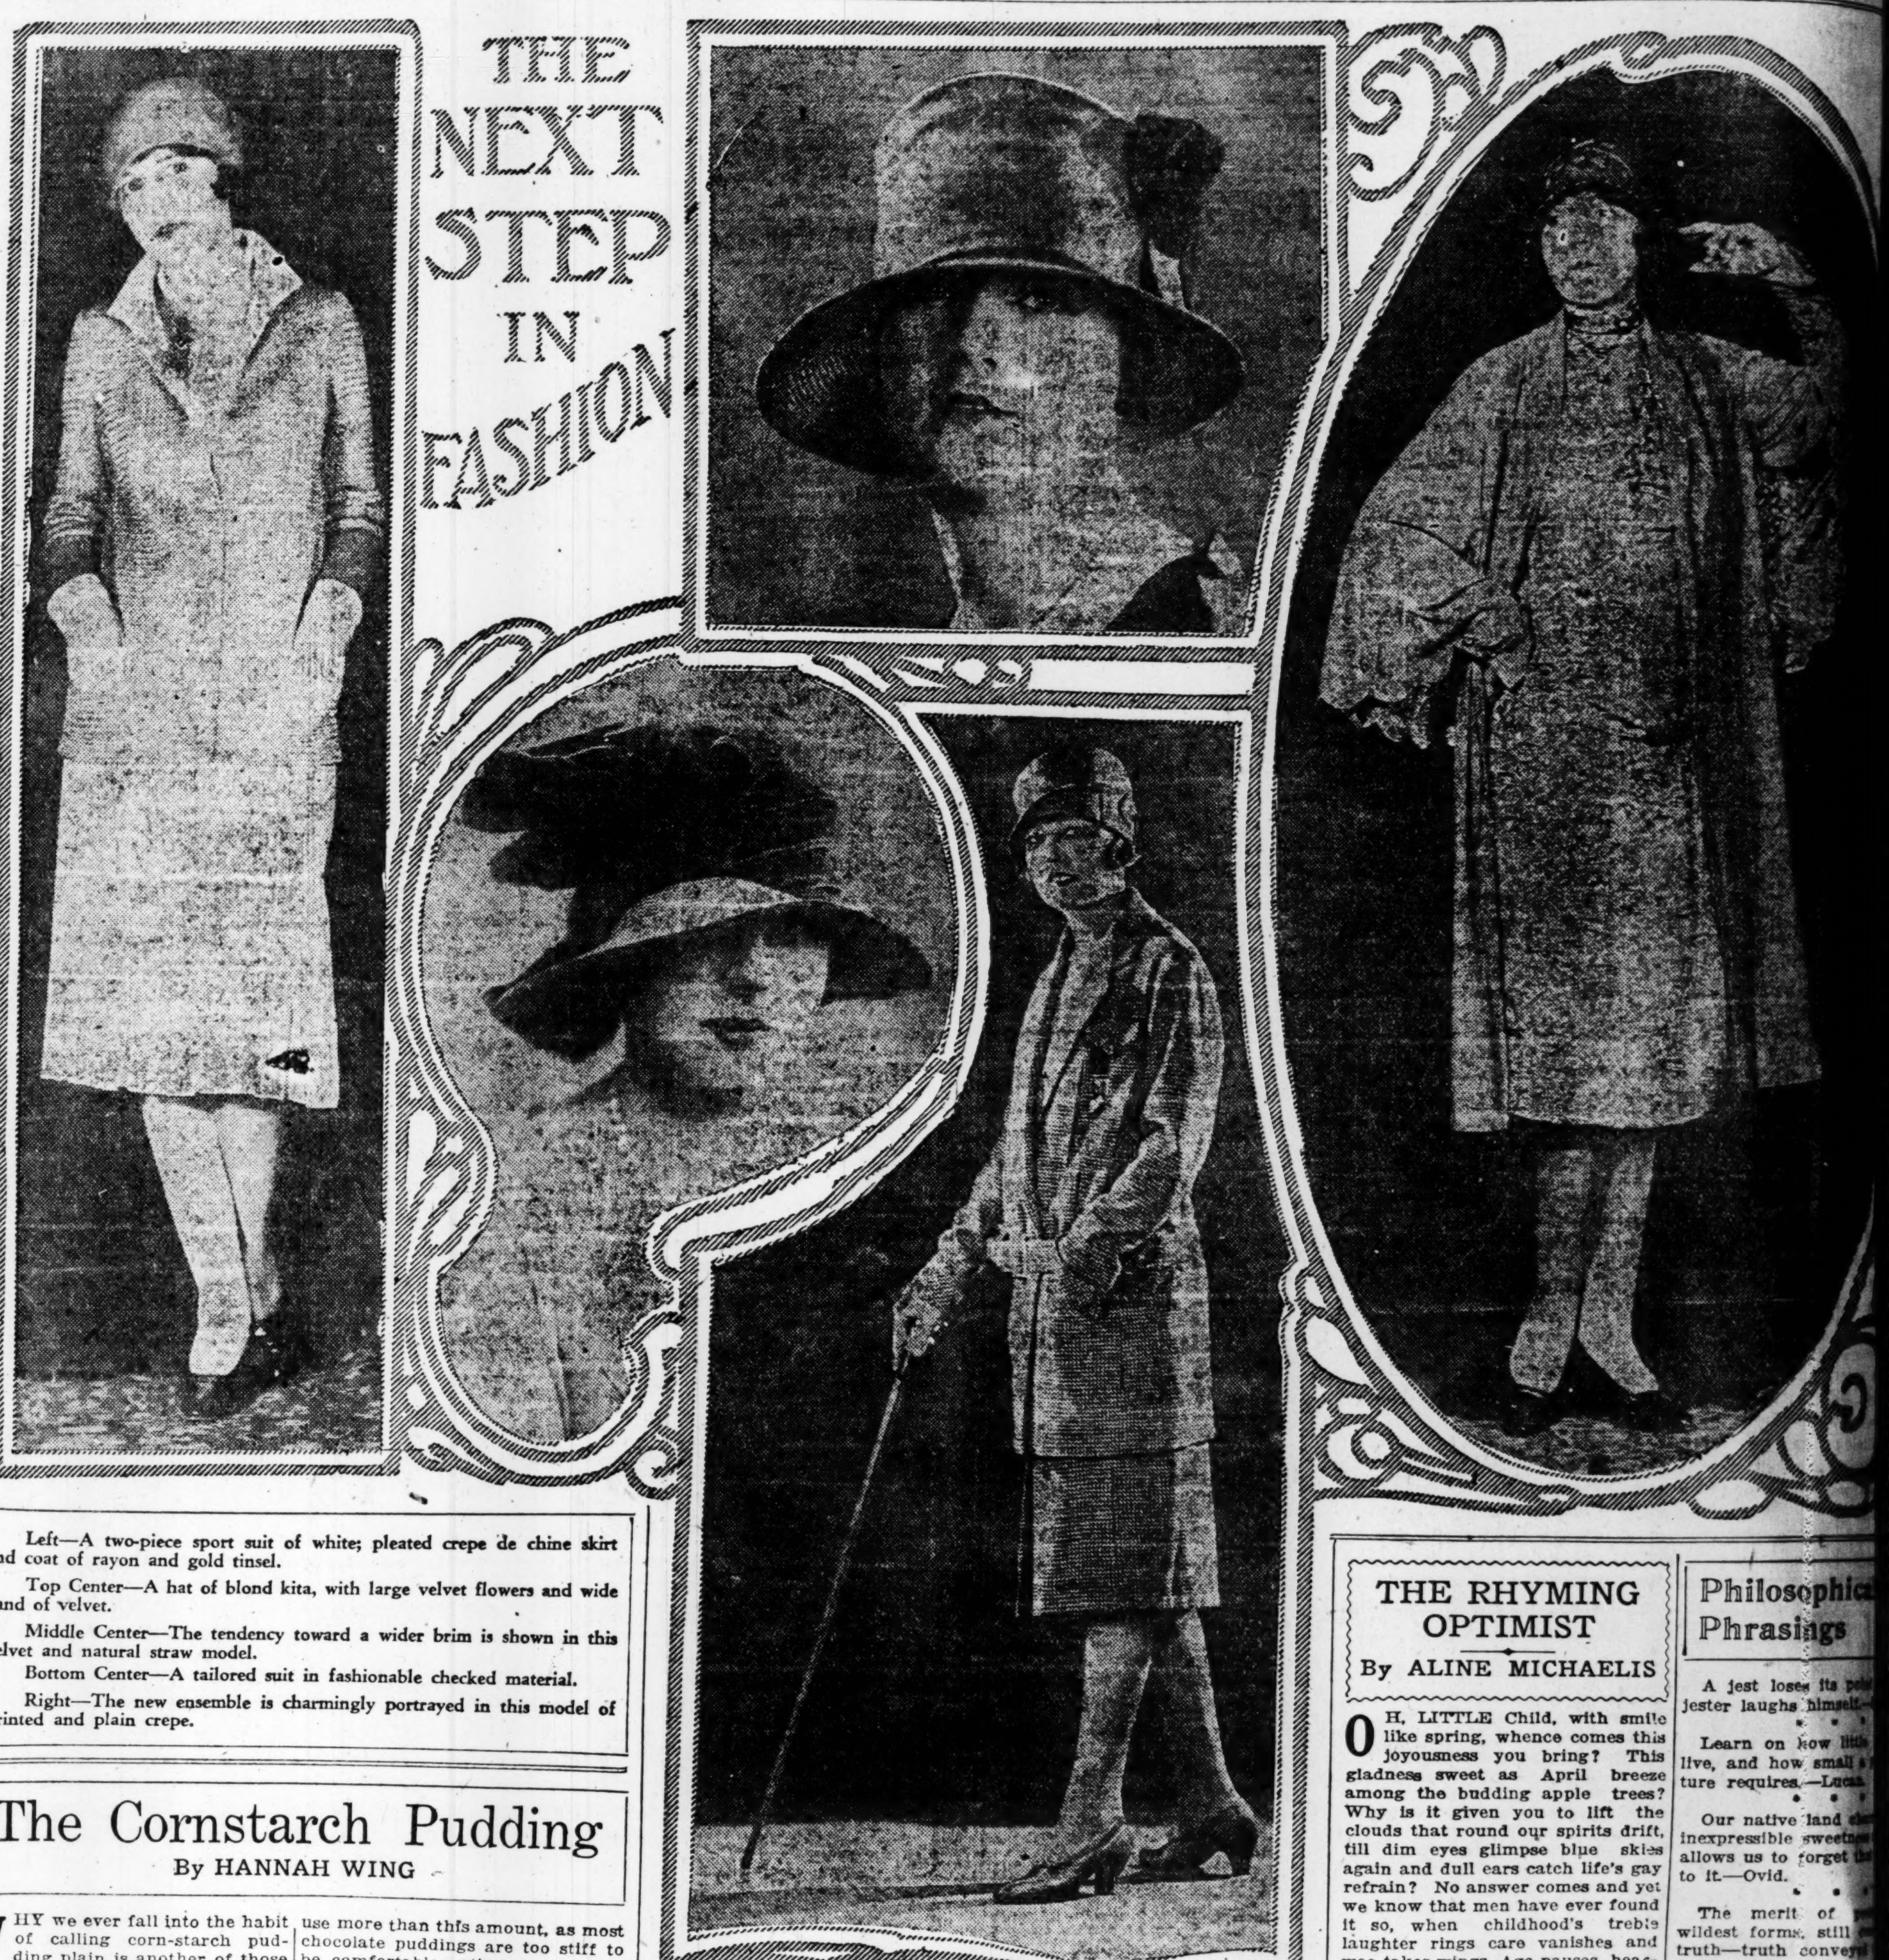
Repeat this 30 times, counting the upward and downward movement together as one.

Go through this exercise three times a day. It is well to take it in the morning when you get up, then once during the day and the third time before you go to bed at night.

I advise you to measure your ankles before you begin. Keep it up steadily for a month or so, then measure again. The tape line should tell you a very encouraging story.

Smoked Halibut and Salmon.

Both smoked halibut and salmon may be flaked and allowed to stand for five minutes in hot water, then may be drained thoroughly and slipped into a good cream sauce. Serve on toast garnished with parsley. Or the fish may be very thinly sliced and used for sandwiches. Or the fish may be sliced in thick slices and after being brushed over with butter may be broiled delicately. The fish may also be escalloped for baking.



THE NEXT STEP IN FASHION

Left—A two-piece sport suit of white; pleated crepe de chine skirt and coat of rayon and gold tinsel.

Top Center—A hat of blond kita, with large velvet flowers and wide band of velvet.

Bottom Center—A tailored suit in fashionable checked material.

Right—The new ensemble is charmingly portrayed in this model of printed and plain crepe.

The Cornstarch Pudding

By HANNAH WING

WHY we ever fall into the habit of calling corn-starch pudding plain is another of those still-to-be answered questions in the history of cooking. Well-made corn-starch without a single trace of coloring, sauce or fruit, can be as beautiful in color as old ivory, as tender in texture as the most perfect jelly and as smooth as the richest mousse. But it must be well made, and this means long cooking, slow, even cooking and a double boiler.

If milk is used, rinse the cooker first in cold water before putting the cornstarch on to scald. This will keep the milk from sticking and make the dish easier to wash as well as preventing any taste of over-cooked milk.

While the milk shouldn't be overcooked, the cornstarch must be—at least it does no harm—and any undercooking gives the unpleasant taste of uncooked starch which has undoubtedly helped to give cornstarch its unenviable reputation.

Mix the cornstarch thoroughly with the sugar, salt, and add a little scalded milk, stirring until the mixture is a smooth paste. Dilute the paste with the scalded milk and then add it to the milk in the double boiler. This will give a mixture that is certain be to smooth.

Stir until the mixture thickens, keeping the heat low under the boiler and letting the cooking proceed slowly. Now comes the cooker and let the mixture proceed to cook and mellow for 15 or 20 minutes.

Three tablespoons of cornstarch, four tablespoons of sugar to two cups of scalded milk will give a pudding that is not too stiff and will chill well.

If chocolate is to be added, never use more than this amount, as most chocolate puddings are too stiff to be comfortable eating.

If fruit is to be added, or if a fruit juice is used with or instead of milk, use four tablespoons of cornstarch.

The flavor of cornstarch pudding is easily varied. For instance, a fine maple pudding can be made by simply using six tablespoons of shaved maple sugar or even brown sugar. To make this pudding into a truly rich dessert add a quarter of a cup of finely chopped pecans after the pudding has finished cooking, and if eggs are reasonable in price and the occasion warrants it,, stir in at this time one slightly beaten egg.

Not all cornstarch puddings need be made of milk. A fruit flavor and color can easily be given by using fruit juice or the syrup from canned fruit in place of the milk.

Substitute one cup of syrup drained from canned apricots and one cup of boiling water or scalded milk flavored with one tablespoon of lemon juice for the milk in the standard recipe. Omit the sugar, but allow four tablespoons cornstarch.

When the mixture has finished cooking, fold in one cup of the canned apricots which have been cut very fine, or mashed to a smooth pulp. Put into dessert dishes and chill. Serve with cream and sugar or a fruit sauce.

Any fruit and fruit canned, or fresh fruit flavored with a tablespoon of lemon juice may be substituted for the apricots. Pineapple, raspberry and peaches give excellent results when used in this way. It is also a thrifty method of combining and utilizing small quantities of left-over fruits and fruit syrups.

Down With Geometry.

French designers now are predicting the passing of the Cubist designs. They say the light dresses in printed voile or silk will be popular this summer but they indicate bright colored flower designs will supersede the cubes and triangles and say the backgrounds will be dark blue, brown or black. The skirts, they say, will frequently be formed of a series of flounces, the figures showing only in front.

Women Dispose
Of this new hygienic pad as easily as tissue —no laundry

COUNTLESS women have discarded old-time "sanitary" pads for a new and better way.

A way that offers far greater protection. A way, too, that banishes the old-time problem of disposal.

Eight in 10 better-class women now use "KOTEX."

✓ Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

Five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads.

Deodorizes, thus ending ALL danger of offending.

Obtainable at all drug and department stores simply by saying "KOTEX." You ask for it without hesitancy.

Package of 12 costs only a few cents Proves old ways a needless risk. In fairness to yourself, try it.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By ALINE MICHAELIS

OH, LITTLE Child, with smile like spring, whence comes this joyousness you bring? This gladness sweet as April breeze among the budding apple trees? Why is it given you to lift the clouds that round our spirits drift, till dim eyes glimpse blue skies again and dull ears catch life's gay refrain? No answer comes and yet we know that men have ever found it so, when childhood's treble laughter rings care vanishes and woe takes wings. Age pauses, hearing that shrill strain which briefly lends it youth again, to vision, for a little space, its bygone days of carefree grace. Oh, little child, sweet magic lies within your guileless smile and eyes, and though the grim years march along, you heal their scars with treble song!

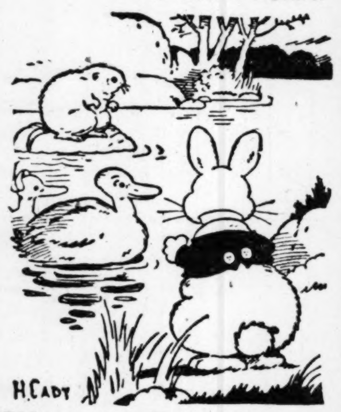
Some Smiling Pool Gossip

When gossips meet along the way,
They always find a lot to say.

—Old Mother Nature.



"Did you see Honker the Goose down there?" asked Peter.

THIS doesn't mean that what they find to say is worth saying. Very often it isn't. Sometimes it would be much better if it were left unsaid. But folk with easy running tongues dearly love to gossip.

Over at the Smiling Pool, Peter Rabbit sat on the bank. Jerry Muskrat sat on the Big Rock, and in the Smiling Pool itself between them sat Mr. and Mrs. Quack, who had just arrived from the Sunny South, where they had spent the winter. Of course, Peter wanted to know all about the feathered folk who had been left in the Sunny South, and of course Mr. and Mrs. Quack wanted to hear all the news of the Green Meadows and the Green Forest.

"Did you see Honker the Goose down there?" asked Peter.

"No," replied Mrs. Quack. "The Sunny South is a very big place. Honker was not where we were at all."

"Did you find the Sunny South had changed much?" inquired Peter.

Mrs. Quack sighed. "I should say so," said she. "Do you remember that last year when I returned I told you how many of the ponds and lakes had disappeared, because those two-legged creatures called men had drawn the water out of them?"

Peter nodded. "I remember," said he. "Did you find that they had let the water back into some of them this year?"

Mrs. Quack shook her head sadly. "No," she said. "No, indeed. Instead, we found that there was less water than before. The place where we spent the winter before was wholly dry this time. We had to hunt up a new place. Once, Mr. Quack and I always knew just where we were going when we started South. But times have changed. Yes, indeed, times have changed. Now, when we go South we haven't the least idea where we are going. I begin to wonder if there will be any lakes and marshes left. Those that are left are so crowded that it is a wonder more don't starve to death than actually do. And as if all this were not bad enough, the hunters with terrible guns give us no peace before the middle of the winter. For weeks and weeks and weeks we never know that we shall be able to get a mouthful to eat without being in danger from those terrible guns. It's hard on one's nerves, Peter Rabbit."

"I should say so," said Peter. "If I were you, Mrs. Quack, I wouldn't go South."

"Quack, quack, Peter, talk sense," replied Mrs. Quack. "We must eat, and pray what would we eat up here when everything is frozen?"

Peter looked a little foolish and scratched his long ears with his long hindfeet. "That's so," said he. "But you might live at Farmer Brown's house. Farmer Brown's Boy has ducks every year. He had some all winter. Then you would have enough to eat." Peter looked as if he thought this really was a bright idea.

Mrs. Quack shook her head. "Why don't you live there yourself, Peter?" she demanded. "You know you want your freedom. Mr. Quack and I want our freedom just the same way. Farmer Brown's Boy has always treated us kindly, but after all, he is one of those two-legged creatures and it is those two-legged creatures who have made life so hard for Mr. Quack and myself and all our relatives."

Pepper in Variety

A newly wed is puzzled about the "variety in pepper." Yes, every well-stocked pantry has white pepper, black pepper and paprika.

The white pepper is weaker in flavor than the black, but is more pleasing in appearance, hence used in mashed or any potatoes that are cooked, oyster stew, fish chowder and cream soups, boiled onions, eggs and white vegetables.

Housewives prefer the paprika on account of its delicate flavor and its bright color and they use it for nearly every food where the pepper flavor is desired, especially in salads; and it is often used as a garnish on potatoes.

Sardine Sandwiches.

To prepare the filling remove the bones from the sardines in a medium-sized can, add one tablespoon lemon juice, a cream cheese and a tablespoon of chili sauce, minced pimientos or green peppers. Make sandwiches of thinly sliced white bread and this filling. Cut in halves and fry in butter first on one side, then on the other. Serve hot.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Quicker Baking.

Potatoes will require less time to bake if they are placed in hot water for 15 minutes before they are put into the oven.

• • •

Separating Eggs.

When separating eggs, if a little of the yolk slips into the white, it can be removed by touching it with the end of a clean cloth that has been wrung out of warm water. The yolk will cling to it at once.

• • •

Have It Ground.

When ordering meat for chopped meat loaf or cakes, order the cut you wish and then have it ground twice. It will have a much better flavor. Either top or bottom of the round or top of sirloin makes good hamburg steak.

• • •

The Outside Shows.

The neighbor who has not access to your home is very apt to judge what sort of a housekeeper you are by the outside appearance. Wash your windows, polish your brasswork, keep your yard clean and your porch tidy. It will not only be a credit to you but to the entire neighborhood.

A COLLEGE professor inherited an ancient country home from an uncle who had died there under circumstances that were mysterious. With his family the professor went to the country place to spend the summer and from the day they arrived strange things happened.

Lentil Soup.

Soak one-half cup green lentils over night in cold water to cover. Wash, drain and simmer till soft—about two hours—in a quart and a half of boiling water, seasoned with one-half tablespoon sugar, a teaspoon salt and one-fourth teaspoon pepper. Fry one small chopped onion and one-third cup chopped celery or ground celery leaves in three tablespoons melted butter or bacon fat. Add to the lentils, cook thirty minutes more, add a pint of milk and thicken with three tablespoons flour blended with a little cold water. Rub through a sieve before serving.

The Voyager.

STARS are golden seashells
On the shore of night.
When a land where shells ar
Made of light!

All the sky's an ocean,
All the dark's a sea
And the moon a dream boat
Made for me.

I shall go a-sailing
And the world will keep Safe until tomorrow
While I sleep.

Only dolls and children
When they close their eyes
Straightway go a-sailing
In the skies.

THE PASSING SHOW.

SIR THOMAS L. again will try
To take our trophy from us;
He is a most persistent guy—
More power to Sir Thomas!
He'll nail his pennant to the mast,
And never give up trying,
And hopes to finish first at last,
With colors proudly flying.

The fans will have a chance to hear
The famous Billy Sunday;
The old right-fielder will appear
For one performance Monday.
He was no marvel with the stick
At which we've often wondered,
For, when he goes against St. Nick
He always bats .300.

Relief appears to be in sight
For those whose thirst is chronic;
For, brewers now will have the right
To manufacture tonic.
While it may have a certain kick,
We're told by those who brew it
That it will be so bloomin' thick
You'll almost have to chew it.

ALL RIGHT, ANDRA.

Volstead says he will fight the sale of that 3.75 tonic on the ground that it is a little bit too tonic.

"Indictment Dismissed for Want of Comma."

And thereby hang all the law and the prophets.

QUITE SO.

In Knutsford, England, the patrons of the May festival think that a shingled poll doesn't harmonize with a May pole.

Of course, the bobbed haired girls could put on an opposition party and dance the Charleston around the May pole.

The Pretender to the French throne is dead. His passing may result in bringing to light other pretenders to the pretendership.

Thrones are so cheap now that it hardly pays a Pretender to keep up the pretense.

See where the legal standing of a flexible tariff is under question. Now, maybe, we'll learn what this flexible tariff has to do with the price of rubber.

How about mud guards and fog horns?

A 91-year-old Deputy Sheriff named S. Foster Black, who has been camping on the trail of the man who stole a horse and wagon in 1880 claims he has at last landed his quarry, which leads us to hope that some day the man who struck Billy Patterson will be brought to book.
